SEARS SURGICAL LABORATORY TO BE ACTIVATED AT CITY HOSPITAL—TRUSTEES SO VOTE AFTER PROLONGED NEGOTIATIONS—TO BE LOCATED IN SURGICAL OPERATING BUILDING—TO BE MEMORIAL TO LATE DR. GEORGE G. SEARS—TRUSTEES NOW HAVE SUM OF $1,590,341.13 TO BE USED FOR PURPOSE AS RESULT OF BEQUEST TO HOSPITAL.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital Department of the City of Boston held on December 22 at Boston City Hospital final votes were taken to activate the Sears Surgical Laboratory of Boston City Hospital.

This action came as the result of several months of continuous study and a prolonged series of negotiations on the part of the trustees.

The new laboratory for surgical research will be located in the Surgical Operating Building. Surgical operations formerly performed in this building are now done elsewhere within the hospital.

REPORT OF DENNIS C. HALEY, SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS, ON ATTENDANCE AT MEETING OF SUPERINTENDENTS IN CITIES WITH POPULATION OVER 200,000, IN LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, OCTOBER 13-16, 1954, INCLUSIVE.

The following is the report of Superintendent Dennis C. Haley on attendance at convention in Louisville, Kentucky:

The Semiannual Meeting of the Superintendents of Schools in Cities with Population over 200,000 was held in Louisville, Kentucky, on October 14, 15, and 16, 1954. Superintendent Dennis C. Haley represented the Boston public schools.

The general activities were planned by Omer Carmichael, Superintendent of Schools in Louisville, Kentucky. The program schedule included visitations to schools in Louisville and a series of conferences and discussions on important problems in education. The conference agenda for this meeting was prearranged by the chairman of this group, Claude V. Courter, Superintendent of Schools in Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Courter prepared

CITY COMPELLED TO TAKE LAND BY EMINENT DOMAIN FOR AN OPEN DUMP IN CEDAR GROVE SECTION OF DORCHESTER ON BANKS OF NEPONSET RIVER — LAND OWNED BY KEYSTONE MANUFACTURING COMPANY — MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES ISSUES EXPLANATORY STATEMENT FOLLOWING ACTION OF COUNCIL AT MONDAY'S MEETING — PROBLEM OF DISPOSAL OF REFUSE AND GARBAGE SETTLED ONLY TEMPORARILY, MAYOR EXPLAINS.

As a result of the rejection by the City Council of the plans of Mayor John B. Hynes for a $1,500,000 incinerator in the Cedar Grove section of Dorchester, along the banks of the Neponset River, it will now be necessary for the city to take land by eminent domain from the Keystone Manufacturing Company for an open dump across Granite avenue from the Cedar Grove site.

This was made known in a statement issued by Mayor Hynes following the Council vote. The statement reads as follows:

The unwillingness of the City Council to approve the site on the Neponset River marshes for a modern incinerator further aggravates a very aggravating problem. The site chosen by the Public Works Commissioner seemed to be the best, if not the only, site in Dorchester which would be free from substantial and legitimate objections. It will now be necessary for the city to arrange to take land adjoining the present dumping site on Hallet street in Dorchester for dumping purposes. This site is now owned by the Keystone Manufacturing Company and will be separated from the main properties of that company by the new Southeast Expressway which will be built next year.

Disposal Problem Continues.

At the best, this site will provide for dumping for two years, more or less. The problem of disposal of refuse from the Dorchester district will continue to be an aggravating and acute problem until such time as the city can get the approval of the City Council for a site in that district for an incinerator.

A modern incinerating plant, such as those now operating in various cities and towns throughout the country, is neither obnoxious nor detrimental to a neighborhood. In Boston, which has little if any available land for open dump sites, incinerating plants must be constructed. We shall go forward with the construction of an incinerator in the South Bay section of the city, and construction should begin sometime in the late spring. This incinerator will take care of the refuse from the Roxbury, South End, North Dorchester, and South Boston districts. It will not be large enough to meet the requirements of the entire city.

I commend those City Councillors who, fully understanding the situation, voted for the site along the Neponset River.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

the agenda from data which he had received as a result of an earlier request that all participating superintendents submit to him important problems affecting both local and national educational policies. The conference and discussions were most valuable and covered a very wide range of subject matter.

FINANCE AND COSTS.

Although there was general agreement that educational costs had continued to increase in 1953-54, ten cities reported that necessary funds had been easier to obtain, and no city reported curtailment of services because of inadequate financial support.

Cafeteria costs were considered as increasing items in school budgets. Discussion indicated that cafeterias are operated without loss in twenty-seven cities; that free lunches are provided in budgets of eight cities; and that local Community Chests assist in the financing of free lunch programs in six cities.

In regard to per pupil cost factors, it was found that in fifteen cities classes are larger, in six cities classes are smaller, and in nineteen cities classes are the same size as last year.

Other subjects considered were custodial costs and night football, which is conducted in twenty-two cities.

BUILDINGS.

Twenty-one cities reported a downward trend in construction costs. Dallas, for example, recently let a substantial contract at eighty-five cents per cubic foot for an elementary school with auditorium and cafeteria, and sixteen other cities have let contracts within the past six months at less than one dollar per cubic foot. Twenty cities are now building two-story elementary schools, and ten cities have reduced building costs by using one basic plan for all elementary schools. Twenty cities cited decreased use of glass blocks because of heat, glare, and difficulty of replacement when broken.

Only four cities noted an increase in damage to school property by vandals. Through night shifts operating in school buildings up to eleven o'clock and through use of mobile units of personnel, who tour the city after dark checking on school property, other cities have brought about a reduction in losses from vandalism.

ADMINISTRATION — INSURANCE.

Pupil accident insurance, now in effect in twenty cities, was discussed at length. In one city the plan is administered by the Parent-Teacher Association. In another city the School Department sends information to the homes, and parents then deal directly with the insurance companies, in the selection of which the Board of Education has no part.

Two cities view pupil accident plans as commercial activities and hold that it is illegal to participate.

Fire insurance was also carefully considered. It was found that fifteen cities have self-insurance plans, under which they put aside $50,000 per year as a replacement fund. Dayton has a $100,000 deductible policy on each building. Dallas, with 500,000 population, spends about $60,000 per year for this type of coverage.

ADMINISTRATION.

Among subjects discussed under administration were maximum and minimum class sizes, counseling and guidance in schools of all levels, teacher-pupil ratios, type and duties of supervisory personnel, use of teacher-consultants to assist supervisors, free selection of high schools by pupils, personalizing of large schools, liaison work with voluntary youth agencies, and organization of specialized high schools.

CURRICULUM.

The constant evaluation and revision of curriculum by specially qualified personnel is of increasing importance in successful operation of a modern school system. So vital is this work considered that seventeen major cities currently appropriate funds for summer employment of teachers and other staff members in curriculum development, and twenty-five cities follow the policy of releasing teachers from regular duty during the school term to work on curriculum and replacing them in the classroom by substitutes.

Among the many current curriculum practices discussed, the following were of major importance:

1. Foreign language instruction in elementary grades. This practice is now followed in eight major cities. In San Diego 90 per cent of all Grade V pupils receive one hour per week of instruction in conversational Spanish by traveling teachers. In Richmond one and one-half hours per week are offered in Spanish or French as an introduction to more advanced study in junior high school. Washington, D. C., gives courses in Spanish, French, and German on television. As yet, no large city offers mass instruction in foreign languages for elementary school pupils.

2. Programs for gifted children. Several cities conduct noteworthy programs for superior students. Toronto compresses the work of three elementary grades into two years. Indianapolis conducts fifteen centers for elementary school students above Grade IV with I.Q.'s over 130, instructing these students in such subjects as science and typing in classes of not more than twenty. Portland, Oregon, employs leadership abilities and special interests rather than I.Q. scores as bases for selection of students for membership in accelerated groups. At high school level these pupils work after regular school hours in seminars with college professors. The Portland program, which has been from its inception financed by grants from the Ford Foundation, has proved so successful that the city plans to continue its operation out of public funds.

3. Programs for maladjusted and exceptional children. During the past year eight more cities followed the lead of Boston in setting up programs for pupils having I.Q.'s under 50. Twenty-three cities now offer such services, nine in special centers, and fourteen in regular buildings. St. Paul has established a maximum class size of eighteen with a teacher and a matron in attendance.

In Seattle a prevocational school offers special training to socially and emotionally maladjusted pupils who are potential drop-outs. The school reports a high average of pupil retention.

4. Special activities to meet current youth problems. Of the numerous activities introduced to improve youth conduct in the community, the program sponsored in Portland, Oregon, appeared to reach the largest number of pupils. In nine city schools a social room has been set up with snack bar and juke box. These rooms are open every evening except Saturday and Sunday until nine o'clock, with a social worker in charge. The average attendance at the various centers ranges from 75 to 100. A considerable improvement in youth conduct has been observed in the community since the inauguration of this program.

Other subjects of discussion were recruitment of teachers, methods of selection and promotion of teachers, salaries, sick leave, and the organization and direction of public relations programs.

The program of school visitations and the broad range of vital subjects considered in conference and discussion periods by the superintendents of cities with populations over 200,000 made this meeting at Louisville one of exceptional educational value.

TRUSTEES OF BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL APPROVE SEARS SURGICAL LABORATORY.

The Sears Surgical Laboratory will be a memorial to the late Dr. George G. Sears, for many years a prominent Boston physician. Dr. Sears was for several years a member of Boston City Hospital's Board of Trustees and served as secretary to the Board.

The late Charles H. Tyler of Boston, who died December 6, 1931, established a public charitable trust in his will and left $1,000,000 to the Boston City Hospital for this memorial to Dr. Sears. The money became available gradually as the estate was settled. The funds have now accumulated in the amount of $1,590,341.13.

TEACHING SURGICAL SERVICE.

A teaching surgical service will also be established in connection with the Sears Surgical Laboratory. This will be conducted in conjunction with Harvard Medical School and complements two teaching surgical services now operating in cooperation with Boston University School of Medicine and Tufts College Medical School.

The action taken by the Board of Trustees establishes the Sears Surgical Laboratory as a major project conducted in conjunction with Harvard Medical School. Tufts College Medical School will benefit directly in the surgical research activities at Boston City Hospital, since the medical schools of Harvard and Tufts are specifically mentioned in the Tyler will and both had teaching services at the hospital at that time.

The trustee vote contains the following specific language:

". . . until it is determined by this Board that other arrangements might better serve the welfare of the sick of Boston, the teaching of medical students and young physicians, the advancement of surgical science, and the effectuation of the intent of the public charitable trust left to the Boston City Hospital by clause 'E' of the will of the late Charles H. Tyler (who died December 6, 1931—Essex Probate No. 172079)—

"1. The Director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory shall be appointed only after consultation with and nomination by the President and Fellows of Harvard College;

"2. The Director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory shall be the responsible, full-time administrative head not only of the Sears Surgical Laboratory but also of the teaching surgical service established in connection therewith, shall supervise all the activities of each, and shall be a member of the staff of the Boston City Hospital;

"3. The professional staff (including residents and interns) of the Sears Surgical Laboratory and of the teaching surgical service established in connection therewith shall be appointed by this Board only from persons nominated by the Director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory;

"4. So much of the legacy given to the Boston City Hospital by clause 'E' of the aforesaid will of the late Charles H. Tyler as may be necessary, but in no event in excess of $500,000, shall be used, but only after consultation with the Director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory, to establish the Sears Surgical Laboratory in fact by remodeling, renovating and equipping the portions of the Surgical Operating Building designated this day as such Laboratory; and the balance of said legacy together with all accretions and accumulations prior to the completion of such establishment in fact, saving only such sums as may be necessary for the salary of the Director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory and any assistants prior to such completion, shall be funded, with the income to be used, but only after consultation with such Director, for payment of salaries either in full or supplemental to salaries from other sources to such Director and to his clinical and laboratory assistants and for laboratory equipment and supplies but not to be applied to ordinary administration personnel or repairs; and

"5. This Board shall use its best efforts at all times to provide suitable and adequate facilities for the conduct of the research program of the Sears Surgical Laboratory including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, laboratory space, research beds, operating rooms and animal quarters."

IMPORTANT MILESTONE.

Said Richard J. Condon, president of the Board of Trustees, in commenting on the action by the Board:

"This is a happy occasion for the members of the Board. We have long waited for this day. Dr. George Packer Berry, dean of Harvard Medical School, has been informed of the action of the Board. It is expected that the nomination of the director of the Sears Surgical Laboratory will be made by the authorities at Harvard very soon.

"Planning for the necessary remodeling of the Surgical Operating Building will be started immediately. It is hoped to get the necessary work under way within a very short time.

"This is an important milestone in the growth and development of Boston City Hospital. This new laboratory holds great promise for the future of medical science. The City of Boston and patients at Boston City Hospital will be the direct beneficiaries."

The trustees of the Boston City Hospital are Richard J. Condon, president, Thomas J. Giblin, secretary, Stuart C. Rand, Henry E. Foley, Henry C. Berlin.

X-RAY OF SCHOOL PERSONNEL.

The General Court of Massachusetts passed a law effective July 1, 1951, requiring all school personnel coming in contact with pupils to submit X-ray proof of freedom of tuberculosis in a communicable form—such proof to be filed every three years.

In accordance with the provisions of the law, the Health Department provided free X-ray service for school personnel desiring it. 70 mm. equipment was used where possible and was located in strategic areas to accommodate the large numbers of teachers, nurses, custodians, clerical workers, and others covered by the provisions of the law. The X-ray bus was stationed for an entire month on Boston Common, and 70 mm. equipment was also placed in Boston Teachers College. Four health units having 70 mm. X-ray machines were open daily for a six-week period to provide service for outlying sections of the city. All retakes were made at the South End Health Unit. More than 24,500 X-rays were taken during the program. Provision was also made for new employees of educational institutions to be X-rayed at the usual X-ray locations provided by the Health Department.

WOOING FRINGE LOT PARKING PATRONS NOT EASY.

Enticing motoring commuters into fringe parking lots can be a difficult courtship. Recent experience in Washington, Baltimore, Cleveland, and St. Louis indicates that success cannot be achieved unless there is provided an attractive parking-transit fee, frequent bus service between the lot and central business district, and easy approaches to the lot. St. Louis offers a 5 to 7½ minute bus service, no parking fee, and a special 35-cent round-trip fare. Patronage of the 600-car lot is increasing, but a profitable operation has not yet been achieved. However, a survey of 500 of the lot's patrons showed 72 per cent rate the service as "excellent." Three out of four said they arrived closer to their downtown destinations than when they drove in. Private lots in downtown Cleveland are now getting short-term parkers—which produces more revenue for the operator than all-day parkers. In Baltimore the consensus is that fringe parking now "does not work".

Another necessity for cities planning fringe parking lots is the provision of convenient shelters to protect patrons from inclement weather. — American Municipal Association Report.

IMPORTANCE OF FOOD-BORNE DISEASE.

The relationship of food to disease continues to be an important public health program. The United States Public Health Service reported 327 outbreaks of food-borne disease in the United States in 1948, which resulted in 9,962 cases and 17 deaths. As only one out of ten cases of food-borne disease is ever reported, the resulting situation is far more important than available statistics would indicate.

The United States Public Health Service reports that there occurred in the United States in 1948, 30 cases and 6 deaths resulting from botulism; 74 cases and 1 death resulting from chemical food poisoning; 120 cases of dysentery; 8,832 cases and 7 deaths resulting from food infection and gastroenteritis; 270 cases of scarlet fever.

BOSTON, December 11, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Parks and Recreation Department has submitted two requisitions to this office for the following equipment:

One new Oliver 5-ton, Model B, crawler tractor as per specifications; one new Oliver 7-ton, Model D, crawler tractor as per specifications.

H. F. Davis Tractor Company, the sole distributor for this equipment in Massachusetts, has submitted an informal written quotation. Owing to the fact that this company is the sole distributor, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to H. F. Davis Tractor Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract for the two pieces of equipment will be $20,140, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BOSTON, December 14, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Assessing Department has submitted a requisition for 700 canvas binders as per specifications. The McBee Company, the manufacturer of the particular binder complying with specifications, has submitted an informal written quotation.

Inasmuch as this company is the manufacturer, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the McBee Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,877, less 1 per cent discount for payment within ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Contract for Boston Desk Company, $2,125.80, less 2 per cent discount, ten days—Item 1.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, December 10, 1954.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On October 22, 1954, your Honor approved an unadvertised contract in the amount of $48,000, between the City of Boston, Department of School Buildings, and P. J. Cantwell & Son, 644 East Fourth street, South Boston, Mass., providing for extensive repairs at the George Bancroft School, necessitated by reason of a recent fire.

The biggest portion of the work covered by the contract has now been completed, and we are in a position to more accurately determine all the phases of work that need to be done in order to place the building in a satisfactory and usable condition.

As a result, we now find that it will be necessary to do a certain amount of painting work in some sections of the building damaged by fire. The cost of this painting work will not exceed $2,400. Furthermore, we are reasonably certain that the entire project including the painting work will be completed at a cost not to exceed $48,000, the original contract sum.

Therefore, your authorization is requested to dispense with public advertising and to incorporate in the specifications a detailed description of the painting work that needs to be done on those areas of building affected by the fire.

In view of the foregoing it would not appear that public advertising in the present instance would be of any avail to the City of Boston.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.
Long Island Division.

BOSTON, January 2, 1955.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with a public solicitation of proposals in the City Record and to award a contract to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, a Massachusetts Corporation with offices at 165 Devonshire street, Boston, Mass., providing for the furnishing of daily bus service from the rapid transit station at Fields Corner to Long Island Hospital, Boston 69, Mass., commencing with January 1, 1955, and ending with the last day of the month in which the annual municipal budget of the City of Boston for 1955 becomes effective, but in no event later than March 31, 1955, at a cost not in excess of $12,000. The number of trips is governed by the need, which at present is seven round trips and two one-way trips daily. The proposed contract will contain a provision extending to the city an option to renew the contract upon the same terms and conditions and at the same rates, to cover the remainder of 1955, terminating on December 31, 1955, if funds are available therefor.

The aforenamed firm has carried on this bus service since its inauguration in the summer of 1951, and has conducted its operations in an efficient and satisfactory manner.

On all the facts, and as this company has the franchise over the route and since it is willing to continue the service under the existing terms and conditions, including the present rates, it is my opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for performance of the subject bus service.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON, President,
Board of Trustees of the Hospital Department.

Sanatorium Division.

BOSTON, December 17, 1954.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
YOUR HONOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to award a contract without publicly advertising to the Dorchester Plate & Window Glass Company, in an amount not to exceed $2,942, for replacing windows and skylights which were broken during the recent hurricanes.

The bids received were as follows:

Dorchester Plate & Window Glass Company, $2,942; Karas & Karas Glass Company, Inc., $3,211; McIntire-Williamson Company, Inc., $3,373.

This work is to be charged to the appropriation "Hurricane Emergency, 6-52-51."

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON, President,
Board of Trustees,
Hospital Department, and of the Boston City Hospital.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 9, 1954.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR SIR:

Chapter 69, Acts of 1941, provides "that all persons committed for any crime, unless the court otherwise orders, have or cause to be taken his name, age, height, weight, photograph, and general description and copies of his fingerprints in accordance with the fingerprint system of identification of criminals. All such photographs and identifying matter shall be committed forthwith to the Commissioner of Public Safety." The above law took effect on June 8, 1941, and, since that date, it is compulsory that all inmates be photographed upon commitment.

In accordance with the above law, I therefore respectfully request permission to award a contract, without public advertising, to pay Fay Foto Service, Inc., for the performance of taking photographs of all persons committed to the House of Correction, Deer Island, in the sum of $1.75 for each set of the pictures of each person photographed. The contract shall be for a period beginning with the first day of January, 1955, and ending on the thirty-first day of December, 1955. Estimated cost will exceed $1,000.

This type of work is necessarily of a very confidential nature. The Fay Foto Service, Inc., has done this work for a number of years in a highly satisfactory manner. Because this company has guarded carefully these confidences and because the confidential matter is best intrusted to one company, I feel that the city's interests will be best served by engaging their services.

Yours very truly,

EDWARD L. FRIEL,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, December 17, 1954.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record and to engage the services of Joseph Page, doing business as Page Construction Company, Architects-Engineers, with offices at 20 Pemberton square, Boston, Mass., as architect, to furnish detailed estimates of the construction costs of, as well as to prepare plans and specifications for the replacing of, certain structures at Deer Island, viz., the stock barn, the combination poultry, refrigeration, and storehouse building, and the small cattle and storage building.

The aforenamed firm is to be paid a fee of $10,000 for its services, involving the production of cost estimates, plans, specifications, and including supervision of the construction of the aforementioned buildings.

One of the prime reasons for engaging an architect at this time, to provide the cost estimates, plans, and specifications as indicated above, is in order to establish an equitable basis for the determination of the amount of the reimbursement to be made by the Metropolitan District Commission to the city for the taking of these buildings by the commission, in connection with its establishment of the new sewerage system and filter beds authorized under the provisions of chapter 645 of the Acts of 1951.

In view of the professional nature of the services involved it is not felt that public advertising would be of advantage to the city.

Yours very truly,

EDWARD L. FRIEL,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 15, 1954.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to award the contract, without public advertising, to John McCourt Company, a Massachusetts corporation, having a usual place of business in the City of Boston, for placing curbing, surfacing with bituminous concrete, and seal coating the surfacing of the proposed off-street parking area under the Fitzgerald Expressway from Traverse street to North street, Boston.

Since time is of the essence, with winter closing in on us, and since we have been informed that the price of granite curbing and bituminous concrete is going to increase about 15 per cent within a week, it is essential that we award the contract now for the work, to be commenced at once.

As a result of negotiations with John McCourt Company, they have agreed to surface the area with two inches of bituminous concrete at $7 per ton. The area will require approximately 2,000 tons. This is the same price that John McCourt Company is charging the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for surfacing a tremendous area on the Fitzgerald Expressway, as the lowest bidder two years ago.

The John McCourt Company has also agreed to supply, in place, 3,600 linear feet of VA4 granite curbing at $3.25 per linear foot, which figure is reasonable, in accordance with current prices. They also agreed to supply ten 2½-inch radius corners, at $20 each, in place, which is also in keeping with moderate current rates.

The John McCourt Company also agreed to seal coat the entire surface of about 14,000 square yards, at 45 cents per square yard, which is 5 cents per square yard cheaper than the last bid price presented to this department recently, after publicly advertising similar work for the construction of our Dudley Street off-street parking area.

The total contract with John McCourt Company will amount to $32,200.

The John McCourt Company has also agreed that they will proceed with the work with alacrity and that, in the event that it is impossible for them to obtain the full amount of the cut curbing, they will surface the entire area, weather permitting, and next spring, after they have obtained the cut curbing, they will put it in place and resurface to the city's satisfaction, at no additional charge to the city.

In my opinion, no advantage would be gained by the City of Boston in publicly advertising the work, inasmuch as speed is of the essence, and the price is reasonable.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property.

CHAPTER 357.

The following chapter of the Acts and Resolves of 1954 is published for the information of the department.

An Act authorizing and directing all cities and towns to make a listing of dogs owned by inhabitants simultaneously with the listing of persons twenty years of age or older subject to a poll tax.

Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 150, as amended by section 12 of chapter 320 of the Acts of 1934, and inserting in place thereof the following section:

SECTION 150. Persons authorized or directed by section four of chapter fifty-one or by any special law to make lists of persons twenty years of age or older liable to a poll tax shall make a list of all dogs owned by the inhabitants at the time of making lists required under such section and return the same in duplicate to the city or town clerk, or, in Boston, to the Police Commissioner on or before April 1. An owner or keeper of a dog who refuses to answer or answers falsely to persons directed or authorized to make a list of the owners of dogs shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars, which, except in Suffolk County, shall be paid into the county treasury.

The police listing of all dogs, together with the name of owner or keeper, will be made in conjunction with Police Listing which begins January 3, 1955.

Space for the listing of all dogs and sex of same is provided at the bottom of each green and white listing card.

When a person is listed who is also the owner or keeper of a dog, the listing officer will record the dog data at the bottom of the listing card made out for such person.

Where a member of a family who is under twenty years of age owns or keeps a dog, the listing officer will write such owner's name in the blank space at the bottom of the listing card that is made out for the head of the family with which the owner or keeper of dog resides.

Where a member of a family, not of the same name, who is under twenty years of age owns or keeps a dog, the listing officer will write such owner's name at the bottom of the listing card made out for the head of the family with which the owner or keeper of dog resides.

The resignation of Patrolman Thomas H. Dowling of Division 4 having been presented, it is hereby accepted to take effect on Monday, January 3, 1955.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS L. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 1,979.

Due to the number of persons still absent from their homes as members of some branch of the United States military service, it is doubly important that all officers detailed to listing work exercise the greatest care to the end that absolute accuracy be obtained in the listing of all residents twenty years of age and over, and particularly the above-mentioned persons, male and female, in the armed services who must be listed from their last legal Boston residence.

The particular branch in which men and women are enrolled in the United States military service shall be indicated in the space on the card that is set aside for "Occupation" as Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, etc.

It is imperative that all listing officers visit each and every building to secure the names and required information of the occupants. Under no circumstances shall the printed list of the previous year be referred to as a basis of residence, nor shall it be assumed that a resident according to the 1954 printed list is now an occupant of the same dwelling.

The attention of the department is called to Superintendent's order of December 27, 1951, in reference to police listing which begins on Monday, January 3, 1955.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

DIAGNOSTIC LABORATORY.

The work of the Boston Diagnostic Laboratory reflects the medical and lay interest in the causes and prevention of tuberculosis, Boston's highest bacterial cause of death and the fourth highest of all causes. With constant and continual immunization for diphtheria, typhoid fever, and whooping cough, and increased use of antibiotics in the treatment of venereal diseases, the annual total examinations for these latter diseases have not increased, while routine sputa examinations for tuberculosis have demanded a major part of the diagnostic services.

STATUS OF PLANS FOR INCINERATORS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, Decemher 20, 1954.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of November 29, 1954, concerning answers to certain questions regarding incinerators in Boston.

Respectfully,
J. B. Hynes, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
December 17, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of November 29, 1954:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor he requested, under the provisions of section 17F of chapter 376 of the Acts of 1951, and any amendments pursuant thereto, and under any authority vested in the City Council, to furnish the City Council, at the meeting of the Council next ensuing after one week from receipt of this order, answers in writing to the questions set forth in the following:

I. The status of plans for incinerators in Boston.

2. The proximate earliest date incinerators will be in operation in Boston and the areas they will serve.

3. The monies allocated to date by the Council for plans on incinerators and the dates of passage by the Council.

4. The monies spent in connection with plans or the preparation of the same and a detailed schedule of payments showing dates, amount, and account to whom monies were paid.

5. A detailed statement of monies appropriated by loan or otherwise by the Council for the erection of incinerators, stating date of action by the Council."

I submit herewith answers to the above five questions, in the same sequence as contained in the City Council order:

1. The consulting engineering firm of Metcalf & Eddy of Boston has been under contract since November 29, 1951, for engineering services in connection with the Central District Incinerator proposed to be constructed in the vicinity of the South Bay. Preliminary studies were completed in June of 1952, determining the required capacity of the plant and the area to be served. Further plan work was delayed hy difficulties with the Massachusetts Market Authority and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad over selection of a plant site that would not interfere with development of the Wholesale Market Terminal. Delay was also occasioned hy the necessity of awaiting a decision hy the State Department of Public Works as to the location of the Central Artery and its connection to the Southeast Expressway in this vicinity. When a site was finally determined last summer, northerly of South Bay avenue, that would not conflict with any proposed developments, it was discovered that a large tract of Commonwealth-owned land required for the incinerator could not be transferred without an enabling act of the Legislature. It was too late to file a hill then, and we must now await action at the next session. In the meantime, the basic ideas of the proposed plant have been developed and approved, and the Law Department is arranging to lease the land until legislation is enacted. It was decided to take bids on several types of mechanically-stoked furnaces and, after evaluation of the hids, award a contract for the equipment that appears most advantageous, and then design the incinerator building. The plans and specifications for the furnaces and appurtenant equipment are now in the final stages of completion. It is our intention to advertise for bids on the furnaces in January of 1955.

A study was completed in March, 1952, by Thomas Worcester, Inc., for the M.D.C., in which recommendations were made that the M.D.C. construct and operate several incinerators, most of which would serve sections of Boston, namely, East Boston and Charlestown, Brighton, West Roxhury, Hyde Park, and most of Dorchester. To date, no detailed plans or specifications have heen prepared for any of the proposed M.D.C. incinerators.

Legislation was passed—chapter 523, Acts 1954—providing for a Brighton-Watertown Incinerator Authority to construct and operate an incinerator in Watertown for use of both communities. The Boston City Council accepted the act, but the Watertown Town Meeting rejected this act on October 18, 1954.

Plans and specifications were prepared for an incinerator in Brighton hy the C. A. Maguire Associates, Engineers, in 1945. The site selected—upon which the plans were based—required a variance in zoning which was refused hy the Board of Appeal. There is little prospect that these plans could be adapted to another site.

Plans were prepared for an incinerator at Southampton and Atkinson streets hy Coffin and Richardson, Inc., in 1946. Considerahle controversy developed over the adequacy of the plans at that time. The site selected is no longer available, and the capacity provided for is too small for the present requirements.

2. It is expected that the Central District Incinerator will he placed in operation hy April 1, 1956. This incinerator will serve Boston Proper, including the North and West Ends, Back Bay and South End, also South Boston, Roxbury, part of Northern Dorchester, and possibly Charlestown and Brighton.

If the City Council approves the site for an incinerator on the M.D.C. Neponset River Reservation in the Cedar Grove section, it is estimated that the plant could he built and placed in operation by the M.D.C. by April 1, 1956.

3. Monies allocated by Council for incinerator plans.

DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS OF THE DOWNTOWN AREAS OF OTHER CITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 20, 1954.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the City Planning Board relative to your resolve of April 5, 1951, concerning development programs being undertaken in the downtown areas of other cities.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City Planning Board,
December 17, 1954

Hon John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The accompanying memorandum is submitted in partial reply to the inquiry embodied in the following Council order of April 5, 1954:

"Whereas, Serious problems are facing the downtown area in this age of decentralization, and

Whereas, It is well known that the downtown business area is vital to the entire municipal government's economy, and

Whereas, In comparable cities recognition of this problem and concerted action on the part of citizens' groups have initiated constructive programs of city improvements, and

Whereas, In other cities a program of downtown development has brought about an increase in taxable property, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor order a survey to be made of the programs now being undertaken in other cities in respect to their downtown areas and send a detailed report of said findings to the Boston City Council."

For present purposes, emphasis is given to projects involving physical improvements of one sort or another for the central areas of cities more or less in Boston's population class. Attention is also restricted to projects which are either underway or in prospect, or which have been undertaken within the postwar period.

The material assembled was obtained through letters of inquiry to other cities, supplemented by information from trade construction magazines. In many instances there was a delay of several months or more in obtaining replies to the letters of inquiry.

The gist of the report appears to be that activities, project-wise, in downtown Boston compare favorably with those in process, proposed, or recently completed in other cities.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS I. MCDONOUGH,
Chairman.

I Postwar Construction in Selected Central Business Districts—a Preliminary Inventory.

In the following list, the projects are grouped by city. The list to each case may not be complete. It is nevertheless felt that most of the more significant improvements are mentioned and, thus, that this begins to suggest the scope and substance of new physical improvements in the central business districts of these cities.

The basic data supplied for each project includes a brief identification of facilities provided, an indication of current status and, where possible, a reference to type of financial backing. Occasional references to more extensive published descriptions are also made.

Following the summary generalizing upon the list covering other cities, reference is made to comparable projects underway, recently completed, or in prospect for the business district in downtown Boston.

BALTIMORE.

Downtown Office Buildings.

A $10,000,000 state office-buildings group is in prospect for a 16-acre tract on the fringe of the downtown business district designated for publicly-subsidized slum clearance and redevelopment.

Circulation Facilities.

a. At least 18 public garages have been constructed in the downtown area since the creation of the Off-Street Parking Commission in 1947. Most of them small (250 to 300 cars), they have a total capacity for more than 3,700 cars. Construction of an additional 5 is pending.

b. Beginning in 1955, a 1.7-mile, twin-tube tunnel is to be constructed under Baltimore Harbor just three miles southeast of the downtown area. With its 14 miles of approaches, this facility will serve to divert through traffic from the business district and much of the remainder of Baltimore. Planned for completion by 1958, the project will cost an estimated $155,000,000.

CHICAGO.

Downtown Office Buildings (Among Others).

a. Prudential Building.—A $40,000,000, 41 story slab under construction along Michigan avenue in the northeast corner of the Loop. The first office building to be built in the Loop in 20 years, it will provide one million square feet of office space, a 400-car garage, and a 1,000-seat auditorium, and will be ready for occupancy toward the end of 1955.

b. Near West Side Project (Simon Group.—A prospective development for three blocks immediately across the Chicago River to the west of the Loop. Will include an exhibition building for manufacturers of heavy machinery, an office building and, more conditionally, a building to house the studios and midwest headquarters of a television network; all to be constructed over existing railroad trackage. Air rights were leased by the developer from the railroads concerned in October, 1953. Expected development costs are between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000.

c. Fort Dearborn Project.—A proposal for the total redevelopment of a 150-acre site in the near north side, just across the Chicago River to the north of the Loop. The area's present use is for mixed manufacturing, commercial, and residential in generally deteriorated structures. Proposed uses: (i) A 60-acre government center, including a City Hall, a county building, a federal building, a consolidated courts building, and the main public library; (ii) a score or more of high-rise apartment buildings providing approximately 5,000 units; (iii) an intown campus for the University of Illinois, covering more than 30 acres; and (iv) underground parking facilities for 6,000 cars, covered by a 6-acre public esplanade. Privately proposed (March, 1954) and sponsored, it is expected to qualify as a redevelopment project under current federal, state, and city programs. Present estimate of ultimate development costs are $400,000,000.

(ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, May, 1954.)

Circulation Facilities.

a. Two intown elements of the expressway system under construction:

i. The intown extension of the west route, or Congress Street Expressway which, when completed in 1956, will pass just to the south of the Loop, to connect with Lake Shore Drive to the east; and

ii. Wacker Drive extended, a two-level affair to be completed in 1955 which will pass just to the west of the Loop and connect with the west route at Congress street.

b. Grant Park Garage.—A three-level underground facility just completed (September, 1954) at a cost of $8,000,000 and having a capacity for nearly 2,400 cars.

c. Nine additional public garages under construction within the Loop and the near north side, and scheduled for completion by mid-1955, which will provide off-street parking space for approximately 6,650 cars, at a total cost of $20,000,000. (ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, March, 1954.)

d. Greyhound Bus Terminal.—A five-level structure which, as completed to date, includes groundfloor shops and a 500-car garage occupying the second- and third-story levels, as well as waiting rooms and bus concourse in the two subsurface levels. Plans call for the eventual addition of a 10-story office building above the center of the present structure, and the creation of a park-type surface on the roof of the upper garage level. (ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, April, 1954.)

e. A consolidated railroad passenger terminal proposed (in 1953) by the City Plan Commission as a major improvement for the area just south of the Congress street right-of-way. Three existing stations would be replaced by a single terminal. Also included in the scheme: (i) Coordinated mail and express facilities; (ii) Such a reduction in trackage that nearly 60 acres would be released for new development; and (iii) A southern extension of an element in the expressway system.

CLEVELAND.

A Downtown Redevelopment Project.

An as yet unnamed development of major proportions has been proposed (in mid-1953) for a 60-acre site in the northern section of the downtown area, and adjacent to City Hall. Stimulated by the intended sale by the Pennsylvania Railroad of an 11-acre tract included within the proposed project site, this $200,000,000 development, according to one source, would include two department stores, an industrial mart building, a hotel, several office buildings (for both public and private occupancy), and five 22-story apartment buildings.

Circulation Facilities.

a. Nearing completion is a 13-mile rapid transit line which will serve the downtown area from east and west. At surface and following existing railroad right-of-way, except for the approaches to the central terminal under Union Station, this 12-station facility will form the spine of Cleveland's public transit system when completed in early 1955. Construction and right-of-way costs will approximate $30,000,000. Further extensions are already being planned, including an underground loop to serve the downtown area proper.

b. No public garages are under construction in the downtown area. Current emphasis, rather, is on the provision of: (i) "Fringe" parking lots near the inner-belt of the freeway system; and (ii) Outlying facilities near the new rapid transit stations.

DENVER.

Downtown Office Buildings.

a. "Mile High Center".—A $15,000,000 commercial development under construction in the heart of the business district to be dominated by a 23-story office building, and to include also a 4-story bank building, an airline passenger terminal building, and a parking garage. (ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, April, 1954.)

b. Denver Club Building.—Another 23-story office building under way.

Circulation Facilities.

Under construction are two 10-story public garages which will have a total capacity for nearly 1,000 cars.

DETROIT.

Civic Center Development.

Nearing completion are the 15-story city office building and the 20-story county courts building, to cost an estimated $23,000,000. Also under construction is the 2,900-seat Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium. Other units to be added to complete this $85,000,000 development are a convention hall and exhibits building, and perhaps state and federal office buildings. A Veterans' Memorial Building was completed in 1950 as the first unit for this Center.

KANSAS CITY.

Two Downtown Redevelopment Projects.

a. The "Quality Hill" development.—A 20-acre private project well underway one-half mile to the west of the business district, to include both office buildings and apartment houses. Five 100-unit apartment buildings have already been completed, and one office building. Ultimate development (receiving state-local subsidy in the form of tax abatements) will include more of each. Anticipated total improvement value is $25,000,000.

b. The "South Humboldt" redevelopment project.—A Title I proposal (in the planning stage) for a 20-acre area immediately to the south of the business district. Light industry is being recommended as a re-use.

Circulation Facilities.

a. Intercity Freeway.—A one-mile stretch of expressway to form the north side of the arterial "loop" around the business district. Land acquisition is complete, and construction, estimated to cost $12,000,000, is scheduled for completion by mid-1956.

b. A bridge across the Missouri River, an I connecting the business district with the airports (Municipal and International). Construction, to cost an estimated $13,000,000, is to be initiated this year (1954).

c. Auditorium Plaza Garage.—A three-level, underground structure with plaza at surface (providing a block of public open space adjacent to Municipal Auditorium), and an intended capacity for 1,200 cars. Municipally financed and under construction.

d. "Northside Terminal" parking project.—Part of the first Title I redevelopment project scheduled for Kansas City. Property has been acquired and is being prepared for resale to a private developer. Combination garage and lot facilities will have a capacity for approximately 1,800 cars.

MILWAUKEE.

A garage on a downtown site already acquired. A 6-level, 500-car garage is soon to be constructed, at an estimated cost of $1,000,000.

PHILADELPHIA.

Downtown Office Buildings, a Hotel, and a Transportation Center.

a. "Penn Center."—A "Rockefeller Center" type office building group in the process of development on the 8-acre tract freed for new growth by the removal (in 1952) of the Pennsylvania Railroad Broad Street Station and its train yard. One 20-story office building is currently under construction and another three or four are planned. Current plans also call for the construction of a transportation center, including a consolidated bus terminal, airline offices, and a parking garage as part of this $100,000,000 development.

b. Prospective changes for the area immediately adjacent to the Penn Center site include: (i) Construction of a 1,000-room hotel in a block now vacant; (ii) the construction of a new municipal office building in Reyburn Plaza; and (iii) the construction of an apartment house west of the site.

(ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, May, 1954.)

Circulation Facilities.

a. A 1½-mile addition to the subway system serving the central area from the west via Market street, completed in 1953 at a cost of more than $18,000,000.

b. Three near-in elements of the expressway system under construction or scheduled for early development:

i. The first five-mile section of the Schuylkill Expressway which will parallel the river and improve access to the central city from the northeast, the northwest, and southwest parts of the region.

ii. Vine street extended and its connection with the expressway.

iii. The Pennsylvania Boulevard connection between the new Penn Center development area and the expressway at the Pennsylvania Railroad 30th Street Station.

c. Three completed downtown public garages having a total capacity for more than 1,500 cars.

Near-In Title I Projects (in the Planning Stage).

a. "North Triangle" Project.—Proposing, chiefly, a residential development for a 12-acre site just to the northwest of the central area.

b. "Lombard" Project.—Proposing both residential and commercial reuse for an area immediately to the southwest of the central business district.

Other (Public).

Independence Mall and Independence National Historical Park.—A 20-acre park area with historic associations being created in the eastern section of the central area. Completion of Independence Mall in the block just to the north of existing Independence Square is scheduled for 1955 as the first stage in this federal-state-city development. Eventual inclusion of an additional two blocks to the north of the Mall will complete the project.

PITTSBURGH.

Downtown Office Buildings and Apartments.

a. "Gateway Center."—An office building group in the process of development on a 23-acre site adjacent to Point Park. Three buildings have already been completed, at a cost of $35,000,000, by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, as developer. Current plan is that an additional four or five office buildings will be constructed by other developers to complete the group. Land acquisition, clearance, and resale has so far been carried out under provisions of the state redevelopment law.

b. The Mellon Square Group (Completed to Date).

i. The U. S. Steel-Mellon Bank Building, a 41-story office building costing $30,000,000.

ii. The Alcoa Building, a 30-story building costing $12,000,000.

iii. Two downtown apartment buildings rising to 16 and 19 stories and costing $12,000,000.

Circulation Facilities.

a. Four completed parking garages having a total capacity for approximately 2,700 cars, built at a cost of $9,000,000, including:

i. Mellon Square Garage, a 6-level structure, largely underground, having a capacity for 900 cars, and covered by park-type landscaping at approximately second-story level.

ii. A 300-car underground garage in the Gateway Center area, with additional facilities being planned for this section.

iii. Two multi-story, open-cage garages having a total capacity for 1,500 cars.

b. Point Park overpass and interchange, an approved intown section of the proposed Penn-Lincoln Parkway. This addition to the city-county expressway system will pass over the Golden Triangle, between Point Park and the Gateway Center development, and connect north side and south side via new bridges over the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers.

Other (Public).

Point Park.—A 32-acre state park with historic associations being created at the apex of the Golden Triangle.

ST. LOUIS.

Downtown Residential.

A $20,000,000 Title I project will provide apartments for 1,400 middle-income families on a 14-acre tract immediately adjacent to downtown Memorial Plaza, and across Market street from Union Station.

A Garage.

Under construction is a seven-block, $10,000,000 public garage which will have a capacity for 3,800 cars.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Downtown Office Buildings.

a. Nearing completion is the 25-story, $13,000,000 Equitable Life Assurance Society Building, the first office building to be constructed in downtown San Francisco since the enactment in 1948 of the city's new earthquake-resistance building code.

b. Proposed is a plan for the expansion of the Civic Center. New buildings would be provided for municipal, state, and federal offices, for police and fire department headquarters, and for an "art and drama center."

Circulation Facilities.

a. Broadway Tunnel.—A 0.3-mile, twin-bore facility under Russian Hill (immediately to the north of the business district), completed in 1952 at a cost of $6,000,000. This tunnel now serves to expedite traffic movement between the business district and the northwest section of the city, and, with the completion of connecting near-in freeway facilities, will serve to relieve the business district of much of the traffic between the Golden Gate and San Francisco and Oakland Bay bridges.

b. Two downtown private garages, one of them completed, having a 1,000-car capacity, and for the most part underground; the other, a nine-level facility still under construction which will have a capacity for 1,300 cars.

c. Two public garages for the downtown area, one of them a seven-level, 900-car facility to be completed within the year (1954); the other, still a proposal (for either 1,000 or 2,000 cars) for an area beneath Civic Center Plaza.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Two Downtown Redevelopment Projects.

a. "Potomac Parkway Plaza".—A $70,000,000 to $80,000,000 project in the process of development on a 12-acre tract along the Potomac, just north of the Lincoln Memorial. To be privately financed, this project, as currently planned, will include six office buildings, a 1,000-room hotel, a shopping center, and two apartment buildings grouped around a central plaza with skating rink and underground 2,000-car garage.

b. The Southwest Area Project. A Title I scheme in the planning stage for a 350-acre area immediately to the south of the Mall, and fronting on the Tidal Basin. Current proposal has distinct plans for each of three sections of this area:

Present estimate of the ultimate development cost, $500,000,000.

i. An office buildings group to be developed around a new, monumental "South Mall," and a smaller "L'Enfant Plaza." Also proposed for this section of the development are an opera house, a symphony hall, a 15,000-seat convention hall, and a hotel.

ii. "Georgetown-type" row-houses and garden apartments for 20,000 people, plus shops, schools, playgrounds, and the other facilities needed by the new residential area to be created.

iii. A reconstruction of the water-front facilities along the western Tidal Basin flank of the project area, including the provision of a produce market, a water-front shopping center, and new docking facilities for small crafts.

(ARCHITECTURAL RECORD, May, 1954.)

By Way of Summary (and Including Passing Reference to Some Significant Projects in Other Cities)

a. In all of these cities, active programs are underway designed to expedite travel to and from the downtown business district. Most frequently, these programs include the construction of one or more public garages in the downtown area, with the most ambitious efforts apparently being undertaken in Chicago and Baltimore. Also under construction in most cases are systems of arteries or freeways which, when completed, will serve to provide more efficient access to the central area, while freeing downtown streets from most through traffic. Significant additions to the rapid transit systems are in process in Cleveland, Chicago, and Philadelphia, and under study for San Francisco and Los Angeles. Central bus and railroad terminals are proposed for, or recently completed in, Chicago, Philadelphia, Denver, and New Orleans. And a heliport construction program has gotten under way in Baltimore.

b. At the same time, many of these downtown areas are experiencing their most significant period of primary construction since the twenties, and the ground is yet to be broken for some of the more ambitious schemes. There are few downtown areas which do not have at least one office building under construction or recently completed, and an impressive number of "Rockefeller-Center" type developments are proposed if not yet all under way.* New hotels are recent additions to downtown Los Angeles and Dallas, and planned for Philadelphia, among others. New or expanded civic centers of various scope are in process or proposed for Detroit, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Cleveland. New apartment house developments are rising in downtown Pittsburgh, Kansas City, and St. Louis, and are proposed for downtown Chicago, Washington, and Cleveland. Mention should also be made of the downtown park space being created in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, and proposed for Detroit and St. Louis.

c. By their very nature, many of these improvements are being financed with public funds. This is, of course, especially true for the circulation facilities mentioned, although some of the garages are being privately financed. And this is true, in part, for the Title I projects as well, and for the other developments receiving some form of public subsidy. As a rule, however, the primary construction is being financed privately without public assistance.

In view of the foregoing, it may be fairly said that corresponding activity in downtown Boston compares favorably with that in process, proposed, or recently completed in other cities. Toward the more efficient handling of traffic to and from the downtown area are: (a) three large public garages have recently been completed and a fourth is soon to be constructed; (b) Storrow Memorial Drive along the Charles River Embankment has been completed, and the downtown section of the Central Artery is under construction, as two elements of the metropolitan area's freeway system; and (c) an addition to the rapid transit system was opened to business in 1953. Recent primary construction has included new buildings for the John Hancock Life Insurance Company, the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, and Jordan Marsh has completed the first stage of its rebuilding program. Title I projects are taking shape as proposals for two areas contiguous to the downtown business district, with high-density residential as the plan for one, and low-density light industry for the other. And in its "Back Bay Center" scheme, Boston even has a "Rockefeller-Center" type proposal for a railroad yard soon to be given up for reuse.

II. Conclusions and Reservations.

A. GENERAL CONCLUSIONS.

1. The magnitude and variety of projects cited in the foregoing section would suggest strongly that downtown business districts are not being allowed to die on the vine. Indeed, there seems to be general acceptance that the downtown business district is here to stay. At the same time, it is to be observed that an impressive number of private developers and public agencies are accepting the fact that bold treatment must be the order of the day if these business districts are not only to survive but to prosper.

2. In few cases, however, can it be said that projects in process or proposed have been designed to offset demonstrable tendencies toward "decentralization."

a. To the extent that efforts have been made to measure any "decentralization" in process, the tentative conclusion seems to be that this shift is not appreciable, if at all apparent. Correspondents in Chicago, Cleveland, Kansas City, and St. Louis, among others, point, in fact, to gains in the central area in recent years, rather than to losses. And the typical attitude toward new commercial development in suburban areas sees this as being "largely for the purpose of meeting the demand of the new population established in suburban areas too remote to be conveniently served by the central business district alone," as one correspondent has put it. Suburban growth is more frequently seen as a net gain to the entire metropolitan area than as a gain at the expense of the downtown business district.

3. It would be more to the point, therefore, to observe that this bold treatment is necessary simply to create downtown business districts which will in time be more inviting and efficient places to work, shop, and do business, and which in some cases will be more attractive places to live in as well. And the programs cited may be credited with promising to contribute toward these ends.

a. In one or two cases (the "Quality Hill" development in Kansas City, for example), a conscious effort at "recentralization" is at work. More typically, however, the concern is with: (a) the development possibilities of an expendable railroad yard, (b) the reuse suitable for a near-in slum; (c) improved circulation facilities for going operations.

4. At the same time, many of these improvements carry with them the promise of significant increases in the tax base, both directly and indirectly.

* For an informative, though brief look into the postwar building boom in New York City, see "The New Yorker," July 24, 1954, p. 14.

a. To take "Gateway Center" (Pittsburgh) as an illustration. With only two of its buildings completed, and a third under construction, the 1953 valuation of this area has already exceeded $17,000,000, versus a 1950 total of less than $7,000,000 before redevelopment. And a total of eight buildings are planned for this area.

b. To mention an instance of anticipated indirect gains to the tax base: Independence Mall and Independence National Historical Park (Philadelphia) will, of course, be themselves tax exempt when completed. It has nevertheless been observed that "they have already resulted in major new-built office buildings in this area, and that "it looks as though they will serve the purpose of restimulating activity in this older section and of anchoring the business section at river front, assuring continuity of activity from river to river."

B. RESERVATIONS.

Before much weight can be attached to the foregoing conclusions, however, it must be recognized that they are subject to at least the folowing qualifications:

1. This inventory of developments within or significantly affecting the downtown business districts of the enumerated cities is not exhaustive.

a. Although the foregoing check list of physical improvements begins to suggest the magnitude and variety of such developments (recent, in process, or in prospect), no claim is made that all such projects have been accounted for. Emphasis, and variety of such developments (recent, in process, or in prospect), no claim is made that all such projects have been accounted for. Emphasis, rather, had to be restricted, as a rule, to those for which published descriptions are readily at hand.

b. Little treatment has been given to "developments" which, though just as concerned with the improvement of downtown areas, are at the same time not so directly associated with some form of physical improvement:

i. Regulatory innovations, such as those recently introduced in Washington and Philadelphia, for example, toward the improvement of traffic conditions.

ii. Creation of special government agencies, further than the passing reference to the creation of the Baltimore Off-Street Parking Commission.

iii. Organization of special citizen groups, having downtown problems as a special concern, as these have been organized in Detroit, Philadelphia, and St. Louis, as well as in Boston, to mention four.

iv. Other evidence of organized concern for downtown area problems, such as: (a) the recent sponsorship of the Chicago Contest by Carson, Pirie, and Scott; (b) the studies into the feasibility of rapid transit systems for San Francisco and Los Angeles, and (c) the recent study of consumer shopping habits in the Boston Metropolitan Area, sponsored by the Herald-Traveler Corporation.

2. Many of the enumerated projects are still proposals, and the remainder are either still in process or just recently completed. It may, therefore, be too soon to evaluate their respective contributions to the business districts concerned. As instances of contemporary design, all may be expected to enhance the appearance of the areas they will occupy, but it may be some time before it will be possible to determine how far they go toward the solution of the accumulated problems facing their respective business centers. To be more specific:

How far do these new office buildings, retail accommodations, etc., go toward satisfying demonstrable needs for (net) additional space within their downtown areas? Or is this new construction to be evaluated, rather, as replacement of existing accommodations which have outlived their usefulness?

Are these new office buildings going in at such densities that the development potential is being "drained" from the remaining downtown area?

Though this new construction will in most cases have a higher valuation than property replaced, and hence represent gains to the tax base, how much of this may in fact be credited as net gain in the long run?

Are these new accommodations creating new traffic faster than existing traffic problems are being solved?

And this is only to suggest the type of questions which should be answered before these projects can be evaluated in terms of their measurable consequences.

For these reasons alone, it is to be seen that the foregoing conclusions are tentative at best, and that this report is, therefore, in the nature of a preliminary report. Accordingly, it will be appropriate to anticipate: (a) That the inventory of downtown improvements (and their measurable consequences) is to be continued as an adjunct to the Central Area Study being undertaken by the Planning Board; and (b) That further reports on this subject may be forthcoming from time to time as desired.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 20, 1954.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation requesting the appropriation of $16,441.74 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1954 budget estimates for the personal service requirements of the Park Department included an estimate of the total yearly income from the George F. Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the appropriation of this income as it accrued for the purpose of defraying the cost of work actually performed on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $16,441.74, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
December 15, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,

January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of..... $16,441 74

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1954, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from Item 100, Permanent Employees, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1954, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Parks and Recreation Commission.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

Ordered, That the sum of $16,441.74 be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of..... $16,441.74

Coun. HAILER and all the members of the City Council offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Boston, in meeting assembled, hereby expresses its deep regret at the untimely passing of Representative William A. Glynn of Roxbury, who served in the House of Representatives since 1949, who continually strove to assist the unfortunate, and who interested himself particularly in youth activities, with the establishment of baseball and football teams, and extends to his family its sincere sympathy and condolence in their sad bereavement.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

WORKING HOURS OF NIGHT PLATOONS OF BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Coun. FOLEY and HAILER offered the following:

Whereas, The night platoons of the Boston Police Department have recently had their hours of duty extended to cope with Boston's ever-increasing traffic problem; and

Whereas, Night police duty was commonly considered less desirable than day duty because of the shifting hours of work even before the lengthened hours of duty provided for in the Superintendent's order of November 26, 1954; and

Whereas, Before the said order of November 26, 1954, the night platoon on duty during the so-called "first half" (6 P.M. to 12.30 A.M.) before a holiday would receive compensation for working on the holiday; and

Whereas, Under the rearranged hours of duty the said night platoon assigned to the 4 P.M. to 12 P.M. duty period just before a holiday will no longer be granted holiday pay; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council feels it to be inequitable that the officers assigned to the so-called "first half" before a holiday be required to work longer hours for less pay than heretofore; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the sense of the City Council that the tour of duty as enunciated in the Superintendent's order of November 26, 1954, should and ought in justice be extended to 12.15 A.M. or 12.30 A.M., to afford the officers serving on night duty an opportunity of earning a yearly average compensation at least as high as it was before their duty hours were extended.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

SIDEWALKS ON GARFIELD STREET, HYDE PARK.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Commissioner of Public Works to take the steps necessary for installing sidewalks on both sides of Garfield street in the Hyde Park section of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

APPELLATE PROCEDURE ON GRIEVANCES ON RECLASSIFICATION OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, When the matter of reclassification of municipal employees was before the City Council, the Council was assured that adequate appeals were available to an employee aggrieved by the decision of his department head; and

Whereas, The Council in accepting the reclassification plan relied upon the word of the administration that such appellate procedures were available and would be honored; and

Whereas, Many employees appealed to the Civil Service Commission and obtained a decision they had been unfairly classified; and

Whereas, Such decisions were not honored by the administration but rather were delayed awaiting the outcome of the so-called "Gediman" case on appeal to the Supreme Judicial Court; and

Whereas, The position of the City of Boston in the so-called "Gediman" case was one of extremely doubtful legal validity giving rise to a strong suspicion that the case was appeal only as a dilatory tactic by the city; and

Whereas, The said "Gediman" case was decided as to be expected against the city; and

Whereas, Even then the decision of the Civil Service Commission has been avoided in a devious and dishonorable way by refusing to award additional compensation in accord with the Civil Service Commission's decision; be it therefore

Resolved, That the City Council regards such devious and underbanded avoidance of the appellate procedure as a breach of faith with it.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

RECESS.

APPRECIATION FOR USE OF BOSTON LATIN SCHOOL

The following two communications were presented:

14 October 1954

William F. Carr, Chairman
Boston School Committee
15 Beacon Street
Boston 8, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Carr:

I am pleased to send you the inclosed letter of appreciation from Brigadier General Lawrence F. Carew, Commandant of the Massachusetts Military Academy.

I desire to add my words of appreciation of the fine spirit of cooperation displayed by all personnel of the Boston Latin School during the period of its occupancy by the staff and cadets of the Massachusetts Military Academy. The friendly relationship which existed between your personnel and the members of the National Guard contributed immeasurably to the success we feel the Military Academy has achieved.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) William H. Harrison, Jr.
Major General, AGC. Mass NG

13 October 1954

Subject: Appreciation, Use of Boston Latin School
To: Chairman, The School Committee
The City of Boston
15 Beacon Street
Boston 8, Massachusetts
Thru: The Adjutant General of Massachusetts

1. Due to the great amount of work involved in moving to our new quarters at the Commonwealth Armory, and the many details incident to preparation for our entrance examinations and the conduct of our first sessions, it has been necessary to delay until now this expression of our appreciation and thanks for your generous support of the Academy through the use of your facilities at the Boston Latin School. These thanks are no less sincere, even though late.

2. From 1948 to June 1954 the Academy was housed in, and has conducted all of its sessions at the Latin School. It was only through your cheerful and generous cooperation in answer to our original request for facilities that we were able to achieve the successes we enjoyed. Much of your support, and the support of the Headmaster in answer to our requests for expanding facilities, was rendered with sacrifices to yourselves. We trust that we were not a burden during the years we occupied the Latin School.

3. In addition to thanking the School Committee for their support and cooperation, we also offer our thanks and appreciation to Mr. McKim, the Headmaster, to the office staff of the school, and to the custodians, for their willing and generous services in making our stay at the Latin School both happy and successful.

(Signed) Lawrence F. Carew
Brigadier General
Commandant

PROGRESS ON CONSTRUCTION OF ADDITION TO CURTIS GUILD SCHOOL

Mr. Musco: Mr. Chairman, I believe it is appropriate at this time for us to voice an opinion and inquire as to the status of the progress in our new building program throughout the entire City.

I am particularly interested in the Curtis Guild School addition, of which I have had many complaints by mail, telephone, and personal visits from parents and residents in the district who feel that the progress in that particular school is rather slow.

I know the School Committee has approved it and is now waiting for action and plans from the Department of School Buildings to carry on this program. There is no question in my mind that the thing has gone a little bit too far and that we have not had any action.

I ask the Committee tonight to direct a letter to the Commissioner of the Department of School Buildings for a report so that we can submit a report, in turn, to those people who have worked so hard to obtain a new building. It is about time that we had some action—even ground-breaking plans that have not at least risen at the horizon.

I would like your indulgence to go along with that and ask for a report. I think we have waited long enough. We ought to take a firm stand in getting some action on this particular thing.

Chairman: Well, Mr. Musco, although she is not here, Miss Fitzgerald has inquired about the progress on the Curtis Guild School in East Boston, and she, in talking to me, seemed to be very much upset at the delay over there. She seemed to feel that the new school should be much further along than it actually is.

I have no knowledge of the particular situation, although the Superintendent tells me the plans are still being formulated.

Superintendent: That's right.

Chairman: Well, I feel that they have had sufficient time since the Committee allocated the money to have the plans completed by now. If it is your desire to send an inquiry to the Chairman of the Schoolhouse Commission, I think we can direct the Secretary to do so.

Secretary: The Chairman of the Board of Commissioners, Mr. O'Connell.

Mr. Musco: I would like to change the word "inquire" to "demand." It is our province to see that these buildings are erected, and fast. We are in a serious problem at Orient Heights. We are transporting the pupils, and the children are still in a portable building. I think we ought to force them into some immediate action.

Mr. Lee: Would you say, Mr. Musco, that the City has had a right to expect that that building should start before now and that at least you are at a loss to know why it hasn't started?

Mr. Musco: Yes. I communicated with those parents back in the Spring, and I assured them that construction would start the first day of September. The building was razed and levelled sometime in June, and we have had no action as yet on the Curtis Guild addition.

Mr. Lee: Did we give the O. K.?

Superintendent: Yes, Mr. Lee. We have executed all of our requirements.

Mr. Lee: We gave the go-ahead long ago, did we not?

Superintendent: That's right.

Mr. Musco: Well, unfortunately, the public doesn't know the procedure and the difficulties that the School Committee is presented with, and they seem to point the finger of responsibility at us.

Actually, however, we have done as much as we could, and have submitted our plans and our appropriation to the Department of School Buildings. Now, it is up to us right at this point to make a lot of noise.

Chairman: Well, I don't know what kind of noise would be most effective; but if it is your wish that we have the Secretary direct a letter to the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings and express the sentiments of this Committee that we are very much disturbed at the lack of progress in that particular school, the Curtis Guild Building, that will be all right. We should ask for the status quo of the construction plans for that school.

Is that it?

Mr. Musco: Anything to get action.

Mr. Lee: I think a strong letter of that sort would be very good.

Chairman: Would you do that, Miss Reynolds?

Secretary: Yes, sir.

SCHOOL MILK PROGRAM

Mr. Musco read the following statement:

The extension of the Boston School milk program has been made possible by a recent Federal grant of $1,169,000 to Massachusetts.

All school children will be able to buy milk at a lower cost, and the Boston school system will take advantage of this grant for its 91,000 students.

Instructions on carrying out this extension of the milk program has been sent to our school officials by Commissioner of Education John J. Desmond, Jr. The milk may be served during lunch, at morning or afternoon recess, or at other periods during the school day, with no restriction on the number of half-pint containers consumed by each child.

The grant to Massachusetts was made by the Commodity Credit Corporation through the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The Commissioner of Education will also seek a further allotment of Federal funds after February 1, if allotments made to other states at the present time are not fulfilled.

I know it is the desire of the Boston School Committee to encourage the sale of more milk in our schools, so that we can increase our consumption by at least 50% in this current two year project. At present we are serving 50,000 containers daily.

The following extract from the conference notes of this date were ordered spread in full on the records of the meeting:

Mr. Musco: Mr. Chairman, we have a project here that I know all of us are interested in because an extension of the Boston school milk program has been made possible by a recent Federal grant of $1,169,000 to Massachusetts.

All the school children will be able to buy milk at a lower cost, and the Boston School System will take advantage of this grant for its 91,000 students.

The instructions on carrying out this extension of the milk program have been sent to our school officials by Commissioner of Education John J. Desmond, Jr. The milk may be served during lunch, at morning or afternoon recess, or at other periods during the school day, with no restriction on the number of half pints consumed by each child.

The grant to Massachusetts was made by the Commodity Credit Corporation through the United States Department of Agriculture. The Commissioner of Education will also seek a further allotment of Federal funds after February 1, if allotments made to other states at the present time are not fulfilled.

I know that it is the desire of the Boston School Committee to encourage the sale of more milk in our schools, so that we can increase our consumption by at least 50 per cent in this current two-year project.

At the present time we are serving 50,000 containers of milk daily. I would like to have the Superintendent furnish further information on this worthy school lunch milk program, so that we can keep the School Committee members advised.

Superintendent: I will be very glad to, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, out of that $1,169,000 to Massachusetts, how much would we get? Does anybody know?

Superintendent: Would you know, Mr. Smith, how much we get for a subsidy on milk?

Business Manager: Under the new law, all milk sold above the base figure (which is the daily average number of cartons sold in each school during 1953-54) will have a four cents reimbursement. We will continue to receive two cents reimbursement on milk below the base figure in each school.

Chairman: How much does the half pint cost the children—a nickel?

Business Manager: Just a fraction over five cents to be paid to the milkman. On the base of last year it will be a little over three cents for the child to pay, and for the additional milk this year it will be just over one cent for the child to pay.

Mr. Musco: So the way I understand it, Mr. Chairman, is that the more milk that is consumed by the school children of Boston, the less cost, of course; and if the other cities and towns do not consume this particular allocation to Massachusetts, it means that on February 1st we can get more milk allocated in terms of dollars than the other cities or towns in the entire Commonwealth.

So I think it behooves us to advertise and to educate the children to drink as much milk as possible. At the present time, as you can see here, we are serving 50,000 containers daily. With the help of a few more cents in reimbursement from the Government — per half pint — we will be able to distribute approximately 50% more this year.

Chairman: Any objections to this being spread upon the public record?

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, this is to me one of those very mixed up situations. As I understand what is happening, the Federal Government through taxes is taking perhaps $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 from us and then it is very graciously giving us back about a third of it. Maybe it is nowhere near that much — some small fraction of it — so that we can buy a little milk. In fact, we can buy a third as much as if they had not taken large sums from us for distribution to most every other State in the Union.

Is that substantially what is happening? That is, we are getting back this money that the Federal Government has extracted by taxes, and we all know that Massachusetts, as a high tax-paying State, pays out much more than what it gets back. What it pays out is distributed to the other States. Then we use the little that comes back to buy milk and then the children come and pay us a few pennies for the milk, at a cut rate, provided their parents have any pennies left to give them after they have met Federal taxes.

The milk is local milk that comes straight from the New England farms—is that what is happening?

Do we get our hands on this small refund from the Federal Government — this $1,000,000 that is coming back to us—whereby we do the buying of the milk and get it to the school buildings, and then the child comes up to us and buys it cut-rate from us?

Superintendent: That's right.

Mr. Lee: That is how it works out?

Superintendent: That's right.

Mr. Lee: Well, I suppose since they have taken the money from us there is nothing to do about it. It is one of those frauds that characterize the modern age where we could just as well spend one-third as much money, but now we have to spend it through Washington, and for the glory of having it pass through the hands of those bureaucrats we get back a third of what we gave them.

Chairman: The children get the milk, though, Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee: If we had the $3,000,000 which is taken from us, we could buy three times as much for the youngsters as this little return they give back to us after most of our money goes to other States.

However, I suppose, since they have already taken the money, there is not much we can do about it.

The Committee adjourned.

AGNES E. REYNOLDS,
Secretary.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

The Mayor, upon recommendation of the Corporation Counsel, has approved the following claims:

Mary S. Parker, 18 Euclid avenue, Quincy, in the sum of $50, as compensation for personal injuries caused by a hole in the sidewalk on Berkeley street, near Columbus avenue, November 16, 1953.

Rose Vocino, 3 Endicott court, in the sum of $395, as compensation for personal injuries caused by a broken piece of curbing at the corner of Blossom and Parkman streets, September 1, 1954.

Rose Perriello, 11 Stillman street, in the sum of $35, as compensation for collapse of hot water boiler caused when employees of the Water Division shut off the water, without proper notice, while making repairs May 26, 1954.

DETROIT SAFETY PROGRAM PAYS OFF.

Detroit produces more automobiles than any city in America. It used to produce more traffic accidents and deaths as well. Long ranked as America's most dangerous city to drive in, the Motor City has made remarkable progress in the past thirteen years under city government-business leadership. At least 1,829 people are now alive in the city as a result of the work of the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit. Most of the success is attributed to a progressive municipal traffic engineering program. Detroit claims the first police traffic squad, the first one-way streets, the first traffic signals, the first pedestrian safety zones, and the first blueprints for a municipal parking garage.—American Municipal Association Report.

BOSTON POLICE TRAFFIC DIVISION.

The Traffic Division embraces the area lying within the jurisdiction of Divisions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 16 as well as the traffic post at Boston University Bridge, Division 14. It is charged with the enforcement of statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations pertaining to traffic within this area, the processing of parking violation notices for the entire department, and the providing of a safety educational program directed to the general public.

RESTAURANT SANITATION.

Although there are approximately 2,100 eating and drinking establishments in Boston, the Food Division makes a thorough sanitary inspection in each case at least four or five times during the year. Those establishments that require closer supervision are visited more frequently.

A new set of educational posters in restaurant sanitation has been prepared with the assistance of the Health Education Division and is being widely distributed.

ASSESSED VALUATIONS CONTINUE TO RISE.

A survey of 43 assessing jurisdictions over 100,000 population, recently completed by the National Association of Assessing Officers, discloses that the latest totals of assessed valuations average 4.3 per cent higher than those for last year. Last year's survey of 46 jurisdictions showed an increase for the preceding period of 6.35 per cent. Duval County (Jacksonville), Florida, reported a 19.7 per cent increase, the highest of any jurisdiction. Other jurisdictions reporting high percentage increases in valuations were Dade County (Miami), Florida, 13.3 per cent; Providence, Rhode Island, 10.5 per cent; King County (Seattle), 10.4 per cent; Grand Rapids, Michigan, 9.3 per cent; Richmond, Virginia, 8.8 per cent; Los Angeles County, 8.5 per cent; Minneapolis and San Antonio, 6.9 per cent; and Erie, Pennsylvania, 6.7 per cent.

Payments on account of pensions and annuities during the past year amounted to $1,377,183.62, and it is estimated that $1,717,827.71 will be required for pensions and annuities in 1954. The invested fund of the Police Charitable Fund amounted to $207,550.

MILK INSPECTION.

The people of Boston are drinking a high quality milk that is good as well as safe. Results of bacteriological examinations of samples taken of milk—pasteurized, the poorest quality of milk sold in Boston, contained an average of less than 5,000 colonies of bacteria in one cubic centimeter. This average is more than twice as good as that prescribed for Grade A milk by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and more than five times as good as the requirements of the United States Public Health Service Code. Grade A milk sold in Boston averaged about 1,000 colonies of bacteria in one cubic centimeter.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL HEALTH PROGRAM.

This is the first full year the Pure Tone Audiometer has been used in the parochial schools. Before starting its use, the entire staff was given intensive training in the use of the audiometer. The nurse in the school makes all the preparations and helps with the children when the testing is done, but it has been found advisable to have one nurse, who is responsible and specially trained, to do the actual testing. All children in the third grades and also those children referred by the teachers from other grades were tested.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 47 SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1955. NO. 2

MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES FORECASTS AIMS AND ACHIEVEMENTS HOPED FOR IN 1955—DELIVERS ANNUAL ADDRESS TO CITY COUNCIL, DEPARTMENT HEADS, AND GUESTS IN COUNCIL CHAMBER—WOULD REASSESS ENTIRE CITY BY SCIENTIFIC REVALUATION AND EQUALIZATION OF PROPERTY VALUES BUT ONLY AFTER NEW FORM OF REVENUE IS PROVIDED TO LOWER PRESENT HIGH TAX RATE—WILL SEEK $5,000,000 FOR REPAIRS TO CITY PROPERTY—POINTS WITH PRIDE TO ACHIEVEMENT ALREADY ACCOMPLISHED IN CUTTING COSTS AND MAKING FOR ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY.

The following is the annual message of his Honor the Mayor, John B. Hynes, to the Boston City Council on January 3:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

Another year in the long history of our city has passed into the shadows of time. However posterity may judge our efforts and our accomplishments during the year 1954, I believe it must be recorded that we have, according to our lights and within our capabilities, performed our duties, and accepted our responsibilities in keeping with the faith reposed in us by our fellow citizens.

This New Year we have entered will not be without its problems, for government on any level is never static. New problems constantly arise to confront us; old, deep-rooted problems, which have no quick or easy solution, remain to extend us to the fullest if answers to those problems are to be reached. I am sure we will meet those problems head on, with a spirit of determination at least as great as that which characterized our efforts during the past year.

1955's First Page

Today, we begin to write the first pages in the book of our city government for the year 1955. Because of the paucity of materials at hand, and because of circumstances beyond our control, we cannot, try though we may, make each chapter in that book invigorating and refreshing. If, however, by our joint efforts, and within our prescribed powers, we can make brighter and more encouraging those chapters in the book of 1955 which, heretofore, have been dull and dismal reading, we shall have done our duty well.

In this annual message, let me first discuss those difficult and challenging factors which have defied our best efforts in the past;

SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS NOTED IN MANY AREAS OF PUBLIC HEALTH BY COMMISSIONER JOHN H. CAULEY—GAINS IN FIGHT AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS, INFANT DEATHS, HEART DISEASE, AND CANCER—DEATHS BY ACCIDENT JUMP TO FOURTH IN CASUALTY LIST—459 LOST LIVES NEEDLESSLY.

The summary of public health statistics for 1954 released by Health Commissioner John H. Cauley revealed substantial improvements in many areas of the public health. Gains were made in the fight against tuberculosis, infant deaths were reduced, the communicable diseases were insignificant, and fewer deaths were attributed to heart disease and cancer. Accidental deaths, however, continued to increase and they remain the fourth leading cause of death in the city. "Four hundred and fifty-nine Bostonians" said Doctor Cauley, "lost their lives needlessly this past year. Accidental deaths are always preventable deaths but the cooperation of every individual is needed if we are to make substantial improvements.

"The usual public health preventive methods cannot be employed," he said. "There is no way to immunize children or adults against accidents as we can to prevent smallpox, nor can we wipe out accidental deaths by improving sanitation as in the case of milk or water-borne diseases—and, unfortunately, the accidental death total reveals only a minor part of the problem. It does not show the many nonfatal accidents which result in crippling incapacitation, and loss of employment, frequently of a permanent nature. May I urge the citizens of our city to make a New Year's resolution to help in every way

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the shipteeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

MAYOR HYNES DELIVERS ANNUAL MESSAGE TO CITY COUNCIL—OUTLINES AIMS FOR COMING YEAR.

and then let me discuss those encouraging factors which give us reason to look to the future with confidence.

That part of our picture which is not so bright is now, as it has been for some years, an abnormally high tax rate. This is the result of a combination of circumstances so ingrained and longstanding that only by extraordinary measures or remedies can they be corrected.

Narrowing Tax Base.

These circumstances include archaic valuation and assessment practices which stem from the necessity of maintaining the giant structure of the city government on an ever-narrowing tax base. The burden of sustaining that tax base rests, with varying weight, upon the shoulders of those who own real estate in our city. A thorough, city-wide equalization of real property values should be made, but should be held in abeyance until such time as a new source of income is available to the city. To do otherwise would merely shift the present heavy tax burden to those least able to assume it.

A complete, scientific revaluation and equalization of property values would serve the further objective of reducing to the vanishing point the annoyances, the aggravations, and all the other disturbing, time-consuming, temper-fraying incidents which have become part and parcel of the present outmoded system of placing valuations on taxable properties. Unless our assessing system, which has been chaotic for a period of 30 years, or more, is revised from the ground up, the flow of petitions for tax abatements will increase rather than lessen. To install a new system of assessing procedures will require the cooperation of your Body. I hope I can rely on such cooperation.

The loss of taxable valuations has reached alarming proportions. Extensive public improvements, the expansion of educational, charitable, or religious real estate holdings, together with a relatively small amount of new taxable construction, has narrowed the already narrow tax potential to the point where one third of all properties in our city are tax exempt. Lest this statement be misunderstood, let me emphatically declare that Boston is pleased, rather than displeased, at the growth of religious, educational, or charitable institutions, and pleased, also, at the extent of public improvements in our city.

Shrinking Tax Base.

The shrinking tax base is not because of tax-exempt holdings. It is because there has not been, in our city, in recent years, enough new taxable construction to compensate for the amount of tax-exempt construction. As long as this situation continues, and no new income source is available, we shall continue to have a tax rate which is a barrier to progress, and a deterrent to new business or industrial construction, now the main source of income to our city.

If the answer to our high tax rate, and all that flows from it, were a sizable, sensible reduction in municipal expenditures, it would be our bounden duty to effect those economies. But the answer to our high tax rate is not that simple. To arrive at a tax rate of $50 or $55 per 1,000 rather than the present rate of $69.80 would mean reducing city expenses by over $20,000,000. Obviously, any such reduction would, of necessity, involve hardship to employees, and deep slashes in the amounts provided for health and hospital services; for fire and police protection, and for other essential and vital municipal services. Clearly, the answer to our financial problem is not in arbitrary, unwise, or forced economies. This does not mean, however, that we should not continue to seek out greater economies in municipal operations wherever those economies can reasonably and sensibly be made, but we know, as a practical matter, that the eventual answer to our tax rate enigma is either a broadening of the tax base, or the inclusion of Boston in a metropolitan form of government. This latter possibility, though on the way, is still remote. It would appear, therefore, that a broadening of our tax base, with a resultant decrease in the tax rate, is the quickest medium through which Boston can share in the growth and progress of a growing and progressive community and nation.

Other factors which cause flickering shadows to cross the pages of 1955 are the upward turn in disbursements for general welfare relief and relief to veterans. From present indications, medical care grants to welfare recipients, which include payments to apothecaries, doctors, and nursing homes, will be $700,000 greater in 1955 than in 1954. This increase is by legislative edict over which we have no control. The number of cases on general relief has risen from 3,400 to 3,800, which will mean an increase of about $300,000 in the appropriations for this year. In the Veterans' Services Department, $80,000 additional must be provided in 1955 to meet a 6½ per cent increase in family budgets ordered by the State Department of Veterans' Services. An additional $20,000 must also be provided in this department for an increase in the number of recipients. On the whole, the appropriations for general welfare relief and for veterans' relief in 1955 will exceed those of 1954 by $1,100,000. The obligation of our city to provide this type of relief is a primary one. We must and we shall meet it. Only by an upward turn in the economic cycle can we hope for any betterment in the present relief picture.

Pension Demands.

The contributions we must provide in 1955 for noncontributory pensions will be about $4,250,000 or $600,000 in excess of the amount provided in 1954 for the same purpose. This large increase for this type of expenditure would be most disturbing were it not for the fact that the work of the retired employees, in many cases, can be spread among other employees, thus saving a considerable amount in the personnel appropriations for positions left unfilled.

The condition of the over-all city plant is a cause for concern. In an effort to keep maintenance appropriations at a minimum, insufficient money has been provided over recent years for major and semi-major plant repairs. We have now reached the stage when substantial sums must be made available for such repairs. In order that these sums may be provided without a resounding impact upon the tax rate of this year or next year, we are asking the legislature to permit the city to borrow for this purpose. I am hopeful that your Body will give this proposed legislation unanimous support.

Akin to this problem is the necessity of replacing worn-out equipment in almost every city department with new and modern equipment. Old equipment is expensive to maintain and operate, but its replacement cost is far too great to include in the budget of any one year. For this reason, and for the reason too, that we intend to invest in considerably more street cleaning and snow fighting equipment, and other heavy equipment which we now utilize on a rental basis, I shall present to your Body during the present year a loan appropriation for equipment of various kinds for various city departments.

What to do with our refuse and garbage is an ever-pressing problem. It might well be termed our No. 1 housekeeping headache. We must begin, without further delay, to construct incinerators to take the place of open land dumps, which are fast disappearing. The construction of several well placed, modern incinerators in our city is of compelling necessity. On this point, there can be no doubt. Deferring such construction until sites are found which will engender no opposition whatsoever will mean that construction would never begin. There will always be some objectors to an incinerator on any site, even though it is admitted that a modern type, attractively built incinerator is relatively smokeless, completely odorless, and in no sense a nuisance as compared with land dumps.

INCINERATOR PROBLEM.

The designation and approval of sites for incinerators is our public responsibility as officials of this city government. I am sure that once we have given approval to a site and an incinerator is constructed and put into operation, whatever opposition there might have been to that incinerator will completely disappear. This has been the experience of other cities and I believe it will be the experience in our city. And now may I turn to matters of brighter hue.

The construction of the new central artery is proceeding rapidly. Already that section coming from the north to the mouth of the Sumner Tunnel is completed. Already its advantages are apparent. It is now possible to travel one mile over the central artery in two minutes, as compared to the fifteen to forty minutes it formerly took to traverse the same distance over our traffic-clogged streets. When the central artery is fully completed, it will tremendously accelerate traffic movement in and out of our city and should, we are extremely hopeful, encourage building improvements and new construction along and in the vicinity of its route.

Undoubtedly, easy and quick access to the heart of downtown Boston will increase the demand for parking facilities, and these facilities must be provided if we are to take full advantage of new and long-planned traffic improvements in our city. The municipal government has the primary duty of providing additional parking facilities. We welcome, however, and will encourage private enterprise to join with the city government in an effort to create some 10,000 or 12,000 new off-street parking spaces estimated to be needed in the downtown area. The city government has already embarked on an ambitious program which aims for the construction of about 5,000 spaces for off-street parking and these spaces should be available during the next year and a half. The city has no desire, however, to monopolize the parking business in our city. It would be pleasing to us if private enterprise would show greater interest and a more adventurous spirit in a business which promises to be a lucrative one for many years to come.

I am happy to again commend the Boston City Council for the affirmative action taken in the matter of slum clearance for urban redevelopment in that part of our city commonly referred to as the New York Streets Area.

Ideally situated for the establishment of plants for light industry and manufacturing, I am confident that your approval of this, our first venture into urban redevelopment, will turn out to be the turning point in the physical life of our city.

Cities grow old. Blight and decay, hardly discernible at first, can eat away a section of our city and travel at a rapid pace, unless we take heroic measures to stem the tide. Boston is an old city. A casual walk on the fringes of the downtown area is proof positive that age is taking its toll of once attractive and prosperous areas. Through the interest and activity of local rehabilitation committees, working in harmony with city officials, we have begun to stay the dead hand of decay in some sections of our city.

SLUM CLEARANCE.

A new law makes it possible, for the first time, to stimulate and accelerate our efforts by broadly defining slum clearance, rehabilitation, or conservation, or any combination of these, to be within the terms of the Federal Renewal Act. However, where there are entire sections of a city not redeemable or salvageable, the only possible and only realistic means of renewing those sections is through the medium of clearance and redevelopment on a large scale.

Therefore, and in short, three methods are open to us to improve the physical appearance of our city: by local rehabilitation activities, by taking advantage of the new Federal Renewal Law, and by urban redevelopment on a major scale. Moving forward in these three directions will make Boston a better place to live in, to work in, and in which to do business. During the course of the year, I shall request your whole-hearted support in this three-pronged endeavor to improve our city.

The program of the President of the United States for nation-wide improvements to our highway system is still in the preliminary stage. This is a long-range program calling for the expenditure of $50,000,000,000, $3,000,000,000 of which will be devoted to urban improvements. We have already made known what Boston would like to receive under such a program. Our tentative plan calls for appropriations from the Federal Government of about $150,000,000, the major portion of which would be for the dismantling of the M.T.A. elevated structure and the substitution of a subway therefor. We have no present means of knowing if we will receive approval of all or any part of our program, but I am sure you will agree with me that if $50,000,000,000 is to be spent for highway improvements in the United States our request is a very modest one.

As you are aware, the Boston & Albany Railroad Company is going to move its yards from Exeter street and Huntington avenue. This will leave a 28-acre site in a very desirable section of our city for development. Pending in a committee of the Legislature is a proposal which will make it possible for the development of this site in such a manner that short-range and long-range benefits will accrue to our city. It would be the shame of our generation, in my opinion, if this large site were cut up into minuscule portions to be used for a variety of purposes, none of which nor all of which together, would improve the general area of the Back Bay and the city itself. A modern development of this site would have much to do with reversing the trend of decentralized shopping. It would revitalize a neighborhood which needs to be exhilarated.

ADD TO TAXES.

It would bring into our city government more taxes than we have ever received from the railroad company. Like all progressive moves, there is opposition to any plan which gives protection to those who are willing to risk many millions of dollars in a venture of this sort. In my judgment, this opposition is shortsighted, for anything which benefits our city in one particular section or in one particular way will also benefit the whole city. I respectfully appeal to the members of the City Council and all my fellow citizens to give support to the legislative proposal when the hearings on it are held early this year. If ever Boston had a chance to turn the corner and look down the broad highway of a better future, this is that opportunity.

Another possibility which can result in a more prosperous and progressive city is the organization of a world trade center in our city. Boston has one of the finest ports in the world. It is redundant for me to state that it is not being used to its full advantage. For years, sporadic efforts have been made to revive the port, but only recently have the kind of improvements been completed which make it possible for Boston to compete with other eastern ports. There is, currently, intense interest in the creation of a new organization, called the World Trade Center, which will bring together every interested group in the city to pledge and to lend concerted support to the rebuilding of the business of our port.

Boston, nearer to North European ports, nearer to South American ports than some of our rival cities, is in good position to go after business, to get business, and to revivify our port. The city of New Orleans has benefited in myriad ways from the World Trade Center which it organized some 10 years ago. The new business which has come to New Orleans has spread prosperity throughout every segment of the population of that city. We can do the same in Boston. I look forward to the early organization of the World Trade Center and the contributions it can make to the general prosperity of our city and the whole community in the years to come.

The sale of homes built by the City of Boston for veterans of World War II is taking place as required by law. To date, we have sold 200 houses to veteran purchasers. Seventy-one dwellings are now in the process of being sold. During 1955, we shall sell the balance of the 504 single or double houses, and we shall also proceed to the sale of the five multiple-dwelling projects which have a total of 315 units.

The average cost of the construction of the houses which have been sold was $22,000, as against an average selling price of $15,000. The houses sold have now been placed on the tax rolls and will, hereafter, be assessable as any other residence in the city. This year, the houses which have been sold will represent $1,448,000 in taxable valuations.

DEPARTMENT REORGANIZATION.

The reorganization of city departments and the general streamlining of the city government has begun to bear fruit. New methods of operation can now be instituted and economies can now be made which were impossible before the reorganization. Fewer employees are now on the payrolls of the city and their number will further decrease as deaths and retirements take place. The internal reorganization of the Fire Department, which we are content will result in better and more efficient operation, will mean savings of approximately $500,000 yearly. This is an example of what can be accomplished by reorganization and by instituting efficient management procedures.

The new Department of Administrative Services is proving to be the heart and core of the whole reorganization plan. Through the authority reposed in this department, more efficient practices are being adopted in various city departments. I am immensely pleased, and I know you are, that this new department, under the able direction of Charles J. Fox, is meeting with our expectations and has come to be the generating force, the guiding hand that inspires and leads our various departments to better and more economical management.

The City Hospital, which now and again is a target for criticism, is making rapid strides in the field of improved hospital service. The improvements already instituted and in operation, and those contemplated, are so numerous that they must await a later date for recounting. Merely let me state, at this time, that there is no city hospital in our country which is better staffed or better equipped to give the very best of care to its patients than the Boston City Hospital. The reorganization has brought under one head the Main Hospital, the Boston Sanatorium, and the Long Island Hospital. Within a short time, and under the most energetic supervision of the new superintendent, Dr. John F. Conlin, I am quite certain that our hospital services and facilities will be acclaimed, by every recognized expert, as equal to or better than any in our country.

The gross funded debt situation in our city continues to improve. This is not accidental. It has been done in order that the credit of our municipality might be sound, and in order that we might go into the financial market on even terms with other borrowers. In the year just passed our gross funded debt has been reduced by $2,000,000. Over the past five years this debt has been lowered by $12,000,000. This is an accomplishment which strengthens our financial structure.

M.T.A. BURDEN.

For many years the increase in deficits of the M.T.A. has been a very burdensome factor in our tax rate. This year, on the basis of figures for the first 11 months of 1954, it would appear that that part of the deficit which must be borne by the City of Boston will be $1,000,000 less than last year. Although this decrease in the M.T.A. deficit has been made possible by an increase in passenger fares, nevertheless it is a welcome relief from the pattern of recent years. However, despite this reduction in the M.T.A. deficit, the charges assessed on Boston for this mass transportation facility will represent, this year, approximately $4 on the tax rate.

On an occasion such as this there is a temptation to discuss every city activity. I shall not do so, although I must make passing and brief mention of our new Division of Complaints which is meeting, very capably, a very obvious need and which I recommend to you, gentlemen, as a referral agency on matters which come to your attention and which require follow-up and report.

Let me conclude this talk by expressing my appreciation of your continued devotion to the task which confronts you, both as individuals and collectively. Your position in the city government is not exactly an enviable one. Your authority and your power, under the City Charter, are limited, and yet, you are expected on many sides to do things which are beyond your jurisdiction. Whether your power and your authority should be broadened and extended is not for me to pass upon. I do hope, however, and confidently, that in those fields where you have sole jurisdiction, or concurrent jurisdiction with me, that we may see eye to eye, and work hand in hand. In doing so, we keep faith with our fellow citizens; we contribute toward a better City of Boston of the future.

In my judgment our city has made gratifying progress during the past 12 months. Our goal must be to continue that progress in the months ahead.

For many years we have had an agreement with the M.T.A. and the former Boston Elevated Railway, whereby certain streets would be plowed or cleared of snow under a cooperative agreement. Under the provisions of statute law, the M.T.A. is required to clear snow from their track area only. However, it would be most impractical for the M.T.A. to plow and clear snow from their track areas and leave the rest of the roadway areas to be cleared of snow and plowed by the Public Works Department. Therefore, as stated, we have had a long-standing agreement with both the M.T.A. and the Boston Elevated Railway, whereby we would plow and remove snow from certain streets, and they would furnish certain units of equipment to assist in the plowing and removal work.

I discussed this matter with Mr. Dana of the M.T.A. very recently, and we came to an agreement, whereby the M.T.A. will lease to the City of Boston, for $1 annually, four 1947 FWD heavy-duty snowplows, with the understanding that the Public Works Department will continue to plow the above-listed streets in which streetcar tracks are located, for a period of 10 successive years or for a lesser period, if the tracks are removed, and that at the end of the lesser period or at the end of the 10-year period, the City of Boston will automatically become the owner of the four pieces of equipment referred to above. These units are used not only for heavy-duty plowing, but also for sanding and salting operations. This agreement, in my opinion, is very equitable and beneficial both to the M.T.A. and the City of Boston.

I respectfully request, therefore, your approval to the entering into of an agreement with the Metropolitan Transit Authority, based on the above-referenced provisions; and with the further understanding that the agreement will be prepared to the mutual satisfaction of the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston and the General Counsel of the Metropolitan Transit Authority.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

to cut down the awful, mounting toll from accidents wherever they occur,—in the home, in industry, or in the automobile."

ENCOURAGING PICTURE.

A more encouraging picture which has been made possible by active public cooperation is the situation in tuberculosis. For the eighth consecutive year, the death rate has decreased to achieve the lowest death rate from pulmonary tuberculosis ever to be recorded in Boston. In 1954, 203 pulmonary tuberculosis deaths occurred, with a resulting rate of 24.9 — a 60 per cent reduction from the rate of 60.7 per 100,000 population of eight years ago. Credit for the remarkable improvement must be shared by the public who have taken advantage of the Boston Health Department's active case-finding X-ray program, the Tuberculosis Association, and, above all, the improved medical techniques and treatment which makes it possible to restore the patients to normal life more quickly than ever before.

Infant deaths were also materially reduced in 1954, with only 345 deaths reported as contrasted with 375 in 1953. Estimates of resident births give a total of 14,820, slightly under that of 1953 but still reflecting the high birth rate of the last decade. In spite of the thousands of births occurring each year, maternal mortality continues to be very low, with only 10 deaths reported during the year.

The communicable diseases have been so well controlled in recent years that, although cases continue to occur, deaths are rare. For example, 1954 was a year of high measles incidence, with 5,500 cases, a sharp contrast with the 127 cases reported in 1953. In spite of this tremendous increase, no deaths occurred in either year. The year 1954 also saw an increase in the number of polio cases from 39 in 1953 to 114 in 1954, but in spite of the large increases in incidence only one death occurred. In addition to measles, no deaths at all were attributed to scarlet fever, typhoid fever, or whooping cough. Six cases of diphtheria were reported with one death.

"Although the picture for communicable disease is extremely favorable," said Doctor Cauley, "may I remind parents that it is only made possible by careful observation of good immunization practices. Children should be protected against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, and smallpox well before their first birthday and their immunity retained by 'booster doses' at intervals throughout childhood. It is only maintenance of immunization at a high level that makes it possible to control deaths from communicable disease."

The year 1954 also saw improvement in sanitation, with many plans initiated which hold promise of permanent correction for certain problem areas. The Mayor's program for rehabilitation and restoration of certain areas of Boston will do much to eliminate trouble spots. Within the Health Department, sani-

STREET WIDENING AND CONSTRUCTION.

The Public Improvement Commission has ordered that a public improvement be made, consisting of the widening and construction of Public Alley No. 908, Boston Proper district, on the southeasterly side at the bend approximately 100 feet northerly of Marlborough street, named, bounded and described as follows:

The Public Alley No. 908 is hereby widened on the southerly side at the bend approximately 80 feet north of Marlborough street, and ordered constructed. For the making of the aforesaid improvement an easement for street purposes is hereby taken in the following described land, exclusive of trees, shrubs or structures standing upon or affixed thereto.

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Henry H. and Virginia N. Davis, bounded:

Westerly by the easterly line of said alley, 20.68 feet; northerly by the southerly line of said alley, 20.68 feet; and easterly by the easterly line of said alley, 34.56 feet on a curve of 25 feet radius, containing 85 square feet, more or less.

Trees, shrubs or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforedescribed land, shall be removed therefrom within thirty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Said Public Alley No. 908 as hereby widened is bounded:

Westerly by the easterly line of said alley as it existed prior to this order, 20.68 feet; northerly by the southerly line of said alley as it existed prior to this order, 20.68 feet; and easterly by the easterly line of said alley as hereby widened, 34.56 feet on a curve of 25 feet radius, containing 85 square feet, more or less.

No betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Voted, That this commission determines that the undermentioned persons sustain damages in their estates by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the widening and construction of Public Alley No. 908, Boston Proper district, on the southerly side at the bend approximately 80 feet north of Marlborough street, under the order of the commission of December 9, 1954, in the amount hereinafter mentioned and awards said amount therefor.

TUNNEL TRAFFIC IN MAY.

In the month of May, 1,031,226 vehicles used the Sumner Tunnel. This is the first time in the history of the tunnel that in excess of 1,000,000 vehicles used the facility in any one month.

In May of 1953, 979,920 vehicles went through the tunnel, or 51,306 less than May of this year.

WOOING FRINGE LOT PARKING PATRONS NOT EASY.

Enticing motoring commuters into fringe parking lots can be a difficult courtship. Recent experience in Washington, Baltimore, Cleveland, and St. Louis indicates that success cannot be achieved unless there is provided an attractive parking-transit fee, frequent bus service between the lot and central business district, and easy approaches to the lot. St. Louis offers a 5 to 7½ minute bus service, no parking fee, and a special 35-cent round-trip fare. Patronage of the 600-car lot is increasing, but a profitable operation has not yet been achieved. However, a survey of 500 of the lot's patrons showed 72 per cent rate the service as "excellent." Three out of four said they arrived closer to their downtown destinations than when they drove in. Private lots in downtown Cleveland are now getting short-term parkers—which produces more revenue for the operator than all-day parkers. In Baltimore the consensus is that fringe parking now "does not work".

Another necessity for cities planning fringe parking lots is the provision of convenient shelters to protect patrons from inclement weather. — American Municipal Association Report.

CITIES GENERALLY DO NOT CONTROL PRIVATE PARKING RATES.

Review of numerous ordinances and other materials by AMA for a member league shows that cities do not generally exercise any control over rates charged for parking. Supply and demand seems to furnish the regulation needed. Generally, however, applications for a parking lot or garage license require that rates charged be set forth in the application, that rates be posted conspicuously at the entrance to the lot, and that rates cannot be changed without official written notice to the municipality.

INVOCATION BY REV. MORRIS A. INCH.

Our Father, we thank Thee for the spiritual heritage of our country, a nation under God. We thank Thee truly that we people are those who have been endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights.

We pray that Thy richest blessing fall upon our civil servants in general, and upon this body of men in particular. We ask that Thou shouldst give them courage to stand for what they believe is right, tempered with an open-mindedness to consider the viewpoints of others, and a consuming love which places others above self, and the will of God supreme. We hope that they may have the determination and wisdom to preserve our spiritual heritage and to guard it against its enemies, that our banner may be unfolded before the world so that they may know we are truly a nation under God.

This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

HIGH SPEED MASS TRANSPORTATION BY NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN & HARTFORD RAILROAD FROM HYDE PARK STATION TO DOWNTOWN BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 27, 1954.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company relative to your order of November 29, 1954, concerning high speed mass transportation from Hyde Park Station to downtown Boston.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company,
New Haven, Connecticut,
December 14, 1954.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

I appreciate your letter of December 7 and a copy of the order of Councillors Foley and Hailer of November 29, 1954, requesting this company to provide service from our Hyde Park Station to downtown Boston through utilization of self-propelled Budd units.

At the present time we have nine trains between Hyde Park and South Station, Mondays through Fridays; on Saturdays there are six trains. The Metropolitan Transit Authority provides frequent service between the Hyde Park area and downtown Boston.

During the period September 28, 1953, through September 10, 1954, we experimented with four additional midday trains between Hyde Park and South Station, Mondays through Fridays, utilizing self-propelled Budd units. Although we increased our train service by 43 per cent, utilizing the most modern type equipment available, the increase in travel between Hyde Park and Boston was negligible. After almost one year's experimentation this midday service between Hyde Park and Boston was discontinued as the limited patronage did not produce revenue sufficient to meet the operating expenses.

In view of our recent experiment and the fact we cannot economically transport passengers locally within the city limits of Boston, no further experimentation between Hyde Park and South Station is proposed.

Sincerely,
PATRICK B. McGINNIS.

MONTHLY SYSTEM FOR PAYMENT OF TAXES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 27, 1954.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith a report of the Director of Administrative Services anent your order of December 6 inquiring into the possibility of establishing a system for the monthly payment of taxes.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Administrative Services Department,
December 27, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

In conformity with the order adopted by the City Council under date of December 6, 1954, I have studied "the feasibility of the City of Boston adopting and encouraging a plan for property owners to make monthly payments in anticipation of their real estate tax bill." I submit the following comments on this proposal.

Under the provisions of section 22 of chapter 60 of the General Laws, taxpayers may make partial payments of taxes under the following conditions:

First, that the Collector has received from the Assessors a commitment of the tax.

Second, that the partial payment tendered be not less than 10 per cent of the total tax, but in no event less in amount than $10.

Under existing procedure, the Collector is not in full possession of Assessors' commitments until the middle or end of August. This is so because, after declaring the tax rate on or about the middle of June, the Assessors must first enter and extend the rate on more than 110,000 bills and then complete a series of "manuscripts" arranged by wards in which the tax liability of owners of property in the respective wards are individually listed. The bills and "manuscripts," when prepared, are delivered to the Collector-Treasurer, the bills to be mailed and the books to serve as ledgers wherein payments received are posted against the individual property accounts involved. Until the Collector-Treasurer receives these commitments, he has no knowledge or record of the amounts due from individual taxpayers.

Since all taxes must be paid by November first to avoid delinquency interest charges, there exists under a strict interpretation of the partial payment law a period of not more than three months during which such payments may be accepted by the Collector-Treasurer. Admittedly, this is too short a period to be attractive to taxpayers desiring to spread payments of their tax bill.

It may be claimed that the statutory provisions mentioned do not prohibit acceptance by the Collector-Treasurer of payments in advance of the declaration of the tax rate and that, by so doing, the city will be able to reduce the amount of notes now issued in anticipation of taxes, thus saving a goodly portion of the interest paid on such notes. Such a claim overlooks the accounting problems and expense which would arise. To accept partial payments before receipt of the Assessors' commitment records would necessitate the setting up by the Collector-Treasurer of memorandum accounts and, subsequently, transferring such records to the ledger accounts committed by the Assessors. If any great volume of partial payments should develop, it would undoubtedly be necessary for the Collector-Treasurer to establish a separate division for the handling of such accounts and staff this division with a number of additional employees. Whereas a tax payment under present procedure involves only one accounting entry, each partial payment would involve a separate accounting entity which could not be resolved or discharged until the debit represented by the Assessors' commitment was in the possession of the Collector-Treasurer.

There is another aspect to this proposal which merits consideration. All real estate mortgages carried by banks today contain a requirement that the monthly payments shall include an amount equivalent to one-twelfth of the estimated property taxes. The amounts so received are accumulated by the banks to pay the property taxes when they become due. A substantial portion of the real property taxes now received by the city come from banks holding mortgages on the properties involved. Since this procedure protects the interest of the banks in the mortgaged properties, it is doubtful if the banks would agree to eliminate this charge on the promise or understanding that the mortgagee would make partial payments direct to the city. As long as a large segment of property owners continue to budget tax payments through banks, there would appear to be little need for the city to enter this field.

In view of the foregoing comments, I am of the opinion that under existing conditions it would not be feasible for the city to consider the establishment of a plan whereby property owners would make monthly payments in anticipation of their tax bills.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES J. FOX, Director.

It was agreed that the following extract from the Conference Notes of Nov. 9, 1954, would be included in the record of the meeting:

UNITED DRIVE

Mr. Lee: Mr. Superintendent, could you tell me: Is the drive now in mid-swing?

Superintendent: Well, Mr. Chairman, answering Mr. Lee, the Committee approved a United Drive back about two or three weeks ago, and immediately following the approval of the United Drive, the representative of Mr. O'Connor, the President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, came to my office to set forth what he was going to submit to the Chairman and to the members of the Committee. Do you see? That was within a day or so after the Committee had voted for a United Drive.

The United Drive would exclude the Infantile group, and so I said to Mr. Ohrenberger at the time: "I think that, in fairness to all concerned, we should hold up our circular on the United Drive until after the Committee decides what they want to do in regard to this request."

If the Committee doesn't take any further action, we will proceed with the United Drive and the circular for the United Drive, instead of saying, "This will be the only drive during the year," Mr. Ohrenberger will add in his circular, "This will be the only drive except the one which will be held in January for the Infantile Paralysis Fund."

Mr. Lee: Mr. Superintendent, I thought the United Drive was in full swing.

Superintendent: Yes, Mr. Chairman, it is in full swing, and, after tonight's meeting, this circular will go out from Mr. Ohrenberger's office, and we will have this United collection, and we will allocate the proportion to the Community Fund, and I think that perhaps we will be able to get it allocated even before the close of the Community Fund drive. However, whether we do or not doesn't make too much difference because they will get their share anyway.

Mr. Lee: Cannot you review again the different benevolent organizations which are to receive the children's money?

Superintendent: Yes.

Mr. Ohrenberger, will you read the ones which received the benevolence of the children?

Mr. Ohrenberger: Red Feather, Heart Fund, Cerebral Palsy, Cancer Fund and the Boston Evening Clinic. Are you interested in percentages?

Superintendent: We may have to change the proposed percentages because Mr Carr has suggested this other possibility for it. You can give us the percentages of last year.

Mr. Ohrenberger: Last year's percentages were based on the study made by previous drives. At that time there were two other funds that were receiving an allotment, namely, the Korean Orphans and the March of Dimes. At that time it was split up as follows:

Red Feather, 40 per cent; March of Dimes, 20 per cent; Heart Fund, 12 per cent; Cerebral Palsy, 12 per cent; Korean Orphans, 6 per cent; Cancer Fund, 6 per cent; and all others, 4 per cent.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, since we have been apparently soliciting or receiving contributions in the classrooms, I want to suggest that we leave out any moneys for the Cancer Fund.

Whenever the School Committee goes into business other than its own, it is likely to be on unsure ground. We are not medical men; yet we deal with medical business.

However, I am inclined to think that we do more harm than good by contributing to the Cancer Fund. I have had reason to observe this subject. You don't have to be a horse to know whether one horse can run faster than another. You can sit on the fence and watch them. And you don't have to be a doctor to know which of several medical methods work and which doesn't. You can see the different groups of doctors working along their several tracks, and you can see by the results which one is proceeding well and which is not.

What impresses me is that the research in cancer has gotten nowhere. Many millions have been expended. I don't think the medical profession claims that it has gotten much of anywhere. It has practically made no progress. The fact that it has made no progress or rather, the fact that the medical profession doesn't think it has made any progress is shown by the fury with which they turn upon any doctor who by other methods makes as little progress as they do. They don't object to other doctors failing to find any cure for this malady. They object to other doctors failing by methods different from their own.

They fail by their own methods, and that is perfectly all right. So what happens is that you have tremendous sums of money spent in the direction which is not getting anywhere, and the more money you give the more you confirm the continuance in that futile direction.

We know medical men are peculiar. There was a doctor named Semmelweis about a hundred years ago in Hungary, an idiotic man—laughed at by the medical profession—who had the ridiculous idea that by washing your hands before attending women in childbirth you could prevent the incurrence or the onset of childbed fever. The practice was for the internes to dissect corpses, in the study of medicine, and then wipe their hands on their coats, and come in and deliver children; and a large percentage of the mothers got childbed fever and died. And Semmelweis undertook to wash his hands very sterile, and then delivered children, and none of his mothers died. But the results didn't impress the medical profession at all. He had proceeded by an absurd method of washing his hands, which was obviously too simple a way of avoiding disease. But then Pasteur came along and also asserted the same truths, and now we consider the germ theory a sound one.

The medical profession, having within only a hundred years opposed that theory, now is going all-out on that theory and assumes that cancer, a degenerative disease, is also caused by some bacteria or virus. And they look now with scorn on a person who says it might be caused or might be cured by some other method.

I have watched a few sicentists operate in this field. I know one scientist who had no contact with a particular patient, never saw the patient — it wasn't his patient—and yet he could tell to the hour when that patient had slumps, and dangerous slumps, and when that patient had resurgences of strength.

I knew another scientist who had no relation to the first one—and they probably would have had scorn for each other—who also confirmed the idea that certain forces determined whether patients with that malady declined or showed improvement.

The medical profession has had unquestioned success in a negative way. They have removed and learned how to remove troublesome spots in a patient; and, of course, that is a very wonderful thing; and they are entitled to every credit for it. It has meant life to a great many people. They have, by surgery, done a great deal. But that is something like the father who cut off his little boy's head to stop him from squinting. It stopped the squinting, but it doesn't necessarily show you what made him squint.

They have proceeded in other ways to try to eliminate unhealthy areas in the patient. They have used X-ray therapy and radium therapy, all with a view to destroying tissues that showed up poorly.

But that has all been rather on the negative side, as to the method, even though the results, especially in surgery, have been very effective.

But the facts seem to be somewhat like this—that, while we learn in school or did learn at school that the universe is running down and the sun and the earth are cooling off, and while, I guess, we have evidence—I suppose we do, from the atom bomb—that the sudden change or deterioration of elements can occur very rapidly, and we are now able to tell the age of rocks by how far certain elements have degenerated in the rock, and, by knowing how long this process takes, can determine the age of ancient fossils buried in ancient rock—and while the medical profession is aware of those degenerative forces in the universe, still there also are physicists who are coming up with a recognition of the opposite forces, of the regenerative forces. They are men on the frontiers of science, more or less in the Einstein group; and they think that, besides the degenerative trend in matter, there is also the reverse trend, where probably, out of energy—and I don't attempt to follow their reasoning—but out of energy, matter is created. I believe hydrogen atoms are suspected of being created out of energy, so that you have matter created from that which is not matter.

Anyway, you do have certain regenerative forces in the world, which, to me, are very important; and some scientists, having an eye to this malady we are talking about, think that those regenerative forces can be utilized or harnessed further.

I am not a scientist or a doctor, and I am not trying to name long rays or short rays or Roentgen rays, or whatever the newest kind of rays are, but at least I know there are sun's rays, and I know we feel better on a good sunny day than on an August dog day. We feel better in a brisk autumn morning than an a sultry summer morning. I don't have to be a scientist to know that at least we feel certain vitalizing forces in and around us.

Some of the men whom the medical profession look down upon think that there are these regenerative forces, and that it is the lack of those regenerative forces which cause trouble in the human system. It is the lack of them throughout the body which allows the body to degenerate. If you recapture them, you can do much to mend the disease in the body.

Also, Jesus of Nazareth seemed to know something about regenerative forces, in the world; although he didn't use the modern scientists' jargon.

It is my belief, in short, that the cure for this malady will come by a tie-in with these creative forces which frontier physicists are on the trail of, and which ancient leaders have called to our attention. I think it is that which is going to be the right track.

But if the world keeps giving huge sums to the doctors who are on the other track—and those doctors, naturally, would be made to look foolish if their whole line of research were disproved by some outsider who found an entirely different approach—by giving moneys on and on and on to the regular line of research, you only confirm them in a direction that is getting nowhere, and you steel them to resist any other approach which looks as though it might get somewhere.

The religious people, of course, think the scientists' materialistic methodology is very naive, and the scientists, of course, think that the religious talk about faith is very naive. But, anyway, to me, there is going to be a different approach on that disease, and I don't see why, when we are not conversant with the subject ourselves, we take sides and perpetuate an approach which is very intolerant of any other approach than its own and which hasn't made any progress.

I can again point out that penicillin was only accepted because at the time of the British air raids there were more people in the hospitals than could be treated by regular means, so the doctors said, "We will try this foolish idea of penicillin," and it worked. And now we accept it. But it never would have been tried in times of peace. It would never have gotten a chance.

The last point I make is this, on this whole subject. Even before the time of Isaiah, the Hebrew prophets were saying that the Lord wanted mercy and not sacrifice; and yet the nine-tenths or more of any money you raise for this fund will be spent in animal experimentation. We are back in the old feeling that the more animals you sacrifice to the Lord Jehovah the more He will like us, and the more He will relieve us of our plagues. I don't know whether children, who have a "Be kind to animals" week, as part of their school year, are aware that their money is being used to give diseases to animals. I am not at the moment emphasizing one side or the other there; but, at least, that is where most of the money goes, and I think that is a point that ought to be considered before you ask children to give their money, so they will know where the money is going.

However, I think we will make a much better contribution to this whole subject by forwarding these remarks of mine, if you will, to those interested in the field rather than raising a few more pennies from youngsters to be spent in a direction proved unproductive.

I suggest that we leave out that fund, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman: Do you wish to put that in the form of a motion, Mr. Lee?

Mr. Lee: Yes. I move that we eliminate that Cancer Fund as a beneficiary in the United Drive.

Chairman: The question comes on the motion of Mr. Lee that the Cancer Fund be eliminated from the United Drive.

On roll call, the motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1

NAYS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, and Mr. Musco—3

ABSENT—Mr. Ward—1.

I. INSTRUCTIONS IN THE USE OF DEPARTMENT RADIO.

Accompanying this order, mimeographed pamphlets entitled "Standard Operating Procedure," containing instructions relating to the use of department radios, are being distributed to the department on this date.

The rules governing the operation of Fire Department radio system supersede all previous rules and regulations pertaining to the operation of radio equipment as contained in Department Rule Book, Special and General Orders, Instruction Cards of assignment boxes and Fire Alarm Box Location Books.

Every member of the Firefighting Force will be furnished a copy of these instructions, and they shall read and familiarize themselves with them. Company officers shall interrogate members on these instructions during weekly drills.

These pamphlets shall be given the same care and attention as department rule books and shall not be torn or mutilated.

Reports from chiefs' cars shall originate with the chief officer, and his driver shall communicate such reports to the Fire Alarm Office. This may necessitate the driver leaving the car for a short interval to obtain the necessary information from the chief. It must be remembered that many times a driver may station himself in a position where he can both hear the radio and receive necessary orders from the chief.

An arrival report from the car "On The Air" at the fire, or other emergency, shall be followed as soon as conditions allow with a complete and accurate report in accordance with the foregoing paragraph concerning the fire or emergency. Such report shall include the approximate location, type and occupancy of the building, extent of fire and other pertinent information.

Progress reports indicating changes in fire conditions are expected to follow as soon as conditions warrant. The progress reports to the Fire Alarm Office are required for the purpose of acquainting all concerned with conditions existing at a particular fire or emergency and preventing needless calls to and from Fire Alarm Office.

All radios with the exception of those necessarily "On The Air" at a fire or other emergency shall be shut off by the operator before leaving a mobile unit. Your attention is directed to Rules 18, 22, 23, 24 of the pamphlet "Rules Governing Operation of Department Radios."

II. EMERGENCY CODE SIGNAL.

Company commanders shall insert a Form 5, marking it Q(1), in the Instruction Cards of the assignment boxes, containing the following information and designate as an example of correct procedure, Instruction Card Q. The necessary additions shall also be made in the Fire Alarm Box Location Books of December 1, 1947, issue.

The following emergency code signal is established to report apparatus involved in an accident responding to or returning from an alarm of fire or other emergency when radio or telephone service is not available and a telegrapher is not present: "Apparatus Involved in Accident Signal—9 blows."

The officer in command shall have sent from the nearest fire alarm box the following signal: "A series of about twelve (12) quick taps on the box telegraph key, then pause, followed by nine (9) blows given slowly and distinctly to denote apparatus involved in an accident, then followed by the signal denoting the type of apparatus, the company number and the box number."

The company numbers shall be as given for use in code signal for apparatus out of service as stated on Instruction Card Q or as given on Pages 124 and 125 of the Fire Alarm Box Location Book. (December 1, 1947, edition.)

The Fire Alarm Office will answer by the O.K. signal 2-3 if the message is understood, or by the Repeat Signal 1-2, 1-2, if the message is not understood.

Upon receipt of the message, the Fire Alarm Office shall dispatch another company to the fire, if such action is necessary and shall notify the Police Department, dispatch the department photographer to the scene, notify the district chief and deputy chief regarding the apparatus involved in the accident. The Motor Squad shall likewise be notified and dispatched.

This will prevent long openings of the drawspan at this time for needed repairs which would put the bridge back into first-class working condition. The letter of request approved by the Mayor reads as follows:

CONTRACT FOR EMERGENCY REPAIRS TO WALTER SNOW FIGHTING EQUIPMENT SO AS TO CARE FOR WINTER CONDITIONS HAS BEEN APPROVED BY MAYOR HYNES AT REQUEST OF PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER—CHARLES N. WOOD COMPANY TO DO WORK.

Mayor John B. Hynes has approved the request of the Public Works Commissioner for permission to award a contract, without advertising, to the Charles N. Wood Company for repairs to the Walter snow fighters during the winter months so that the city will be able successfully to care for any snow emergency that might arise. The request sought for and approved by the Mayor reads as follows:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.
BOSTON, January 6, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

GIRLS' LATIN SCHOOL FORCED OUT OF HOME IN FENWAY BY STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION'S TAKING OVER OF PROPERTY — FINANCE COMMISSION SUGGESTS TO MAYOR AND COUNCIL THAT CLOSED DORCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, NOW VACANT, BE TAKEN OVER AS NEW HOME — SCHOOL COMMITTEE HAS THIS ALTERNATIVE AT COST OF $75,000 OR BUILDING A NEW LATIN SCHOOL AT APPROXIMATELY $3,000,000, AN ADDED TAX BURDEN.

The Finance Commission has presented the following to the Honorable the Mayor and City Council:

The City of Boston gave its "Teachers College" to the State of Massachusetts in August 1952. This transfer was accomplished under the authority of chapter 618, Acts of the Legislature of 1952.

The City of Boston was the petitioner for the legislation. The philosophy which inspired this gratuitous act — with which the Finance Commission was in accord — was that Boston should not continue the training of teachers for public school work. For several years a substantial and growing per cent of the teachers trained in "Boston Teachers College" was absorbed in the public education work of other municipalities; furthermore, the State of Massachusetts trained and prepared teachers for public education throughout the state in other teachers colleges.

The "Boston Teachers College" property consists of a group of buildings, one of which contains the very important "Girls' Latin School." As a result of the above-mentioned transfer, the State Department of Education now has ownership and control of this entire group. The enabling act allows the city use of the Latin School building, but with reservations and temporarily. Since the state acquired control, it has already reduced the number of rooms used by the Latin School by 23 per cent — seven out of thirty rooms. This reduction in usable space has proved embarrassing to the Latin School because pupil enrollment in that school has increased 11 per cent.

Loss to City.

Now the entire elimination of Girls' Latin School from the property is imminent. The city is faced with notice by the State Board of Education that the city must give up eight more rooms within six months, which will result in fifteen rooms lost to the Latin School to that time; furthermore, the State Board has served notice that, if predicted increases in Teachers College enrollment materialize, the state will take over the remaining fifteen rooms. In fact, the prospect is that the Latin School will have to vacate the building entirely within three years.

Boston (the School Committee), therefore, is faced with these alternatives. Boston must close out entirely and permanently the Girls' Latin School; or Boston must provide an entirely different building for the school. The first of these alternatives is, to many, unthinkable; the second might cause an unexpected expenditure of over $3,000,000.

The School Committee has suggested as the solution of this dilemma the use of the closed Dorchester High School for Girls as a new Girls' Latin. However, a storm of protest from alumnae of the Latin School and from parents of girls in the present school has halted consummation of that idea. What makes this solution of the difficulty attractive from a financial standpoint is that the maximum cost of it would be no more than $75,000.

FINANCE COMMISSION FAVORS USING CLOSED DORCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL AS NEW HOME FOR GIRLS' LATIN SCHOOL.

Your interest in this matter, since you have no direct control, will undoubtedly stem from your often expressed desire to avoid new expenditure which adds to an already worrisome tax burden. A new $3,000,000 Latin School will increase maintenance and financing costs of the school system.

For a complete understanding of the situation, the Finance Commission offers this chronology of developments:

a) In the acquisition of the Teachers College property, the Commonwealth took over a group of buildings consisting of the "Teachers College," the "Patrick A. Collins Building," which had been jointly used by the college and the Girls' Latin School, the "Girls' Latin Building," and the "Common Building," which contained a gymnasium and lunchroom used by both college and Latin school.

b) During the school year 1952–53, the city continued to use thirty rooms for Latin School purposes, seven in the Collins Building, twenty-three in the Latin Building. For this, by agreement under authority of the enabling act, the city paid $22,935.18, of which approximately $15,000 represented 50 per cent of the operating costs of the buildings and the remainder for ordinary repairs to Girls Latin School.

c) In December, 1953, the State Commissioner of Education notified the Boston School Committee that his department intended to use seven rooms in the Collins Building, beginning September 1, 1954.

d) On September 1, 1954, the state took the seven rooms, leaving twenty-three rooms in the Girls' Latin School for City of Boston use.

e) For the 1953–54 school year, the city paid $30,226.69 for its 50 per cent share of the operating costs and $2,641.35 for repairs to the Latin School.

f) November, 1954, the State Commissioner of Education notified the Boston School Committee that he would have to take an additional eight rooms, beginning June 30, 1955.

THE SITUATION AT THE GIRLS' LATIN SCHOOL.

The following table presents a situation of increasing enrollment and decreasing space at the Latin School:

	1952	1954	Change	Per Cent
Enrollment	1,222	1,356	plus 134	plus 11
Space	30 rooms	23 rooms	minus 7	minus 23

The squeeze on space indicated by the above table has resulted in a compressed and overlapping schedule for the six grades enrolled at Girls' Latin School. This is illustrated by the fact that in Grade 7 some attend from 12.41 to 4 P.M., while others attend from 11.39 A.M. to 3.22 P.M. and in Grades 8 through 12, the hours of attendance are from 8.45 A.M. to 2.03 P.M. This compressed schedule has modified extracurricula activities.

Further reduction in the number of rooms, in accordance with the state department's notice of November, 1954, will so intensify the situation as to constitute a weakening of a sound educational program.

VALUE OF TEACHERS COLLEGE PROPERTY.

BUILDING	Square Feet Area	Cost	Square Feet Area of Building	Original Cost
Girls' Latin			17,382	$253,750 30
Teachers College			18,541	254,553 30
P. A. Collins Building			13,043	166,222 50
Common Building			9,000	128,481 16
Whole area	141,076	$241,290 77		$803,007 26 241,290 77
Total Cost of Land and Buildings				$1,044,298 03

At an estimated $1 per cubic foot, reproduction costs would approximate $3,500,000. Since the state acquired this property, the city has spent over $55,000 in shared operating cost and ordinary repair.

The financial saving visualized by the School Committee in giving up the college can be seen in the cost in the last complete year of city operation. The expenditures in 1951 were as follows:

Instruction: (Including salaries of president, teachers, clerks, supplies)	$265,428 41
Operation of Plant: (Including custodial, fuel, light, windows, telephone)	24,820 96
Health Promotion: (Including school physician)	2,465 98
General Control: (Apportionment of headquarters cost)	12,222 25
Supervision: (Special fields, such as art)	12,744 48
Gross Expenditures	$317,682 08
Minus Income: Tuition	$81,738 59
Other Income	1,379 47
Total	$83,118 06	$83,118 06
Net 1951 Expenditure by City on Teachers College		$234,564 02

ALTERNATIVES.

To make the Dorchester High School for Girl's usable will, as stated above, cost around $75,000. To construct a new building will cost over $3,000,000. It is questionable if the School Committee can make any other use of the Dorchester property. It cost the city (land and building) approximately $500,000 many years ago. Its replacement cost today would be approximately $2,500,000. It is now in sound condition, needing only internal repairs to make it as good as new.

The Dorchester High School has been closed for over a year. When a school building is closed, deterioration proceeds at an alarming rate.

MAYOR APPROVES REPAIRS TO CHARLESTOWN DRAWSPAN.

nection with the operation of the drawspan of the Charlestown Bridge which connects Keany square, City Proper, with City square in Charlestown, and carries the M.T.A. structure over which many thousands of passengers ride daily. The importance of this bridge is obvious, and it is most essential, therefore, that the openings of the drawspan be made as expeditiously as possible so as not to seriously inconvenience the M.T.A. passengers and the motorists.

There have been occasions when a long opening was caused by defective electrical or mechanical failure of the M.T.A. interlock system, which is related to our drawspan operation. We cannot open the draw for the passage of boats unless clearance is given by the M.T.A. drawtender, and until the M.T.A. interlocking system is functioning properly. While the M.T.A. has been responsible for some of the long openings, there have been times when the openings have been delayed, due to the faulty working of the mechanical system which operates the city-controlled drawspan. A comprehensive study and inspection have disclosed that there is a defect in the main superstructure of the drawspan, which might be the reason for the faulty operation of the city-controlled mechanism. The defect involves the truss pins which are located at the top of the central tower structure of the draw. Each truss is connected to the tower by means of a slotted member engaging the tower pin. This slotted member permits raising of the ends of the drawspan, in order to release the supporting blocks and permit swinging the bridge to an "off" position.

An inspection made at the site on Sunday, December 19, by engineers and mechanics of the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., of East Boston, disclosed that the tower pin joints were not functioning uniformly, and that one joint was apparently "frozen." In the opinion of our engineers, the condition of the joint is caused by excessive wear of the pins and the slotted members. Both the slotted members and the pins should be renewed. However, we question if the slotted members could be replaced without putting the bridge out of commission for a considerable length of time. We intend, therefore, to defer a complete overhaul of the truss pins and other members of the tower structure until sometime later this year, when a complete project will be prepared for reconstructing and repairing the entire bridge structure.

In the meantime, we feel that emergency repairs must be made by renewing one tower pin, which we hope will correct the present faulty operation of the draw. Therefore, I have requested a proposal from the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., to renew the pin and effect other minor related repairs. The proposal submitted by the above-referenced contractor—who, in my opinion, is the best qualified contractor in this area to do the repair work—states that said contractor will furnish all necessary labor, staging, materials, and equipment; and complete all necessary work to renew the pin, inspect and report on the condition of the slotted members without dismantling the joint, and effect minor repairs to the slotted member, if at all possible; all work to be done on a force account basis, at a total cost not to exceed $1,500. As this work is of an emergency nature and is to be done on a force account basis, no advantage would accrue to the city by publicly advertising for proposals.

I therefore respectfully request your approval to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the General Ship and Engine Works, Inc., of East Boston, in an amount not to exceed $1,500, for effecting repairs to the central tower structure, in accordance with the provisions of the proposal submitted by said contractor and described above. It is to be understood that the work is to be done on a force account basis, at rates for labor, materials, and equipment to be agreed upon by the contractor and the undersigned.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MAYOR APPROVES CONTRACT FOR REPAIRING SNOW REMOVAL EQUIPMENT.

fighters during the winter months on snow plowing, sanding, and salting work. It is absolutely essential to have these units in good operating condition at all times, due to the emergency nature of the work on which they are engaged. It is most difficult—if not impossible—for the department mechanics to keep these units in A-1 condition during the winter months because of the many other units that the mechanics are required to repair.

Therefore, I feel that it is essential to award a contract to a qualified repair shop to effect whatever repairs are necessary during the remainder of the winter months on these units, in cases where the repairs cannot be done expeditiously by our department mechanics. The only company qualified to repair these Walter snow fighters in this area is the Charles N. Wood Company, which has done similar repairs in the past in a very satisfactory manner. The Wood Company is the only authorized dealer of Walter trucks in this area, and it would be most impractical, in my opinion, to attempt to publicly advertise for proposals for this repair work.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authorization to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the Charles N. Wood Company, in an amount not to exceed $10,000, for effecting whatever repairs are necessary to the Walter snow fighters during the current year, with the understanding that the work will be authorized and assigned by Acting Division Engineer James H. Stewart of the Automotive Division; and with the further understanding that the city makes no commitment as to the volume of work to be sent to the Wood Company.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

BOSTON, January 4, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department is in receipt of requisitions from the Welfare Department for various forms for immediate use. Informal written quotations were solicited from several companies. Six bids were received.

Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the lowest bidder and last supplier, Uarco, Inc. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,723.15, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 27, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Under date of November 15, 1954, your Honor approved a letter regarding the obtaining of a Gradall stump remover in connection with the removal of dangerous trees in all sections of the city. The expiration for the rental of this stump remover will be January 7, 1955.

Because of the emergency still existing with regard to the pulling out of stumps of large trees from public sidewalks and other public areas in the city, we find ourselves in a position where we are required to continue the rental of the stump remover. In order to keep up with the emergency that still exists, we will require the services of the stump remover for a period of 10 weeks beginning January 10, 1955.

The contractor from whom we are now renting the stump remover is M. Solimando, 584 Columbia road, Dorchester, Mass.

So that this necessary work will not stop, we request your authorization to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and enter into a contract with M. Solimando, 584 Columbia road, Dorchester, Mass., for furnishing one Gradall stump remover for a period of 10 weeks starting January 10, 1955, for a sum not to exceed $7,200.

As before, this piece of equipment will be used nine hours a day, five days a week. There will be no overtime work. The contract will be charged to the special appropriation "Hurricane Emergency," 6-52-51. The rate for the use of stump remover is $16 an hour.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, January 5, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

This department has under its control the East Boston Stadium and Athletic Center. This is one of the finest recreation areas in the entire city. With the equipment and the facilities that have been provided at this location, it is becoming very popular and is used by a considerable number of residents of the East Boston district, both adults and children.

I feel that the city can receive income by setting aside a section in the stadium for a concession area where candy, tonic, ice cream, food, etc., can be sold. I have received an offer for rental of this concession from Mrs. Anna H. Consilvio of 26 St. Andrew road, East Boston. She has offered to pay the sum of $250 per year for the privilege. It is hard to estimate just how valuable this concession might be and in view of the fact that Mrs. Consilvio will be required to purchase much equipment in order to operate the concession, I believe we should give her a three-year privilege.

Accordingly, I am requesting that we be allowed to dispense with public advertising for bids and to award the concession for the sale of refreshments at the East Boston Stadium to Mrs. Anna H. Consilvio for a three-year period, at a rental of $250 per year, commencing January 1, 1955.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 2, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is requested to award the contract, without advertising, to Charles A. Maguire & Associates, engineers, for complete plans and specifications for the lighting system of the off-street parking facility under the Fitzgerald Expressway, to extend from Traverse street to North street. The estimated cost of the work should not exceed $1,500.

Charles A. Maguire & Associates are the engineers who planned the entire electrical system for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the Fitzgerald Expressway, and because of their experience in this project, it is deemed advisable that the same engineering firm analyze our electrical problem and create our plans and specifications.

In my opinion no advantage would be gained by the City of Boston in publicly advertising the work.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property.

BOSTON, December 30, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to award the contract, without public advertising, to J. J. Grace & Son, Inc., a Massachusetts Corporation, for the installation of conduit runs and boxes, as per plans and specifications drawn by Charles A. Maguire & Associates for this department, including all painting and welding, for the lump sum of $20,202.

This work is to be done at the proposed off-street parking area under the Fitzgerald Expressway, extending from Traverse street to North street.

The work is to commence immediately and to proceed, weather permitting, until completed.

The work to be done will be supervised by the inspectors of the State Public Works Department and the Electrical Engineering Department of the Boston Edison Company.

Since the plans and specifications drawn by Charles A. Maguire & Associates were only completed and approved by our engineer, the Boston Edison Engineering Department and the Engineering Department of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on December 28, 1954, and since time is of the essence, and work must commence at once, we feel that no advantage could be gained by the City of Boston in publicly advertising the work; since the lump sum price for the completed contract is reasonable and in keeping with our original estimate of cost.

The cost of installing the complete electrical system would have been substantially higher but for the fact that after negotiations with the Boston Edison Company, the Boston Edison Company has agreed to supply the luminaires, risers, time switches and complete wiring. Our contract is for an empty conduit system, as shown on our plans.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, January 3, 1955.

First meeting of the City Council for the year 1955 held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 11 A.M., Councillor Hurley, senior member, presiding, and all the members present.

The Reverend Frederick R. Condon of St. Theresa's Church, West Roxbury, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. FREDERICK R. CONDON.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O Almighty God, Creator and Ruler of the universe, the Author and Source of all law, we beg Thy choice blessings for every day of the New Year for these, Thy servants, to whom Thou hast entrusted the temporal care of Thy people of this great city. Grant to them the grace of courage and wisdom that they may not fail in their great responsibility to Thee and to the electorate. With impunity may these men carry on the charge entrusted to them as they face the future with the pure ideals that were theirs when they sought the confidence of Thy people. Let not the inducements of this life—the obstacles of friendship and difference of opinion—cause them to forget Thee, O God, the Author of life, happiness, and peace of soul and mind. Rather, grant them the virtue of fortitude to have the courage of their convictions; the virtue of justice to render what is right to all people, being indifferent to the murmurings of the few; the virtue of prudence to act always in the true interest of the common good.

This we ask and beseech Thee, through the wisdom of God, the Father, through the example and leadership of Jesus Christ, the Son and Good Shepherd, and through the Holy Ghost, the Author of all graces.

Through the efforts, singly and combined, of his Honor the Mayor and the members of the City Council, God grant prosperity, happiness, and advancement to the City of Boston during the year of our Lord, 1955.

I will ask you to join with me in reciting prayers for the repose of the soul of John J. White who was buried this morning.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with Thee Blessed are Thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of Thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Chairman HURLEY—Members of the City Council, invited and honored guests, I am pleased to present his Honor, Mayor John B. Hynes, who will now deliver his annual address. Mayor Hynes.

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF HON. JOHN B. HYNES, MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Mayor HYNES—Chairman Hurley, Father Condon, gentlemen of the City Council, and invited guests.

Gentlemen:

Another year in the long history of our city has passed into the shadows of time. However posterity may judge our efforts and our accomplishments during the year 1954, I believe it must be recorded that we have, according to our lights and within our capabilities, performed our duties, and accepted our responsibilities in keeping with the faith reposed in us by our fellow citizens.

This New Year we have entered will not be without its problems, for government on any level is never static. New problems constantly arise to confront us; old, deep-rooted problems, which have no quick or easy solution, remain to extend us to the fullest if answers to those problems are to be reached. I am sure we will meet those problems head on, with a spirit of determination at least as great as that which characterized our efforts during the past year.

Today, we begin to write the first pages in the book of our city government for the year 1955. Because of the paucity of materials at hand, and because of circumstances beyond our control, we cannot, try though we may, make each chapter in that book invigorating and refreshing. If, however, by our joint efforts, and within our prescribed powers, we can make brighter and more encouraging those chapters in the book of 1955 which, heretofore, have been dull and dismal reading, we shall have done our duty well.

In this annual message, let me first discuss those difficult and challenging factors which have defied our best efforts in the past; and then let me discuss those encouraging factors which give us reason to look to the future with confidence.

That part of our picture which is not so bright is now, as it has been for some years, an abnormally high tax rate. This is the result of a combination of circumstances so ingrained and longstanding that only by extraordinary measures or remedies can they be corrected.

These circumstances include archaic valuation and assessment practices which stem from the necessity of maintaining the giant structure of the city government on an ever-narrowing tax base. The burden of sustaining that tax base rests, with varying weight, upon the shoulders of those who own real estate in our city. A thorough, city-wide equalization of real property values should be made, but should be held in abeyance until such time as a new source of income is available to the city. To do otherwise would merely shift the present heavy tax burden to those least able to assume it.

A complete, scientific revaluation and equalization of property values would serve the further objective of reducing to the vanishing point the annoyances, the aggravations, and all the other disturbing, time-consuming, temper-fraying incidents which have become part and parcel of the present outmoded system of placing valuations on taxable properties. Unless our assessing system, which has been chaotic for a period of 30 years, or more, is revised from the ground up, the flow of petitions for tax abatements will increase rather than lessen. To install a new system of assessing procedures will require the cooperation of your Body. I hope I can rely on such cooperation.

The loss of taxable valuations has reached alarming proportions. Extensive public improvements, the expansion of educational, charitable, or religious real estate holdings, together with a relatively small amount of new taxable construction, has narrowed the already narrow tax potential to the point where one third of all properties in our city are tax exempt. Lest this statement be misunderstood, let me emphatically declare that Boston is pleased, rather than displeased, at the growth of religious, educational, or charitable institutions, and pleased, also, at the extent of public improvements in our city. The shrinking tax base is not because of tax-exempt holdings. It is because there has not been, in our city, in recent years, enough new taxable construction to compensate for the amount of tax-exempt construction. As long as this situation continues, and no new income source is available, we shall continue to have a tax rate which is a barrier to progress, and a deterrent to new business or industrial construction, now the main source of income to our city.

If the answer to our high tax rate, and all that flows from it, were a sizable, sensible reduction in municipal expenditures, it would be our bounden duty to effect those economies. But the answer to our high tax rate is not that simple. To arrive at a tax rate of $50 or $55 per 1,000 rather than the present rate of $69.80 would mean reducing city expenses by over $20,000,000. Obviously, any such reduction would, of necessity, involve hardship to employees, and deep slashes in the amounts provided for health and hospital services, for fire and police protection, and for other essential and vital municipal services. Clearly, the answer to our financial problem is not in arbitrary, unwise, or forced economies. This does not mean, however, that we should not continue to seek out greater economies in municipal operations wherever those economies can reasonably and sensibly be made, but we know, as a practical matter, that the eventual answer to our tax rate enigma is either a broadening of the tax base, or the inclusion of Boston in a metropolitan form of government. This latter possibility, though on the way, is still remote. It would appear, therefore, that a broadening of our tax base, with a resultant decrease in the tax rate, is the quickest medium through which Boston can share in the growth and progress of a growing and progressive community and nation.

Other factors which cause flickering shadows to cross the pages of 1955 are the upward turn in disbursements for general welfare relief, and relief to veterans. From present indications, medical care grants to welfare recipients, which include payments to apothecaries, doctors, and nursing homes, will be $700,000 greater in 1955 than in 1954. This increase is by legislative edict over which we have no control. The number of cases on general relief has risen from 3,400 to 3,800 which will mean an increase of about $300,000 in the appropriations for this year. In the Veterans' Services Department, $80,000 additional must be provided in 1955 to meet a 6½ per cent increase in family budgets ordered by the State Department of Veterans' Services. An additional $20,000 must also be provided in this department for an increase in the number of recipients. On the whole, the appropriations for general welfare relief and for veterans' relief in 1955 will exceed those of 1954 by $1,100,000. The obligation of our city to provide this type of relief is a primary one. We must and we shall meet it. Only by an upward turn in the economic cycle can we hope for any betterment in the present relief picture.

The contributions we must provide in 1955 for noncontributory pensions will be about $4,250,000, or $600,000 in excess of the amount provided in 1954 for the same purpose. This large increase for this type of expenditure would be most disturbing were it not for the fact that the work of the retired employees, in many cases, can be spread among other employees, thus saving a considerable amount in the personnel appropriations for positions left unfilled.

The condition of the over-all city plant is a cause for concern. In an effort to keep maintenance appropriations at a minimum, insufficient money has been provided over recent years for major and semimajor plant repairs. We have now reached the stage when substantial sums must he made available for such repairs. In order that these sums may he provided without a resounding impact upon the tax rate of this year or next year, we are asking the Legislature to permit the city to borrow for this purpose. I am hopeful that your Body will give this proposed legislation unanimous support.

Akin to this problem is the necessity of replacing worn-out equipment in almost every city department with new and modern equipment. Old equipment is expensive to maintain and operate, but its replacement cost is far too great to include in the budget of any one year. For this reason, and for the reason, too, that we intend to invest in considerably more street cleaning and snow fighting equipment, and other heavy equipment which we now utilize on a rental basis, I shall present to your Body during the present year a loan appropriation for equipment of various kinds for various city departments.

What to do with our refuse and garbage is an ever-pressing problem. It might well be termed our No. 1 housekeeping headache. We must begin, without further delay, to construct incinerators to take the place of open land dumps, which are fast disappearing. The construction of several well placed, modern incinerators in our city is of compelling necessity. On this point, there can be no doubt. Deferring such construction until sites are found which will engender no opposition whatsoever will mean that construction would never begin. There will always be some objectors to an incinerator on any site, even though it is admitted that a modern type, attractively built incinerator is relatively smokeless, completely odorless, and in no sense a nuisance as compared with land dumps.

The designation and approval of sites for incinerators is our public responsibility as officials of this city government. I am sure that once we have given approval to a site and an incinerator is constructed and put into operation, whatever opposition there might have heen to that incinerator will completely disappear. This has heen the experience of other cities and I believe it will be the experience in our city. And now may I turn to matters of brighter hue.

The construction of the new central artery is proceeding rapidly. Already that section coming from the north to the mouth of the Sumner Tunnel is completed. Already its advantages are apparent. It is now possible to travel one mile over the central artery in two minutes, as compared to the fifteen to forty minutes it formerly took to traverse the same distance over our traffic-clogged streets. When the central artery is fully completed, it will tremendously accelerate traffic movement in and out of our city and should, we are extremely hopeful, encourage building improvements and new construction along and in the vicinity of its route.

Undoubtedly, easy and quick access to the heart of downtown Boston will increase the demand for parking facilities, and these facilities must be provided if we are to take full advantage of new and long-planned traffic improvements in our city. The municipal government has the primary duty of providing additional parking facilities. We welcome, however, and will encourage private enterprise to join with the city government in an effort to create some 10,000 or 12,000 new off-street parking spaces estimated to be needed in the downtown area. The city government has already embarked on an ambitious program which aims for the construction of about 5,000 spaces for off-street parking and these spaces should be available during the next year and a half. The city has no desire, however, to monopolize the parking business in our city. It would he pleasing to us if private enterprise would show greater interest and a more adventurous spirit in a business which promises to be a lucrative one for many years to come.

I am happy to again commend the Boston City Council for the affirmative action taken in the matter of slum clearance for urban redevelopment in that part of our city commonly referred to as the New York Streets Area.

Ideally situated for the establishment of plants for light industry and manufacturing, I am confident that your approval of this, our first venture into urban redevelopment, will turn out to be the turning point in the physical life of our city.

Cities grow old. Blight and decay, hardly discernible at first, can eat away a section of our city and travel at a rapid pace, unless we take heroic measures to stem the tide. Boston is an old city. A casual walk on the fringes of the downtown area is proof positive that age is taking its toll of once attractive and prosperous areas. Through the interest and activity of local rehabilitation committees, working in harmony with city officials, we have begun to stay the dead hand of decay in some sections of our city. A new law makes it possible, for the first time, to stimulate and accelerate our efforts by broadly defining slum clearance, rehabilitation, or conservation, or any combination of these, to be within the terms of the Federal Renewal Act. However, where there are entire sections of a city not redeemable or salvageable, the only possible and only realistic means of renewing those sections is through the medium of clearance and redevelopment on a large scale.

Therefore, and in short, three methods are open to us to improve the physical appearance of our city; by local rehabilitation activities, by taking advantage of the new Federal Renewal law, and by urban redevelopment on a major scale. Moving forward in these three directions will make Boston a better place to live in, to work in, and in which to do business. During the course of the year, I shall request your whole-hearted support in this three-pronged endeavor to improve our city.

The program of the President of the United States for nation-wide improvements to our highway system is still in the preliminary stage. This is a long-range program calling for the expenditure of $50,000,000,000, $3,000,000,000 of which will be devoted to urban improvements. We have already made known what Boston would like to receive under such a program. Our tentative plan calls for appropriations from the Federal Government of about $150,000,000, the major portion of which would be for the dismantling of the M.T.A. elevated structure and the substitution of a subway therefor. We have no present means of knowing if we will receive approval of all or any part of our program, but I am sure you will agree with me that if $50,000,000,000 is to be spent for highway improvements in the United States our request is a very modest one.

As you are aware, the Boston & Albany Railroad Company is going to move its yards from Exeter street and Huntington avenue. This will leave a 28-acre site in a very desirable section of our city for development. Pending in a committee of the Legislature is a proposal which will make possible the development of this site in such a manner that short-range and long-range benefits will accrue to our city. It would be the shame of our generation, in my opinion, if this large site were cut up into minuscule portions to be used for a variety of purposes, none of which nor all of which together, would improve the general area of the Back Bay and the city itself. A modern development of this site would have much to do with reversing the trend of decentralized shopping. It would revitalize a neighborhood which needs to be exhilarated. It would bring into our city government more taxes than we have ever received from the railroad company. Like all progressive moves, there is opposition to any plan which gives protection to those who are willing to risk many millions of dollars in a venture of this sort. In my judgment, this opposition is shortsighted, for anything which benefits our city in one particular section or in one particular way will also benefit the whole city. I respectfully appeal to the members of the City Council and all my fellow citizens to give support to the legislative proposal when the hearings on it are held early this year. If ever Boston had a chance to turn the corner and look down the broad highway of a better future, this is that opportunity.

Another possibility which can result in a more prosperous and progressive city is the organization of a world trade center in our city. Boston has one of the finest ports in the world. It is redundant for me to state that it is not being used to its full advantage. For years, sporadic efforts have been made to revive the port, but only recently have the kind of improvements been completed which make it possible for Boston to compete with other eastern ports. There is, currently, intense interest in the creation of a new organization, called the World Trade Center, which will bring together every interested group in the city to pledge and to lend concerted support to the rebuilding of the business of our port.

Boston, nearer to North European ports, nearer to South American ports than some of our rival cities, is in good position to go after business, to get business, and to revivify our port. The city of New Orleans has benefited in myriad ways from the World Trade Center which it organized some 10 years ago. The new business which has come to New Orleans has spread prosperity throughout every segment of the population of that city. We can do the same in Boston. I look forward to the early organization of the World Trade Center and the contributions it can make to the general prosperity of our city and the whole community in the years to come.

The sale of homes built by the City of Boston for veterans of World War II is taking place as required by law. To date, we have sold 200 houses to veteran purchasers. Seventy-one dwellings are now in the process of being sold. During 1955, we shall sell the balance of the 504 single or double houses, and we shall also proceed to the sale of the five multiple-dwelling projects which have a total of 315 units.

The average cost of the construction of the houses which have been sold was $22,000, as against an average selling price of $15,000. The houses sold have now been placed on the tax rolls and will, hereafter, be assessable as any other residence in the city. This year, the houses which have been sold will represent $1,148,000 in taxable valuations.

The reorganization of city departments, and the general streamlining of the city government, has begun to bear fruit. New methods of operation can now be instituted and economies can now be made which were impossible before the reorganization. Fewer employees are now on the payrolls of the city and their number will further decrease as deaths and retirements take place. The internal reorganization of the Fire Department, which we are content will result in better and more efficient operation, will mean savings of approximately $500,000 yearly. This is an example of what can be accomplished by reorganization and by instituting efficient management procedures.

The new Department of Administrative Services is proving to be the heart and core of the whole reorganization plan. Through the authority reposed in this department, more efficient practices are being adopted in various city departments. I am immensely pleased, and I know you are, that this new department, under the able direction of Charles J. Fox, is meeting with our expectations and has come to be the generating force, the guiding hand that inspires and leads our various departments to better and more economical management.

The City Hospital, which now and again is a target for criticism, is making rapid strides in the field of improved hospital service. The improvements already instituted and in operation, and those contemplated, are so numerous that they must await a later date for recounting. Merely let me state, at this time, that there is no city hospital in our country which is better staffed or better equipped to give the very best of care to its patients than the Boston City Hospital. The reorganization has brought under one head the Main Hospital, the Boston Sanatorium, and the Long Island Hospital. Within a short time, and under the most energetic supervision of the new superintendent, Dr. John F. Conlin, I am quite certain that our hospital services and facilities will be acclaimed, by every recognized expert, as equal to or better than any other in our country.

The gross funded debt situation in our city continues to improve. This is not accidental. It has been done in order that the credit of our municipality might be sound, and in order that we might go into the financial market on even terms with other borrowers. In the year just passed, our gross funded debt has been reduced by $2,000,000. Over the past five years this debt has been lowered by $12,000,000. This is an accomplishment which strengthens our financial structure.

For many years the increase in deficits of the M.T.A. has been a very burdensome factor in our tax rate. This year, on the basis of figures for the first 11 months of 1954, it would appear that that part of the deficit which must be borne by the City of Boston will be $1,000,000 less than last year. Although this decrease in the M.T.A. deficit has been made possible by an increase in passenger fares, nevertheless it is a welcome relief from the pattern of recent years. However, despite this reduction in the M.T.A. deficit, the charges assessed on Boston for this mass transportation facility will represent, this year, approximately $4 on the tax rate.

On an occasion such as this there is a temptation to discuss every city activity. I shall not do so although I must make passing and brief mention of our new Division of Complaints which is meeting, very capably, a very obvious need and which I recommend to you, gentlemen, as a referral agency on matters which come to your attention and which require follow-up and report.

Let me conclude this talk by expressing my appreciation of your continued devotion to the task which confronts you, both as individuals and collectively. Your position in the city government is not exactly an enviable one. Your authority and your power, under the City Charter, is limited, and yet you are expected on many sides to do things which are beyond your jurisdiction. Whether your power and your authority should be broadened and extended is not for me to pass upon. I do hope, however, and confidently, that in those fields where you have sole jurisdiction, or concurrent jurisdiction with me, that we may see eye to eye, and work hand in hand. In doing so, we keep faith with our fellow citizens; we contribute toward a better City of Boston of the future.

In my judgment our city has made gratifying progress during the past 12 months. Our goal must be to continue that progress in the months ahead.

(Applause.)

Chairman HURLEY—Thank you, Mr. Mayor, for a very fine address. The Chair now appoints Councillors McLaughlin and Piemonte to escort his Honor from the chamber. There will now be a short recess until the return of the councillors escorting the Mayor. (Short recess.)

LOAN OF $75,000,000 IN ANTICIPATION OF REVENUE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 3, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the City Auditor. In accordance with the recommendation contained therein I submit herewith an order authorizing the issuance during 1955 of temporary notes in anticipation of revenue to an amount not exceeding $75,000,000. I respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditing Department, December 28, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

It is customary to submit to the City Council at its first meeting in the New Year an order authorizing the issuance as needed during the year of temporary loans in anticipation of revenue receipts. This method of financing is made necessary by the fact that under the Massachusetts municipal tax calendar the major portion of the city's revenue receipts is received late in the year.

By authority of section 4 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, the city could issue in 1955 in anticipation of revenue receipts temporary loans which would not exceed in the aggregate the total tax levy of the fiscal year 1954 together with the corporation and income tax received from the Commonwealth during the financial year 1954. This would total approximately $120,000,000. In my opinion, it is desirable that an authorization of $75,000,000 be made in order to cover requirements as they now appear for the financial year 1955. In 1954 an authorization of $75,000,000 was made and it was necessary to issue during the year temporary notes to the amount of $50,000,000. It is estimated, however, that in the current year actual cash requirements should be approximately the same as those for 1954.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that an order in the amount previously stated be submitted to the City Council for consideration and adoption.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH P. LALLY,
City Auditor.

Ordered, That to provide temporarily money to meet the appropriations for the financial year 1955, the Collector-Treasurer be, and hereby is, authorized to issue and sell, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston not exceeding $75,000,000 in the total, in anticipation of the revenue of the financial year; that all such notes or certificates of indebtedness be made payable with the interest thereon within one year of their date and bear interest from their date until the same are made payable at such rate as the Collector-Treasurer and the Mayor many determine. The said Collector-Treasurer is hereby further authorized to renew or refund any such notes issued for a shorter period than one year, under the provisions of section 17 of chapter 44 of the General Laws.

On motion of Councillor Ahearn, the rules were suspended and the order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 9. The order was assigned to the next meeting for final action.

II. RETIREMENTS.

The following retirements, in accordance with section 13 of chapter 521 of the Acts of 1922, which became effective at 8 A.M., January 1, 1955, are hereby announced:

Hoseman Arthur E. Doyle, Engine Squad Company 53.

Aide McQuaide was appointed to the department June 21, 1918. Ladderman Doherty was appointed January 5, 1917. Hoseman Culhane was appointed December 23, 1929, and Hoseman Doyle was appointed December 22, 1933.

All the foregoing members leave the department with the best wishes of their associates.

III. ASSIGNMENT AS CAPTAIN-DRILLMASTER.

The following assignment, which became effective at 8 A.M., January 5, 1955, is hereby announced:

IV. LIAISON OFFICER TO PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN.

District Chief Henry M. Wheeler of District 5 has been designated as liaison officer between the department and Reverend John E. Barelay, Protestant chaplain.

V. COMMENDATIONS.

All officers and men of the department who responded to fire at Box 2233, at 11.06 P.M., December 25, 1954, and particularly members of Engine Company 13, Engine Squad Company 14, and Ladder Company 4 are hereby commended for their efficient team work which was responsible for averting loss of life. This action reflects great credit on these members and also on the department.

Lieut. Richard A. Kemp of Engine Squad Company 14 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 3144, two alarms, December 26, 1954, while off duty.

VI. HIGH COMMENDATION.

At 5.44 P.M., December 27, 1954, the department responded to an alarm from Box 2235 for a fire in a three-family dwelling house at 3 Gay street, Roxbury. Upon arrival of Ladder Company 4, they were informed that there was a man trapped in the kitchen in the rear of the first floor.

Ladderman Joseph F. Hoar entered the building through the front door and crawled along the hallway which was about 20 feet long. This entry was filled with smoke and heat to the extent that the wallpaper on both sides was blistered, and the heat had extended to blister the paint on the entrance door. Ladderman Hoar made his way along the hallway, past a room on his right which was involved in fire, and continued crawling into the kitchen, into which fire had extended.

Due to the intense heat and smoke and fire to the right of the kitchen, he could not immediately locate the man and called to him to cry out to indicate where he was in the room. The man was conscious to the extent that he moaned, and Ladderman Hoar crawled over to the extreme right corner of the room, found the man and dragged him across the floor to the hallway, where he was assisted by members of Ladder Company 12 in removing the man to the street and taking him to the Boston City Hospital in a police ambulance.

This rescue was performed without the use of a mask or other respiratory equipment, and in carrying out this act, Ladderman Hoar received first-degree burns of the right wrist and second-degree burns on both knees, for which he later received treatment at the Boston City Hospital.

Because Ladderman Hoar performed this rescue under difficult conditions and at extreme personal risk, and by his prompt action saved the man's life, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend him highly, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

By order of Fire Commissioner FRANCIS X. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

ALLOCATION OF FUNDS FOR SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The following communication was presented:

City of Boston — Department of School Buildings, 26 Norman St.

November 17, 1954.

Miss Agnes E. Reynolds,
Secretary, Boston School Committee,
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Miss Reynolds:—

Under date of November 9, 1954 you forwarded the following proposed appropriation order to the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings:—

It was agreed that the following extract from the Conference

Notes of Nov. 29, 1954, would be included in the record of the meeting:

TENURE OF TEACHERS

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, I have given a lot of thought to this matter of tenure of teachers and to questions that were raised at the table here the other week, and also to at least one letter which I received from one of the teachers' groups.

I am somewhat inclined to think that a simpler amendment in place of the one which the Corporation Counsel had drawn up for us and which we had before us last week should be made. A simpler amendment would be one that merely restored to Section 41 of Chapter 71 the words "except in Boston," so that the present Section 41 of Chapter 71 would still apply to other cities and towns.

It didn't seem wise to me to advocate a change of legislation which might affect other cities and towns in ways that I ,or possibly the other members, don't anticipate, merely because we want to make things work better in our own system.

Therefore, I propose that we take Section 41 of Chapter 71 as it is and merely insert the words that always used to be there, to wit, "except in Boston," and I think that is the proper form of the amendment.

As you know, my aim in this is to try to give more security to teachers. While we want every latitude to pick and choose, and freedom of opportunity and freedom of the market, we don't want to arbitrarily throw anyone out of work whose merits are very satisfactory to us, and who, in turn, would like to have our salaries: and my effort, of course—in which I hope you join—is to make the tenure of the unappointed teacher more secure, and by no means allow her to be arbitrarily discontinued or dismissed from employment every fourth year.

As it is now, under fear of having to make such a teacher a teacher for life, when she has taught three consecutive years, we tell her to stay away from school-teaching with us for her fourth year: and that gets around the obligation the legislature imposed of giving her a life appointment the day we give her a fourth year.

So we, by excepting Boston and restoring the words "except in Boston" to the present Act, can then give a much more secure tenure to teachers who have taught with us at least three consecutive years and they could then teach with us a fourth year.

But, Mr. Chairman and Miss Fitzgerald, I would like to make it very clear to you and reassure myself, too, that excepting Boston from the Act would in no way retard the permanent appointment of a teacher and would in no way weaken the status of a permanently appointed teacher —that is, weaken the tenure or security in her position of a permanently appointed teacher. I want to be sure that, while we help to a more secure tenure the teacher who is not permanently appointed, we don't in any way weaken, injure, or retard a teacher who is on her way to a permanent appointment or who has achieved a permanent appointment.

I wonder if you could tell me, Mr. Superintendent, whether we made any change in the promptness or in the eagerness with which we hire teachers for permanent positions, after the 1947 amendment came in — in other words, when this Section 41 first began to apply to Boston? Did that make us change our pace in any way by a week, an hour, or a minute in appointing teachers sooner or appointing teachers whom otherwise we would have not appointed?

Superintendent: Mr. Chairman and Mr. Lee, I would say No. We have a prescribed regulation for appointments. It is on a number basis—35 pupils for a teaching appointment—in the elementary grades and on a pupil-hour basis in the high schools, and, as far as appointments are concerned, I would say that it didn't speed them up or it didn't slow them down.

The criterion now or the standards for appointment, Mr. Chairman and Mr. Lee, are simply based on numbers required in the school and that is provided for in the budget; and, of course, if a teacher retires during a year, there is a vacancy, and that teacher's salary is provided for in the budget, and the person who is eligible, No. 1 on the list, corresponding to the position that teacher left, is appointed. and usually at the next meeting.

So, in answer to your question, I would say: It hasn't had any influence on the speeding up of permanent appointments, nor has it had any influence in retarding them.

Mr. Lee: So, Mr. Superintendent, you might say, by the same token, that, if the law were changed to no longer apply to us, again it would not modify the speed or promptness with which we make appointments?

Superintendent: I can't see, Mr. Chairman and Mr. Lee, where it would influence a permanent appointment one way or another.

Mr. Lee: And then, Mr. Superintendent, on that part of what I think is sometimes called the "tenure law" or the body of law that safeguards the rights of teachers—on that part which provides that teachers shall not be arbitrarily discontinued from service and provides that, if we think a teacher is not worthy to teach, we specify wherein she fails and we give her a hearing to present counter-evidence, and we must be on very solid grounds before no longer retaining her—all those safeguards given the teacher in our statutes are not affected one way or the other by this law. This law simply has to do with when a teacher enters upon the status of permanency and it has nothing to do with the security of that status. That is still safeguarded, the same as it always was.

Superintendent: That is true.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, I hold in my hand a working sheet from Mr. Bond, in charge of apportioning teachers to our schools, and, as you can see, down in the left-hand margin there are some 50 school districts, and in the next column are vacancies — that means teacher vacancies — and those vacancies are arrived at by taking the number of children in that particular school district at the September 30th census and dividing that total number of pupils by the number 35—because we plan for 35 children to a teacher, and then the quotient when you divide 35 into the number of pupils gives you the number of teachers we think we ought to have.

Superintendent: In a district.

Mr. Lee: In a district. And that is how we arrive at and determine the number of permanently appointed teachers we think we ought to have in a district, and, when we arrive at that number, we then count the permanently appointed teachers who are in that district.

We may find there is an excess or we may find there is a deficiency.

Superintendent: That's right.

Mr. Lee: And so the third column lists the excesses. I should have said the column I was just talking about shows the vacancies, the shortages, of permanently appointed teachers measured by the number of positions for permanent teachers which the pupil ratio shows. Then we come to the column that shows excesses.

Notice that when they get through doing that with all the schools, they add up all the excess teachers which are found to be scattered through different buildings — perhaps because the pupil numbers have fallen off or for some reason like that. They add up, on the other hand, all the school districts in which there are not as many permanently appointed teachers as the pupil ratio would call for, and then they find there is a need for so many appointments to fill the vacancies. That is, they subtract the excess teachers from the vacancies to find the net number of vacancies, and that is the number that is appointed.

Superintendent: On a City-wide basis.

Mr. Lee: On a City-wide basis. So that goes on whether this law, which I think should be amended, exists or not. The law perhaps is like a topcoat. It may have been a beneficial law to someone who had no coat at all—some school system in other parts of the Commonwealth that had no merit list or rated lists or selection policy—but for us who are muffled up to our ears in a very careful merit system, to take off our overcoat and put on this topcoat was a chilling procedure.

And so, as you see, Mr. Chairman, I think it is very important that we clean our hands of the hardships that have been wrought in the last few years by dismissing over a hundred teachers every fourth year of their service, and try to get this legislation away from Boston by inserting the words "except in Boston." I think the particular consideration is that we have about 45 teachers who are over 50 years of age and cannot take our permanent examinations, and cannot aspire to permanent appointment, teachers whose sole livelihood is teaching in our schools on a per diem basis.

To say to those people: "You can't teach every fourth year"—even though we admit they are good teachers and we want them and they want to teach—I think that works a hardship that we certainly don't want to be guilty of in this Committee.

So I would move, Mr. Chairman, that we submit an amendment to the incoming Legislature which shall consist of inserting the words "except in Boston" after the words "every school Committee" in Section 41 of Chapter 71.

Chairman: The question comes on whether or not the Committee shall file a bill or an amendment to the present statute, consisting of the words "except in Boston", in the present statute governing the tenure of teachers.

The Chair is sorry that this proposal has to be acted on at this time because of the absence of two members who were unable to be here. Because of the final date for filing, it has to be acted on tonight.

I have given considerable thought to the original bill and now this amendment, and, in my opinion, although it sounds like a simple amendment and it might clear up an unfortunate situation pertaining to some of our temporary teachers, I can see where it might create a worse situation later on, and it would be contrary to the present working of our examined lists as established here and carried out by the Boston School System.

As far as the Chair is concerned, if the member wishes to file the bill before the final date for filing as an individual, he should do so, and if between the time of final date of filing and the public hearing I change my mind because of further information pertaining to this that I do not have at this time, I would be glad to support the bill.

However, as of tonight, I would be inclined to vote against it.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, you spoke of possibilities of a worsening situation if this amendment were filed and passed, and I know it would benefit me and other members of the Committee if you could point out how the situation might worsen.

Chairman: Well, I can see very easily now, where we have a small number of temporary teachers, who have been successful in having this amendment come before this Committee, that, as it stands now, those teachers are required to take the fourth year off after teaching three. They have to take the fourth year off.

Now, if we except Boston from the statute as it is now and we continue to hire these temporary teachers year after year—say 8 or 9 or 10 years in succession—and we find no vacancies for their permanent appointment, I can see very easily how a pressure group could be created who could claim that they had given years of service to the Boston School System and now, although there is no need for their services any longer, we are going to throw them out into the cold.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Chairman, I think it is important to add that the group that you are referring to who teach three years and then—it isn't correct to say that, really. Sometimes, Mr. Bond, isn't it true that they might not teach an entire school year, the 180-day session?

Mr. Bond: There is no guarantee.

Miss Fitzgerald: Anywhere from 90 to 180 days. They may be working only after we had exhausted the lists of teachers who had more qualifications or who came off permanent certificate lists or who had higher marks among the temporary teachers.

Mr. Bond: I think Mr. Carr received a letter today from a teacher who complained that she had only 16 days.

Chairman: That's right.

Mr. Bond: Since the first of the year.

Mr. Lee: If there is more danger of a teacher's being deprived of work by being allowed to work, then, human reason has come to a queer turn. I can't see how allowing a teacher to teach a fourth year is going to deprive her of work, and I can't see how forbidding a teacher to teach a fourth year is going to do anything but deprive her of work.

If it is true that teachers aspire to become permanent and if it is true that people don't like to be dismissed from their livelihood, I am sure this stipulation that we must dismiss them every fourth year gives them every incentive to agitate and bring pressure to gain them a permanent appointment safe and above the threat of this fourth-year unemployment.

Certainly it is simply increasing the pressure and giving them incentive to circumvent our regulations if they have to suffer banishment every fourth year.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Chairman, isn't it true that we don't banish anybody who could qualify under our present rules and regulations for permanent appointment?

Chairman: That's right.

Miss Fitzgerald: In other words, any person who has a glimmer of hope by reason of degrees held, by reason of position on certificate lists, by reason of age, and all the other requirements that we have for teachers—anyone who meets those requirements can hope for permanent appointment. Those who cannot ever be eligible for permanent appointment because they do not meet one or all of those requirements never do have any hope of permanent appointment, and this is the group about whom Mr. Lee is speaking, who are continually in this three-year period and then with a fourth year in which they are not teaching in our system.

Chairman: I think that is true, in most parts.

Mr. Lee: So, if the teacher has no glimmer of hope of being a permanent because she is over 50 and has given too many years to the school system and yet might go on teaching year by year without permanent appointment for 20 years before compulsory retirement, then we are going to treat that woman, who has no glimmer of hope for permanent appointment, to the courtesy of kicking her out the door.

I don't see why we select those who are already deprived of hope for higher emolument — I don't see why we add injuury to insult by actually closing the doors in their faces every fourth year.

Furthermore, I think it is a very dangerous precedent. This is a first step to enforce a compulsory sabbatical year on all teachers, permanent as well as non-permanent, because, if you can take one set of teachers who for some reason you don't think are top-notch, who don't meet certain requirements you have set up, but who are perfectly good enough to teach your children for three years, and you can take them and say, "No, you shall get out of employment every fourth year," then it won't be long before you do just the same thing with those teachers who have passed the highest examinations and been appointed to the schools.

This is an entering wedge to raise complete havoc with the whole school system, just as it raises havoc with a good segment of it already, and I urge you, gentlemen and ladies, to act with the utmost wisdom and sense, and to give a more secure tenure to these older women, and to pass an amendment which will injure nobody whatsoever and will benefit our children, ourselves, and a large group of teachers.

Chairman: The Chair might say that it is amazing to hear the other member of this Committee term this as the opening wedge. This statute has been on the books governing the tenure of substitute teachers since 1947, and it appears to me as though it has worked out very satisfactorily.

As far as throwing these people out into the cold and taking away their livelihood, I doubt very much if any of them looks upon it as anything permanent — at least, they shouldn't. They know when they take the job that it is a three-year appointment, or they are appointed for three consecutive years, and then the fourth year they will be forced to take leave, or they would not be rehired the fourth year under this statute of 1947.

No I don't think it is anything new. It is not an opening wedge, and I don't think it is taking away any person's livelihood—or, at least, not a livelihood that he or she should look upon as a permanent source of revenue.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Chairman, when we say three consecutive years, it could mean anything from 90 to 180 days as constituting one school year.

It doesn't even need to be a full school year. It is 90 days or more in any given year which is considered one school year, so, therefore, it isn't even three consecutive years.

Chairman: Well, the question comes—

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, if it is such a benefit to these teachers who do not have every protection to start with and who, being part-way down, seem particularly eligible for being kicked completely out every fourth year —if it is in some peculiar way a benefit to them to be deprived of service with us in those years, and in some peculiar way a benefit to us to be deprived of their services, why don't we give a sabbatical year to everyone every fourth year and let all have the benefit of a sabbatical year?

Chairman: Most sabbatical years are with salary. This wouldn't be a sabbatical.

Mr. Lee: I believe sabbatical refers to seven, but this is a very modern and speedy age, and it has apparently come down to four. Why don't you throw the Superintendent out every fourth year?

Chairman: I don't think he would object if you wanted to pay him.

Mr. Lee: If you want to pay these teachers every fourth year, you might just as well let them work for us.

Chairman: The question comes on whether or not the Boston School Committee shall file this proposed amendment with the General Court—the proposal to amend the statute as it now stands.

Will you call the roll?

(Rollcall:)

Miss Fitzgerald: No.

Mr. Lee: Yes.

Chairman: No.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, might I ask, then, the Committee, if they, in turn, will direct the Superintendent to study the question of calling back teachers who have been laid off during this present year on account of this law, or teachers who may be laid off next year because of its operation, if it continues to be a law, to study their whole situation and to see if we haven't been remiss in our interpetation of the law:— to see if we shouldn't invite them to come back in service, as we have need of temporary teachers during the current year, and to study other school systems, which, I believe, do as Cambridge does and invite the teachers, not at the opening of the year, not the opening of their fourth year, but invite them to come back and serve and offer them a salary one month later, or as daily needs arise.

Furthermore, it was never a question with us of giving these people a fourth year's appointment, which the law says has to be turned into a life appointment. It was a question with us of giving them day by day appointment with a day by day salary, and I think a study should be made of whether we couldn't and shouldn't ask these persons back for a day at a time like all other temporary teachers.

I would ask the School Committee to request the Superintendent to investigate the procedures of other cities in handling this matter and to recommend to us some desirable procedure for us to follow.

Chairman: I have no objections to that. Will you do that, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Mr. Chairman, I have made some notes, and I will also study these notes here and be very glad to do that.

The Committee adjourned.

WOOING FRINGE LOT PARKING PATRONS NOT EASY.

Enticing motoring commuters into fringe parking lots can be a difficult courtship. Recent experience in Washington, Baltimore, Cleveland, and St. Louis indicates that success cannot be achieved unless there is provided an attractive parking-transit fee, frequent bus service between the lot and central business district, and easy approaches to the lot. St. Louis offers a 5 to 7½ minute bus service, no parking fee, and a special 35-cent round-trip fare. Patronage of the 600-car lot is increasing, but a profitable operation has not yet been achieved. However, a survey of 500 of the lot's patrons showed 72 per cent rate the service as "excellent." Three out of four said they arrived closer to their downtown destinations than when they drove in. Private lots in downtown Cleveland are now getting short-term parkers—which produces more revenue for the operator than all-day parkers. In Baltimore the consensus is that fringe parking now "does not work".

Another necessity for cities planning fringe parking lots is the provision of convenient shelters to protect patrons from inclement weather. — American Municipal Association Report.

MAYOR ALLOWS $10,000 ADDITIONAL TO JAMES A. FREANEY, INC.

Mass., the low bidder, in the estimated sum of $18,925, providing for earth excavation and refilling to assist the Water Division employees to install, regulate or repair Water Division structures and other incidental work in West Roxbury (Water Division) district.

Up to the present time, the work performed under the contract has resulted in an expenditure of the major portion of the original contract sum plus twenty-five per cent (25%) of that figure, as is allowable under the standard provisions of our contract. The contract completion date is March 31, 1955, and it is quite apparent that the remaining money as yet not expended under the contract is insufficient to pay for the total volume of the contract items of work that will inevitably need to be done in the West Roxbury Water District so called, and, thus, it is necessary to amend the contract in a sum adequate to pay for all of this work which it is anticipated will be done in the district between the present date and the contract completion date. It is expected that the quantity of the contract items of work which the city may need to have done between now and March 31, 1955, will cost approximately $10,000 over and above the expenditures authorized under the contract to date.

This contractor performs his work satisfactorily and efficiently, and in view of this and of the foregoing circumstances, it is felt that nothing is to be gained by public advertising at this time for the added work, and, therefore, your Honor's authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the aforementioned contract with James A. Freaney, Inc., in a sum not to exceed $10,000, to cover the cost of the additional amounts of contract items of work that will probably be required between now and March 31, 1955.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CONSULATES IN ARREARS ON TAXES.

New York City reports that 12 foreign countries are in arrears a total of $416,985 in real estate taxes on 27 properties, most of them bought within the last 15 years as consulates and headquarters for United Nations delegations.

Nearly all of the defaulting governments claim the right to city realty tax exemption under treaties and international doctrines, but the city has refused to waive its claims. Total assessed valuation is $5,324,000, with $720,000 exempt from tax. Finland, the Netherlands, and Israel have kept their real estate accounts paid up to date.

DIAGNOSTIC LABORATORY.

The work of the Boston Diagnostic Laboratory reflects the medical and lay interest in the causes and prevention of tuberculosis, Boston's highest bacterial cause of death and the fourth highest of all causes. With constant and continual immunization for diphtheria, typhoid fever, and whooping cough, and increased use of antibiotics in the treatment of venereal diseases, the annual total examinations for these latter diseases have not increased, while routine sputa examinations for tuberculosis have demanded a major part of the diagnostic services.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

BOSTON, January 12, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the City Clerk Department for the following:

Sixty rolls Record Duplex paper, 11½ inches x 300 feet, Grade H.H. (coated both sides.)

The Haloid Company, Rochester, New York, who is the manufacturer of the above paper, has submitted an informal written quotation. Inasmuch as this company has no local distributors, the paper must be obtained direct from the Haloid Company.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Haloid Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract for 60 rolls of Record Duplex paper at $49.85 per roll will be $2,991, net, delivered.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The trustees respectfully request that you approve the signing of a lease, without public advertising, with the Woodside Realty Corporation for the rental of the premises located at 18 Barnes avenue, East Boston. These premises have served as quarters for the Orient Heights Branch Library since 1929. The lease will be for the period January 1, 1955, through December 31, 1955. There will be no change in the basic rate of rent. The rental will be four thousand dollars ($4,000) plus "additional rent" of two hundred and sixty dollars ($260). It is not possible to obtain competitive bidding by public advertising for this purpose.

For the purpose of this lease the "additional rent" referred to is defined as that sum of money by which the real estate taxes on the premises assessed for the year 1955 exceeds the 1949 real estate tax. It is further agreed that until such time as the real estate tax rate for the year 1955 is finally determined, the sum of two hundred and sixty dollars ($260) shall represent the "additional rent." Further, if the 1955 real estate tax as finally determined should be less than the 1949 real estate tax, no "additional rent" shall be payable, and the lessor covenants and agrees to pay the lessee the difference.

Inasmuch as the total rental will exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), your permission to enter into this lease without publicly advertising for bids is hereby requested.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by MILTON E. LORD,
Director and Librarian.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

SUPERIOR COURT.
(Civil Business.)

BOSTON, January 6, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In accordance with provisions of section 1, chapter 156, of the Acts of 1939, I request your approval to dispense with the contract formality of such act, and assign as reasons thereof the following:

It is impossible for the clerk to anticipate the amount and kind of printed forms, lists, books, and office supplies necessary for the proper maintenance of his office. The many forms and lists are subject to change without notice and it would be unwise to place orders in anticipation of a year's supply, as it would result in vast overstocking of many items and a shortage of others.

In addition, it is the duty of the clerk to prepare and promulgate the orders of court and to prepare and mail the various weekly trial lists; also to keep the court and sessions thereof supplied with forms and stationery as needed.

As it is impossible to foresee what supplies are necessary to carry out this duty, I believe the continuance of the practice of ordering supplies as needed should be followed. I call your attention to the fact that I have been granted this permission each year since I have been clerk.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS DORGAN,
Clerk.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, January 10, 1955.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President HURLEY in the chair. Absent, Councillor White.

The Reverend Albert J. Shea, pastor of St. James Church, Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REVEREND ALBERT J. SHEA.

Almighty God, Ruler of the world and Author of the universe, with faith and confidence we beseech Thee to be with the Council of the City of Boston as it opens its session for the new year. With great appreciation to You, Almighty God, we look back over the past history of the City of Boston to the record of its administrators. With justifiable pride we acknowledge the accomplishments of the City of Boston, its leadership, and its achievements from the earliest days of our nation until the present time. By Thy grace the power to govern has been used wisely and justly.

We are not unmindful of the changing circumstances of this modern world of ours, changes which have resulted in glorious progress on the one hand and potential evil and dangers on the other.

We stand at the threshold of a new world, a world which, under God, America must help to fashion. We must carefully scrutinize our past failures and keenly search for divine mandates for future guidance.

Home is the unit of society, and the city is one foundation stone of the governments of this great wide world. On that home and this city depend all the aspirations of mankind to love, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

To Washington, the Father of our Country, You gave clear vision. To Lincoln, the Emancipator, You gave the love of the plain man. To the rulers of the cities of America there must never be a lack of vision and justice, and we intend to maintain this glorious tradition.

Leo XIII, Thy servant, has warned us of the futility of building a house upon sands, or a truth upon fables. We beseech Thee, Almighty God, to give the members of this City Council a clear understanding that true leadership does not think of glory but of responsibility and a personal self-examination to prepare themselves and their city for a great future and is not based on unflattering falsehoods but on great truths.

I beseech Thee, Almighty God, to give to the members of the City Council of Boston the great virtues of justice, prudence, fortitude, and temperance, that their public administration in the year 1955 may bring honor to themselves, happiness and prosperity to Boston, and glory to Almighty God.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

JURORS DRAWN.

CITY AGENCIES TO COORDINATE ACTIVITIES WITH URBAN RENEWAL PROGRAM.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 3, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communications from the Commissioner of Public Works, secretary to the Boston School Committee, and the chairman of the City Planning Board relative to your order of December 13, 1955, concerning coordinating the activities and programs with the urban renewal activities under the Federal Housing Act of 1954.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
December 20, 1954.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of December 13:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct the Housing Authority, Planning Board, School Department, Public Works Department, Park Department, and other city agencies contemplating expenditures for capital improvements involving bond issues to coordinate their activities and programs so that the capital expenditures for public improvements may be used to finance urban renewal activities in accordance with the Federal Housing Act of 1954; and be it further

"Ordered, That the Boston City Council hereby expresses its support for a vigorous and rapid program for urban renewal under the Federal Housing Act of 1954."

This department will comply with all provisions of the above-referenced order in connection with any improvements contemplated in areas selected for rehabilitation under the Urban Redevelopment Law.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

The School Committee of the City of Boston,
December 27, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your communication of December 15, 1954, transmitting a copy of Councillor McLaughlin's order of December 13, 1954, pertaining to contemplated expenditures for capital improvements, for consideration and report, was duly presented to the School Committee at its conference of December 20, 1954, and discussed.

At the meeting of the School Committee which followed, the order was presented and placed on file.

The order of the City Council will be given due consideration when the members of the School Committee discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,
AGNES E. REYNOLDS, Secretary.

The City Planning Board,
December 29, 1954.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

In answer to City Council order dated December 15, concerning the coordination of capital improvement expenditures with urban renewal activities, I am replying as follows:

In a few cases the City Planning Board in its interviews with department heads has discussed this matter in relation to their capital improvement requests.

There now exists a committee appointed by you which is considering the establishment of a workable program for urban renewal. It is expected when this program is established that work will be done on the demarcation of renewal areas throughout the city.

The Planning Board will certainly have in mind the necessity for capital improvements which could be of vital concern in designating the priority of renewal areas.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS F. McDONOUGH, Chairman.

RESURFACING HYDE PARK AVENUE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 3, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of December 13, 1954, concerning the resurfacing of Hyde Park avenue.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
December 20, 1954.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of December 13:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface Hyde Park avenue in the Hyde Park section of Boston at the earliest possible opportunity."

This department has the complete reconstruction of Hyde Park avenue—from Forest Hills to Cleary square—included in our Chapter 90 State-Aid Program. The reconstruction of the section from Metropolitan avenue to Cleary square was included in a construction project this year, and the work is now substantially completed.

Early next spring we intend to advertise for bids for the reconstruction of the remaining section of Hyde Park avenue, between Metropolitan avenue and Forest Hills.

All of the work involved will be done as a Chapter 90 project, and approximately one half the cost paid out of the Highway Fund.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

NAMING UNDERPASS IN HONOR OF THOMAS C. MANNING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 3, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works concerning your order of December 13, 1954, relative to naming the Archdale Road underpass in memory of Thomas C. Manning, formerly of 43 Archdale road.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
December 20, 1954.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of December 13:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works, through his Honor the Mayor, name the Archdale Road underpass, soon to be constructed in Roslindale, in memory of Thomas C. Manning, formerly of 43 Archdale road."

I have no objection to the designating of the new Archdale Road underpass in memory of Thomas C. Manning, but the structure will not be completed until some time in the late spring or early summer of 1955, and I suggest that the official designating of a name for the underpass be deferred until the project is substantially completed.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

COLLECTION OF GARBAGE AND TRASH IN SAME TRUCKS.

The following was received.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 10, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Health Commissioner relative to your order of December 27, 1954, concerning the collection of garbage and trash in the same trucks and utilizing the same receptacles.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Health Department, January 4, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

This communication is with reference to City Council order of December 27, 1954, pertaining to the matter of public health policy as to whether or not it is desirable or advisable to permit the collection of garbage and refuse in the same trucks and to utilize the same receptacles for storage.

From a public health aspect it is desirable that, where the garbage is to be boiled and fed to hogs, garbage be collected separately.

In the long experience of this department we have encountered no major public health hazards from the collection of unseparated garbage, refuse, and trash.

It is the objective of the Commissioner of the Department of Public Works to have the collection of refuse only in the most modern type of trucks and equipment and the disposition of refuse ultimately by incineration. If this objective is accomplished and if incineration is available, I can foresee no public health hazard in the collection of all types of refuse in the same vehicle and the disposition by incineration, all procedures being operated in accordance with modern engineering and public health practices.

Respectfully,
JOHN H. CAILEY, M.D.,
Health Commissioner.

SUMNER TUNNEL TRAFFIC ONE WAY BETWEEN 4 P.M. AND 6 P.M.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 10, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of December 20, 1954, concerning the traffic flow in the Sumner Tunnel being made one way between the hours of 4 P.M. and 6 P.M. daily except Sundays.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
January 4, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

We have given careful consideration to the proposal that the Sumner Tunnel be made one way in the direction of East Boston between 4 and 6 P.M., in response to Council order of December 20, 1954.

Our engineers, in conference with Tunnel authorities, agree that while it would be highly desirable to relieve traffic congestion in the vicinity of the Sumner Tunnel Plaza during the peak hours from 4 P.M. to 6 P.M. by making the tunnel one way from Boston Proper to East Boston, it would appear that the objections to it are insurmountable.

A traffic count made on a weekday during June of 1954 showed that from 4 P.M. to 6 P.M. 2,814 vehicles proceeded through the tunnel toward East Boston and 1,470 from East Boston.

In our judgment the following factors are pertinent to this situation:

1. It would be practically impossible to divert all traffic desiring to come into the city via the tunnel over the next alternate route; viz., the Mystic River Bridge.

2. Such a diversion would cause serious inconvenience to motorists and mass transportation buses originating in East Boston, many of whom would perforce, be required to traverse practically the entire length of East Boston, thence through Chelsea in order to arrive at the Bridge.

3. Obviously, the suggestion contemplates using both lanes of the tunnel in the direction of East Boston. I believe that such use of the nominally inbound lane by outbound traffic would set up a practice which would result in some use of it by East Boston bound traffic during other periods of the day. Such a result would create chaos and set up a terrible accident hazard, even if only an occasional motorist were to use the wrong lane.

Conditions in the vicinity of the tunnel are seriously aggravated at the present time due to the fact that the Fitzgerald Expressway temporarily terminates at this point and also because conditions in Blackstone street preclude the use of the surface traffic pattern which is incorporated in the design of the Expressway, and which will eventually require that all traffic entering Cross street from the tunnel will be forced to make a right turn toward Haymarket Square and thence, if desiring to go uptown via North street, will make a left turn through a "slot" under the expressway and arrive at a right turn into North street from Blackstone street.

It is expected that the Expressway will have been completed to the vicinity of Fort Hill square and Northern avenue by July of 1955. When this additional section is in operation, traffic conditions near the tunnel should be measurably improved. In the interim it is difficult to see how serious congestion in this area can be avoided.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,

Dear Sir:

Your communication of November 10, 1954, addressed to the chairman of the School Committee, pertaining to Councillor Piemonte's order of November 8, 1954, requesting the committee to provide adequate gymnasia facilities for the students of Girls' Latin School, was duly presented to the School Committee at its conference of November 23, 1954, and discussed at length.

I was instructed by the committee to send you the accompanying copy of the report of the Superintendent relating to this matter, which is self-explanatory.

Very truly yours,
AGNES E. REYNOLDS, Secretary.

The School Committee of the City of Boston.
To: The School Committee.
From: Superintendent Haley.
Re: Gymnasium Facilities at Girls' Latin School.

As a result of damages caused by the hurricane, the Girls' Latin School gymnasium was made unusable. Although the work on the gymnasium was completed during the month of October, 1954, final approval and permission for the use of the gymnasium was not obtained until the morning of November 18, 1954.

The head master of the Girls' Latin School was informed on November 18 that he could now use the gymnasium facilities. As a result the physical education program was put into effect on the morning of November 19, 1954.

It would appear now that the problem in connection with the gymnasium facilities caused by the hurricane damage has been solved.

LOAN ORDER FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 10, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith an order providing for the appropriation of $5,000,000 for the establishment of off-street parking facilities. This order is based on the authorization contained in chapter 625 of the Acts of 1954. The funds that will become available under this order will be used by the Real Property Board to provide expanded parking facilities for motor vehicles in the so-called downtown area of the city. In all probability, the appropriation will be used primarily for the purchase of land and the preparation of plans for the construction of structures thereon.

In line with past experience, the opportunity to construct these structures will be offered, after public advertising, to interested private parties. The necessity for providing additional parking facilities is imperative, and I therefore recommend immediate consideration and early adoption by your Honorable Body of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the authority contained in chapter 625 of the Acts of 1951, the sum of $5,000,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Real Property Board for the establishment of off-street parking facilities, and that the Collector-Treasurer be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to issue from time to time bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city for said amount, said issues to be outside the limit of indebtedness of the city.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON GIRLS' LATIN SCHOOL.

The following was received:

The Finance Commission of the City of Boston,
January 5, 1955.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The City of Boston gave its "Teachers College" to the State of Massachusetts in August, 1952. This transfer was accomplished under the authority of chapter 618, Acts of the Legislature of 1952.

The City of Boston was the petitioner for the legislation. The philosophy which inspired this gratuitous act—with which the Finance Commission was in accord—was that Boston should not continue the training of teachers for public school work. For several years a substantial and growing per cent of the teachers trained in "Boston Teachers College" was absorbed in the public education work of other municipalities; furthermore, the State of Massachusetts trained and prepared teachers for public education throughout the state in other teachers colleges.

The "Boston Teachers College" property consists of a group of buildings, one of which contains the very important "Girls' Latin School." As a result of the above-mentioned transfer, the State Department of Education now has ownership and control of this entire group. The enabling act allows the city use of the Latin School building, but with reservations and temporarily. Since the state acquired control, it has already reduced the number of rooms used by the Latin School by 23 per cent—seven out of thirty rooms. This reduction in usable space has proved embarrassing to the Latin School because pupil enrollment in that school has increased 11 per cent.

Now the entire elimination of Girls' Latin School from the property is imminent. The city is faced with notice by the State Board of Education that the city must give up eight more rooms within six months, which will result in fifteen rooms lost to the Latin School to that time; furthermore, the State Board has served notice that, if predicted increases in Teachers College enrollment materialize, the state will take over the remaining fifteen rooms. In fact, the prospect is that the Latin School will have to vacate the building entirely within three years.

Boston (the School Committee), therefore, is faced with these alternatives. Boston must close out entirely and permanently the Girls' Latin School; or Boston must provide an entirely different building for the school. The first of these alternatives, is, to many, unthinkable; the second might cause an unexpected expenditure of over $3,000,000

The School Committee has suggested, as the solution of this dilemma, the use of the closed Dorchester High School for Girls as a new Girls' Latin. However, a storm of protest from alumnae of the Latin School and from parents of girls in the present school has halted consummation of that idea. What makes this solution of the difficulty attractive from a financial standpoint is that the maximum cost of it would be no more than $75,000.

Your interest in this matter, since you have no direct control, will undoubtedly stem from your often expressed desire to avoid new expenditure which adds to an already worrisome tax burden. A new $3,000,000 Latin School will increase maintenance and financing costs of the school system.

For a complete understanding of the situation, the Finance Commission offers this chronology of developments:

(a) In the acquisition of the Teachers College property, the Commonwealth took over a group of buildings consisting of the "Teachers College," the "Patrick A. Collins Building," which had been jointly used by the college and the Girls' Latin School, the "Girls' Latin Building," and the "Common Building," which contained a gymnasium and lunchroom used by both college and Latin School.

(b) During the school year 1952–53, the city continued to use thirty rooms for Latin School purposes, seven in the Collins Building, twenty-three in the Latin Building. For this, by agreement under authority of the enabling act, the city paid $22,935.18, of which approximately $15,000 represented 50 per cent of the operating costs of the buildings, and the remainder for ordinary repairs to Girls' Latin School.

(c) In December, 1953, the State Commissioner of Education notified the Boston School Committee that his department intended to use seven rooms in the Collins Building beginning September 1, 1954.

(d) On September 1, 1954, the state took the seven rooms, leaving twenty-three rooms in the Girls' Latin School for City of Boston use.

(e) For the 1953–54 school year the city paid $30,226.69 for its 50 per cent share of the operating costs and $2,641.35 for repairs to the Latin School.

(f) November, 1954, the State Commissioner of Education notified the Boston School Committee that he would have to take an additional eight rooms beginning June 30, 1955.

The Situation at the Girls' Latin School.

	1952	1954	Change	Per Cent
Enrollment	1,222	1,356	plus 134	plus 11
Space	30 rooms	23 rooms	minus 7	minus 23

The squeeze on space indicated by the above table has resulted in a compressed and overlapping schedule for the six grades enrolled at Girls' Latin School. This is illustrated by the fact that in Grade 7 some attend from 12.41 to 4 P.M., while others attend from 11.39 to 3.22 P.M., and in Grades 8 through 12 the hours of attendance are from 8.45 A.M. to 2.03 P.M. This compressed schedule has modified extracurricular activities.

Further reduction in the number of rooms, in accordance with the State Department's notice of November, 1954, will so intensify the situation as to constitute a weakening of a sound educational program.

Value of Teachers College Property.

Building	Square Feet Area	Cost	Square Feet Area of Building	Original Cost
Girls' Latin			17,382	$253,750 30
Teachers College			18,541	254,553 30
P. A. Collins Building			13,043	166,222 50
Common Building			9,000	128,481 16
Whole area	141,075	$241,290 77		$803,007 26
				241,290 77
Total Cost of Land and Buildings				$1,044,298 03

At an estimated $1 per cubic foot, reproduction costs would approximate $3,500,000. Since the state acquired this property, the city has spent over $53,000 in shared operating cost and ordinary repair.

The financial saving visualized by the School Committee in giving up the college can be seen in the cost in the last complete year of city operation. The expenditures in 1951 were as follows:

Instruction: (Including salaries of president, teachers, clerks; supplies)		$265,428 11
Operation of Plant: Including custodial, fuel, light, windows, telephone)		24,820 96
Health Promotion: (Including school physician)		2,465 98
General Control: (Apportionment of headquarters cost)		12,222 25
Supervision: (Special fields, such as art)		12,744 48
Gross Expenditures		$317,682 08
Minus Income: Tuition	$81,738 59
Other Income	1,379 47
Total	$83,118 06	83,118 06
Net 1951 Expenditure by City on Teachers College		$234,564 02

Alternatives.

To make the Dorchester High School for Girls usable will, as stated above, cost around $75,000. To construct a new building will cost over $3,000,000. It is questionable if the School Committee can make any other use of the Dorchester property. It cost the city (land and building) approximately $500,000 many years ago. Its replacement cost today would be approximately $2,500,000. It is now in sound condition, needing only internal repairs to make it as good as new.

The Dorchester High School has been closed for over a year. When a school building is closed, deterioration proceeds at an alarming rate.

Respectfully submitted,

H. W. DWIGHT REED, Chairman.

EXERCISES AT CITY HALL PLAZA ON JANUARY 17 TO HONOR BENJAMIN FRANKLIN FEATURED BY BRILLIANT ADDRESS OF JOHN SMOLINSKY, SENIOR IN ROXBURY MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS PRINTING DEPARTMENT — MANY LEADING CITIZENS ASSEMBLED FOR PLACING OF WREATHS — MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES PRESIDED.

At the ceremonies at City Hall Plaza on January 17, 1955, a number of persons interested in printing and its kindred arts gathered at the invitation of Mayor John B. Hynes, who presided. One of the chief features, in addition to placing memorial wreaths, was the part taken by the Printing Department of the Roxbury Memorial High School for Boys. The exercises were featured by the address of John Smolinsky, of the class of 1955, whose address in tribute to Benjamin Franklin was as follows:

To Americans everywhere the great American, Benjamin Franklin, whom we honor today, is well known.

To Bostonians his life is more significant, for Franklin was a Bostonian. In fact, his birthplace is within the shadow of the spot on which we have gathered to honor him.

To us who have chosen to become printers, or to follow graphic arts as our profession, Benjamin Franklin symbolizes all that is exemplary in this field.

As a practical printer he was reported to have had no superior.

It is of interest to learn that as a Bostonian Franklin spent seventy of his eighty-four years of life as a subject of four successive British monarchs.

As a journalist he exerted an influence not only unrivaled in his day, but more potent, on this continent at least, than any of his sovereigns or their parliaments.

Crowning Work.

Franklin's Almanac, his crowning work in the sphere of journalism, published under the name of "Richard Saunders," better known as "Poor Richard," is still one of the marvels of modern literature. It was the first issue from an American press that found a popular welcome in foreign lands, and it still enjoys the special distinction of being the only almanac ever published that owed its extraordinary popularity entirely to its literary merit.

Franklin's place in literature as a writer has not been generally appreciated, probably because with him writing was only a means, never an end, and his ends always dwarfed his means. He wrote to persuade others, never to parade his literary skill. He never wrote a dull line. The longest production of his pen was his autobiography, written during the closing years of his life.

Simple in Style.

Almost everything else he wrote was in the form of letters which would hardly average three pages in length. And yet, whatever subject he touched upon, he never left the impression of incompleteness. Of him it may be said that he never said a word too soon, nor a word too late, nor a word too much.

Because of the simplicity of his style, his ease in condensing a great principle into an anecdote, many of Franklin's works as he applied them have become the folklore of all nations. His habitual moderation of statement, his aversion to exaggeration, his inflexible logic, and his perfect truthfulness made him one of the most persuasive men of his time, and his writings a model which no one can study without profit. Selections from Franklin's writings should be a part of the curriculum of every college and high school that aspires to cultivate in its students a pure style and correct literary taste.

What a challenge to the youth of America — and more especially to a Bostonian — that he might emulate the printer, the journalist, the statesman, the great American, Benjamin Franklin.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On November 17, 1954, bids for furnishing radio equipment to the Department of Civil Defense were publicly opened and read in this office. Attached is tabulation of bids received.

Item 7 on the bid did not clearly state that microphones were to be included with the loud speakers but each company which had taken out a proposal was notified that microphones were to be included.

The lowest total bidder, including the microphones needed with Item 7, was Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc. If the cost of the microphones needed on Item 7 is deducted from their bid, this company will be the lowest total bidder in accordance with the original specification. I am advised that this company's equipment, presently in use in the Department of Civil Defense, is outstanding in performance, has not been out of service, and no monies have been spent for repairs or replacements.

It is therefore requested that permission be granted to award a contract for furnishing radio equipment as indicated on the attached tabulation sheet to the Department of Civil Defense to Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc., 540 Main street, Winchester, Mass. Approximate total amount of contract will be $22,474.45, net, 30 days. This amount includes 30 microphones needed on Item 7.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN V. MORAN,

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Boston City Hospital has submitted a requisition for 500 rolls Cardiette paper, 3A-1. Sanborn Company, the manufacturer of this particular type paper, has submitted an informal quotation.

It is my opinion that, in this way, the best intersets of the city will be served.

BOSTON, January 18, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Under the provisions of section 1 of chapter 6 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, I propose to have an examination of the accounts of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel for the fiscal year 1954 made by the accounting firm of Charles F. Rittenhouse & Co., 75 Federal street, Boston. The expense involved in this examination will depend on the time found necessary to complete the audit, but under no circumstances should it exceed $900. I respectfully request your approval of my proposed action.

Respectfully,

City Auditor.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, January 18, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

SUBJECT: Edward Southworth School Building.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Movement of masonry throughout the height of structural piers providing support to the gabled facade of the front of the building at the third-floor level, and in the gable masonry and corbels of same above, has created an emergency condition requiring immediate attention. To determine the extent of this hazardous condition, discovered by the district inspector, the D. Antonellis Company was ordered to erect a scaffold to provide minute inspection and take immediate steps to secure fractured masonry in place.

Inspections made from the scaffold by the district inspector and the Deputy Superintendent of Construction, in company with a representative of the Finance Commission, determined the need of immediate action. Consequently, the D. Antonellis Company was authorized to proceed with the removal of the gable masonry and the rebuilding of structural piers, also incidental work of roofing, roof framing, plastering, etc.

As it was absolutely necessary to proceed as I have done in order to avoid a situation that might cause a collapse of a portion of the building, I ask your Honor's approval of my action and your authority to negotiate a contract, without advertising, with the D. Antonellis Company, 15 Sparhawk street, Brighton, Mass, on a labor and materials basis, at a cost not to exceed $7,500. Inspections will be made of the work daily and cost and time records kept by this department.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 17, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request your permission to issue a service order to H. D. Lockhart, 35 Hale street, Hyde Park, for the extermination of vermin in the following locations in the Park Department:

Dover Street Bath—Laundry.
North Bennet Street.
Cabot Street.
Paris Street.
Franklin Park Zoo and Garage.
George Wright Golf Club House.

He will exterminate vermin when required, and in addition make regular monthly inspections with necessary applications of disinfectant at the above locations, for the period of one year, from January 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, for a sum of $959, payable quarterly.

For the last four years Mr. Lockhart has performed this work in a very satisfactory manner, and at the time of the issuing of the original order in obtaining quotations he was much lower than any other concern which bid.

I do not believe the city would obtain any lower price by asking for bids and in view of the splendid work being done by Mr. Lockhart, I belive it is for the best interests of the city to award a contract to Mr. Lockhart.

Accordingly, I request your permission to issue a service order for this work.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 24, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Real Property Board proposes to engage the services of Wm. Nelson Jacobs Associates, 438 Park Square Building, Boston, Mass., as achitects-engineers, in connection with the proposed construction of an off-street parking facility at Scollay square, Pemberton square, and Howard street, Boston.

The estimated cost of the proposed facility is approximately $1,500,000, and the architects-engineers shall be paid a standard fee equal to the sum of 6 per cent of the full amount of the cost of said construction, which fee would include supervision.

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award the contract to Wm. Nelson Jacobs Associates without public advertising.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner.

WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 14, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

Re: I. B. M. Contract.

DEAR SIR:

On December 9, 1954, in response to our letter dated December 6, 1954, you authorized the award of a contract, without advertising, to the International Business Machines Corporation, 573 Boylston street, Boston, Mass., for the lease of the following equipment:

On order: Alphabetical Interpreter to be delivered in March, 1955, and to cost $75 a month.

Total monthly rate of machines in use as of January 1, 1955, $2,412.50.

In our letter of December 6, we advised you that the total cost for the year 1955, including the replacements and new machine, was estimated to be not in excess of $32,130.

At this time, it is our purpose to amend the aforesaid letter of December 6 by requesting that the contract to be executed with the International Business Machines Corporation be one to cover the period January 1, 1955, through March 31, 1955, total cost for this period not to exceed $7,700. The reason for this request is that funds are not presently available for the period April 1, 1955, through December 31, 1955.

As previously stated, this equipment can only be obtained from the International Business Machines Corporation. No advantage would be gained by a public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM G. O'HARE,
Secretary.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

BOSTON, January 14, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As you are aware it is necessary for me to purchase supplies for the Probate Court and the Registry of Probate under Item 360 in the budget. The principal expenditures from this item are for the purchase of blank forms of which we have approximately three hundred types. With such a variety it is very difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate the needs of the Bar, the public and the office in that connection and very often we find it necessary to order some items for quick delivery, so that we cannot wait until our needs would amount to $1,000.

We do not expend as much as $1,000 at any one time for the purchase of such blank forms and other supplies. I believe that if we were required to build up our orders to the $1,000 mark and advertise for bids such action would be likely to result (no matter how unintentionally) in over purchasing.

In the light of the foregoing I respectfully request authority to dispense with advertising for bids for the purchase of supplies under budget Item 360. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN,
Register.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, January 17, 1955.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President HURLEY in the chair, and all the members present.

The Reverend Adrian P. O'Leary of St. Vincent de Paul Church, South Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REVEREND ADRIAN P. O'LEARY.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

We have come, O God, the Holy Ghost, before Thee, deeply conscious of our many grievous sins, but especially gathered together in Thy Name. Come unto us and be with us, and vouchsafe to enter our hearts. Teach us what we are to do and whither we are to attend. Show us what we must accomplish, and, with Thy help, we may be able to please Thee in all things. Be Thou alone the author and finisher of our judgment. Thou alone, with God the Father and Son, dost possess a glorious name.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

This will acknowledge receipt of memo from your office with attached order from Councillor Piemonte, requesting the Parks and Recreation Department and the George Robert White Fund to make a survey of vacant land located at 1449–1453 Hyde Park avenue as a possible site for a play area.

If this land is ever obtained by the city, we might give consideration to its development, but at the present time we have no money within our budget to effect this improvement.

Very truly yours,

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
January 12, 1955.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of December 20, 1954.

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Commissioner of Public Works to take the steps necessary to install sidewalks on both sides of Garfield street in the Hyde Park section of Boston."

I presume that the above referenced refers to the private section of Garfield avenue connecting Faraday street to Cranmore road.

A hearing was held by the Public Improvement Commission on December 29, in connection with the laying out and construction of this street as a public highway. The improvement will provide for the construction of a new roadway and sidewalks.

I anticipate that work will start this spring or early summer, and I trust that the improvement will be effected to the satisfaction of the abutting residents who reside in the nearby housing project.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
December 29, 1954.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

Acknowledging recent memo from Mayor's office with attached order from Councillor Hailer, requesting that the Police Commissioner, Park Commissioner, and the School Department study the possibility of establishing a Police Athletic League in the City of Boston.

If such a league were to be established, it would require the full cooperation of all departments concerned. In view of the experience of the Police Department with their youth organization some years ago, I believe that the matter should be discussed freely with Commissioner Sullivan.

We receive excellent cooperation from the Police Department in all requests we make of them, but I know that Commissioner Sullivan has on more than one occasion expressed the opinion that he did not expect his policemen to conduct recreational activities.

The request contained in the order would require much study, and we will be pleased to lend our cooperation to such a study if called upon.

Very truly yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

Overseers of the Public Welfare,
January 11, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Re: Councillor Hurley's Order of December 20, 1954.

Dear Sir:

In response to your inquiry of December 27, 1954 forwarding the order passed in the City Council which provides

"Ordered, That the Social Service Departments of the Welfare Department and the Boston City Hospital establish a bureau for the placing of patients in rest homes," we wish to inform you as follows.

The department recently established a unit at the Roxbury Crossing district office known as the "Nursing Home Section," which section is responsible for administering assistance to all recipients residing in proprietary nursing homes in the city. This section will be able, about February 1, to maintain a register of all vacancies from nursing homes, and a method is being worked out under which the nursing homes will inform the office whenever a vacancy occurs. This information will be made available to the Social Service Division of the Boston City Hospital on request.

The Welfare Department's listing of vacancies will be primarily for informational purposes, as we believe the decision as to the appropriate nursing home for the patient should be made by the Hospital Social Service Division in each case.

The above has been reviewed with and approved by the Chairman of the Board of Overseers, Mr. Joseph K. Collins.

We trust that this information is satisfactory.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

PATROLLING OF HOUSING PROJECTS.

The following was received:

Office of the Mayor, January 17, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communications from the Police Commissioner and the chairman of the Boston Housing Authority relative to your order of December 13, 1954, concerning the assigning of a uniformed officer to patrol each of the housing projects in the City of Boston.

Police Department, January 11, 1955.

W. J. Malloy,
City Clerk.

Dear Sir:

Relative to order of the City Council dated December 13, 1954, requesting consideration of the advisability of assigning a uniformed officer to patrol each of the housing projects in the City of Boston, please be advised that, while we cover the grounds adjacent to every housing project and answer every call for assistance from those locations, we have no right to enter on these properties for the purpose of patrolling them, any more than on the property of a private apartment house.

We have conferred with the Housing Authority members and have agreed to train any of their employees for this work in our Police Academy and to appoint them as special officers, giving them the identical authority that a Boston police officer would have, including the right to carry a revolver.

Very truly yours,
T. H. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

Boston Housing Authority,
January 14, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Subject: City Council Order of December 13, 1954, on Patrol of Developments by the Boston Police Department.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

In reply to your letter of December 15, 1954, on the above City Council order, be advised that this Authority has conferred at length with Police Commissioner Sullivan on the matter of police protection for developments of this Authority.

The Authority is convinced that it is receiving police protection on its developments at least equal to that received by other property owners and consonant with that which can be given it in view of the over-all problems of that department.

Over a year ago the Authority made a proposal to the Public Housing Administration for minimum additional police protection, with special police at its own expense, on a plan worked out in cooperation with Commissioner Sullivan.

A tentative approval of this plan was given. Final approval was never secured. At a meeting held with the Public Housing Administration at its Field Office in New York on January 6, 1955, this Authority continued to press for its viewpoint, but without success.

If additional police protection can be given by the Boston Police Department in some areas, it would be acceptable, but in all fairness the Authority must say that the Police Commissioner and his force have been most cooperative and helpful within the means and resources of his department.

Very truly yours,
OWEN A. GALLAGHER,
Chairman.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Subject: City Council Order of December 13, 1954, Concerning Meetings with Social Service Agencies.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

The Authority is not unmindful of the good which may come from closer coordination between this Authority and other agencies concerning community problems in which developments of this Authority are located.

One of the members of the Authority, Mr. Frederick A. Cronin, is a member of a committee set up within the United Community Services on this very matter, and the Authority will continue to work with this group.

Councillor Gabriel E. Piemonte, who sponsored the order, is familiar with the work of this committee and recently participated in one of its meetings.

In reply to your letter of December 15, 1954, on the above subject, be assured that this Authority will be only too pleased to work with other city departments in the manner suggested in the order you have set up, which in the opinion of the Authority will be a good vehicle to bring about the suggested results.

So far as urban redevelopment is concerned, this Authority is most anxious to receive every credit it can, and points out to you that which you already know, that the Authority expects to receive credit for certain Central Artery ramps, which, though built by the Commonwealth, will serve the proposed South End area.

Whereas, Hundreds of Greater Boston women are giving of their time so that others may walk and be cured of the dreadful disease of polio; and

Whereas, The battle against infantile paralysis is one which includes not only direct care but research, education, and prevention as well; and

Whereas, 1955 is of utmost importance in the field of polio research due to the outcome of the Salk vaccine—which was the largest medical research program ever to be conducted in the history of the world; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, through his Honor the Mayor, declare Thursday, January 27, as "Mothers' March on Polio" Day, as an indication of their whole-hearted support of the drive, and further urge all Boston mothers and citizens of Boston to give 100 per cent support on that day to battle infantile paralysis.

REASONS FOR DECLARING BOSTON COMMON, PUBLIC GARDEN, AND ESPLANADE "OUT OF BOUNDS."

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Whereas, The Boston Common, Public Garden, and the Esplanade have been declared "out of bounds" for military personnel after 10 P.M.; and

Whereas, Such action is detrimental to public relations for the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The Boston Common, Public Garden, and tbe Esplanade have, over the years, provided wbolesome and healthy recreation and relaxation to the thousands of Bostonians and nonresidents; and

Whereas, Such action does not seem to be justified and the continuance of labeling such areas as "out of bounds" is an unjust reflection on the City of Boston; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor confer witb the provost marshal relative to ascertaining the specific reasons on whicb the action was based and requesting a bill of particulars; and, further, that if any omissions on the part of the city or any of its agencies are found to exist, immediate steps be taken to correct the same; and that his Honor the Mayor use every effort to have the restrictions removed.

Whereas, The Boston Common, Public Garden, and the Esplanade have been declared "out of bounds" for military personnel after 10 P.M.; and

Whereas, Such action is detrimental to public relations for the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The Boston Common, Public Garden, and the Esplanade have, over the years, provided wholesome and healthy recreation and relaxation to the thousands of Bostonians and nonresidents; and

Whereas, Such action does not seem to be justified, and the continuance of labeling such areas as "out of bounds" is an unjust reflection on the City of Boston; and

Whereas, An active recreational program during the late evening would dispel any unsavory reputation, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City of Boston call upon his Honor the Mayor, the Boston Park Commissioner, the Community Service Board, and other recreational agencies in the City of Boston to immediately plan and carry out an intensified recreational program of activities in the Public Garden, Boston Common, and the Esplanade.

ADJUSTMENTS IN HOURS OF BOSTON POLICE OFFICERS.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, Because of a lengthening of the period of duty of the first night shift of the Boston Police Department, members of the night platoons presently serve longer hours than heretofore; and

Whereas, Because of a shifting of the hours of duty of the night platoons, police officers assigned to night duty will not as often as before receive holiday compensation and will average yearly less compensation than heretofore; and

Whereas, The combination of lengthening plus shifting of hours of duty of the nigbt platoons cause the officers doing night duty to yearly work longer hours for less remuneration than before; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council recognizes the necessity of making adjustments to correct this inequity and therefore favors House Bill 954 now pending before the Great and General Court of the Commonwealth and further defining the words "legal holiday."

Referred to the Executive Committee.

COMPENSATION TO POLICE OFFICERS FOR EMERGENCY WORK AFTER REGULAR HOURS.

Coun. FOLEY offered tbe following:

Whereas, It is presently almost universally accepted that an employee has a rigbt to expect to work regularly designated hours of work; and

Whereas, It is to be anticipated in the area of public service that on occasion emergencies will arise when certain categories of employees must remain on duty without complaint for long periods of time and beyond the regularly required and compensated hours of duty; and

Whereas, Most employees in the public service or in the employ of public utilities subject to call to duty in an emergency are compensated beyond their usual remuneration for such emergency service; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council favors the additional compensation of police officers of the Boston Police Department who are required to serve beyond the regular hours of duty in an emergency situation; and be it further

Resolved, That, in furtherance of the above-stated position of the Boston City Council, the Council recognizes the necessity of clearly defining the regular hours of work of the Boston Police Department; and be it further

V. 1955 MARCH OF DIMES.

His Honor Mayor John B. Hynes has appointed City Collector-Treasurer James E. Gildea to be chairman of the city employees for the 1955 March of Dimes campaign.

This appeal is part of a nationwide effort to fight polio. The contributions of the past few years have made possible the discovery of a new vaccine that may bring to an end this devastating disease. During 1954, 1,830,000 children were inoculated with polio vaccine. If the vaccine, after research and investigation, proves to be effective, then a maximum amount of vaccine must be available for use during 1955.

In 1954 the members of the Fire Department donated $1,532.25 to the campaign. As most of us know, a tremendous amount of money is required to provide for research and to help victims of this dread disease.

A child striken with infantile paralysis fights against heavy odds. It is a lonely battle carried on from an iron lung, a wheel chair, or a pair of crutches. The child can't win if he fights alone. The dimes and dollars you give voluntarily will help provide immediate care for those who are stricken with this disease. It will speed the day when all of us will be free from the fear of polio.

Voluntary contributions are being solicited. Company commanders and heads of department branches are asked to interview each member of their commands and accept any contributions that may be offered. Donation cards are being distributed with this order.

Members contributing should fill in their names and addresses on the stub end of the pledge card and also the amount contributed. The company commander, or other person collecting the money, shall give the large portion of the card to the person contributing as his receipt. Please put company number on upper right-hand corner of the stubs which are to be returned with money to Principal Clerk and Stenographer Ursula E. Nurse in the Headquarters Division.

Contributions and stubs will be received in the Headquarters Division from 9.30 A.M. to 12 noon on each weekday except Saturday, and all contributions should be delivered to Headquarters on or before January 28, 1955.

By order of Fire Commissioner FRANCIS X. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I am submitting herewith the City Planning Board's "Summary of Findings" on a parking program for the Boston Central Area. CITY HOSPITAL TRUSTEES, UNDER DIRECTION OF DR. JOHN F. CONLIN, DIRECTOR OF HOSPITALS, NAME FORMER F.B.I. MAN TO REPLAN INGRESS AND EGRESS, CONTROL OF SUPPLIES, AND OTHER MATTERS PERTAINING TO PREVENTION OF COSTLY INEFFICIENCY AND LOSSES OF SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT NOTED HERETOFORE — GUARD CREW UNDER PRESENT EMPLOYMENT TO BE SPECIALLY TRAINED FOR WORK.

The following communication has been received at the Mayor's office from Richard J. Condon, President, Board of Trustees, Boston City Hospital:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Security matters within the Hospital Department continue to be a problem of concern to the Trustees and to Dr. Conlin, Director of Hospitals. The institutions within the department contain much valuable equipment. There are large numbers of in-patients and out-patients. There are several thousands of employees and thousands of daily visitors.

The matters of ingress and egress, control of supplies and equipment, personnel screening, proper training of the present security force, and many similar matters need immediate attention. It is desired to operate a program of prevention of costly inefficiency and loss rather than one of detection after the loss has occurred.

Security Consultant.

The Trustees of the Hospital Department and of Boston City Hospital, therefore, request permission to enter upon a contract with Harvey Burstein, security consultant, 294 Washington street, Boston, Mass. The Trustees voted on January 7, 1955, that the Director should meet with Mr. Burstein and discuss arrangements for obtaining his services.

On January 14, 1955, the Trustees voted that Mr. Burstein be engaged as an expert security consultant at a fee of $50 per diem. It is proposed to use Mr. Burstein's services within the department an average of two days per week and to enter upon a one-year contract with him in the amount of $4,800, payable in twelve equal monthly installments.

Mr. Burstein is thirty-two years old. He received a Bachelor of Laws degree from Creighton University in 1948. He is an honorably discharged World War II veteran. He saw combat duty in the European Theatre with the Corps of Military Police. In 1941–42 and again in 1948 he was a clerk and translator in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, assigned to the Identification Division and Laboratory.

F.B.I. Agent.

From October 25, 1948, to August 13, 1953, he was a special agent of the F.B.I. He worked on applicant-type, criminal security, espionage, and foreign-intelligence-type investigations. While with the F.B.I. he received five letters of commendation from Mr. Hoover. He was an approved F.B.I. speaker. He has written a paper and a training outline used by the F.B.I. and a New Jersey police department in training their police officers and agents.

From October, 1953, to the end of February, 1954, he served as Chief, Foreign and Domestic Investigations, Surveys, and Physical Security, Office of Security, United States Department of State. He had final responsibility for all State Department investigations, surveys, and physical PLANNING BOARD PRESENTS MAYOR HYNES WITH PARKING PROGRAM.

With the completion of the Central Artery and its connecting expressways it is expected that, though the number of passengers entering by automobile will increase substantially, the over-all increase in persons entering the area will result in little or no loss of patronage to public transportation facilities.

A further condensed statement of the findings is attached herewith, including a vote of the Board to go on record as favoring the construction of a garage under Boston Common, in accordance with provisions set forth in House Bill 1275.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS F. McDONOUGH,
Chairman.

SUMMARY OF PLAN.

The Boston City Planning Board has submitted to Mayor Hynes a parking program for the central business area of Boston.

The program recommends the construction of 10,000 to 12,000 additional off-street parking spaces by 1965 (not including the 6,000 spaces to be provided in the proposed Back Bay Center). The Planning Board proposes a system of twenty garages throughout the business district, ten of which should receive immediate attention.

The ten high priority sites are: at the rear of the State House; near Scollay square; on Court street (next to City Hall); on Central and Kilby streets in the financial district; at Fort Hill square; on Province street, to serve the retail area; on Washington street at Hayward place; on Washington street at Dore street; and the St. James Street garage already designed.

The estimated cost of acquiring the necessary sites (based on tax assessment values plus 25 per cent) and constructing the high priority parking garages totals $13,000,000, giving an average per space cost of about $3,100.

The Planning Board report points out that the 10,000 to 13,000 additional spaces are necessary to (a) compensate for the existing deficit of spaces in the business area; (b) replace a substantial number of existing on-street spaces (3,000) that impair the flow of traffic and should be eliminated; and (c) accommodate the expected increase in motor vehicle travel to the business area to be caused by the construction of express highways (the Central Artery and the Toll Road, etc.) and by the construction of new business development (such as the Back Bay Center).

The report emphasizes the necessity of having these new spaces used primarily by short-time parkers—for shopping and business trips. In this way additional economic activity can best be attracted into the business area with little loss to mass transportation patronage. It is pointed out that this may require an adjustment of parking rates charged in off-street facilities, perhaps to a constant hourly rate of 20 or 25 cents. A similar recommendation involves increasing the rates charged at on-street meter spaces.

The Planning Board report explains that the existing 335,000 people attracted to the business area each day will increase to about 380,000 in 1965. Consequently, the number of passenger cars to be parked is expected to increase from about 80,000 to 125,000 per day. This increase is made possible by the large traffic capacity of the Central Artery.

The Planning Board therefore concludes that a conservative estimate of the future parking space need is from 10,000 to 12,000 additional off-street spaces. According to the Planning Board these new parking spaces will contribute to the economic health and welfare of the business area and the entire community. The estimated $13,000,000 cost is not too high a price to pay if it will (a) make it possible for the Central Artery to bring more people to the downtown area; (b) encourage development of new downtown construction; and (c) arrest the decline of assessed values and, in fact, cause an ultimate reduction in the tax rate by broadening the tax base.

The Planning Board also voted to go on record as favoring the construction of a garage under Boston Common in accordance with provisions set forth in House Bill 1275.

MAYOR TURNS DOWN COUNCIL PROPOSAL FOR INCREASED PAY FOR CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS UNTIL STUDIED FURTHER.

The following is letter sent to the City Council by his Honor the Mayor on January 27:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

I return herewith without my signature, and disapproved, two orders adopted by your Honorable Body on January 24, 1955. One order contemplates the amendment of the County Classification and Compensation Plan in the case of correction officers; the other order contemplates an amendment of the County Classification and Compensation Plan in the case of jail officers.

These orders are disapproved because any specific changes in the County Plan of this nature necessarily have an effect on other positions in the County Plan. It is, therefore, the purpose of the Personnel Officer of the City of Boston to make a complete study, this year, of the entire County Classification Plan which has been in existence since 1931. It has become apparent that this plan should be restudied and brought up to date.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

Upon January 28 the Mayor approved a contract with Mystic Building Wrecking Company, Inc., for the razing of the Elbridge Smith School, Centre street and Dorchester avenue, Dorchester. Bids, opened January 27, were as follows:

Mystic Building Wrecking Company, Inc., $3,370; City Building Wrecking Company, $3,900; American Building Wrecking Company, Inc., $4,785; New York Building Wrecking Company, Inc., $6,875.

Hospital Department.

Upon January 27 the Mayor approved a contract as requested in the following letter:

Boston, January 24, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Proposals for alterations and renovations to Ward 1, Pavilion 3, Boston City Hospital, were received and publicly opened and read at the hospital on Thursday, December 30, 1954. The following bids were received:

Rich Brothers Construction Company, Inc., $26,410; Domenick Puleo, $26,000; D. Antonellis, Inc., $24,825; Arieli Construction Company, Inc., $23,711; Schwamb Construction Corporation, $21,375; Fred DeLisio, $20,539; M. Solimando, $19,373.

Subsequent to the opening of proposals, and after the selection of the general contractor, it was decided to consider subcontractors other than the ones named by the general contractor in his bid, as a result of which the bid of P. J. Riley & Co. for plumbing, in the sum of $2,722, was substituted for that of J. M. McCusker Company, in the sum of $3,514; and the bid of John L. Grady for plastering, in the sum of $1,985, was substituted for that of Chiappisi Brothers in the sum of $2,186.

The aforementioned substitution of subbidders has resulted in a downward revision in the sum of $993 in the proposed contract sum of M. Solimando, thereby making the proposed contract price of M. Solimando as revised, $18,380, therefore, subject to your approval, the Trustees have awarded the contract to M. Solimando, in the sum of $18,380.

Respectfully yours,

Board of Trustees,
Hospital Department and of the Boston City Hospital, by Richard J. Condon, President.

AWARDS TO MEMBERS OF POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 24, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Fire Commissioner concerning your order of January 10, 1955, relative to establishing a policy of awarding to the member of the department who performs the most heroic act in that year a permanent yearly increment to his salary of $500, and that the man be required to display on his uniform at all times some indication of the award he has received.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Fire Department, January 21, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Sir:

I feel that the order adopted by the City Council on January 10, 1955, is a laudable move to recognize the heroism of the police and fire fighters. In carrying out any such policy, however, there are several difficulties that present themselves immediately that must be resolved before any action can be taken by the City Council.

1. A determination should be made as to what would be a heroic act which is intangible and subject to many interpretations.

2. A most heroic act of one year would not necessarily compare with a most heroic act of another year.

3. It could be possible that inasmuch as only one award is provided that a person who would not receive the reward because of a consideration of a most heroic act in one year may have accomplished something that would be far superior to one that would be determined to be the most heroic act in the following year and this could bring about the feeling that insufficient consideration had been given in not having more than one award.

4. It would have a likelihood to tarnish the admitted bravery possessed by our fire fighters in that the assumption might be placed on it that what would be considered an ordinary call to duty would be performed because of a cash remuneration.

5. A heroic act may be a team affair with more than one man participating in the heroism. How could one determine which was the most heroic of the combined number performing this unusual feat?

6. All of the fire fighters of the department at a fire would not have equal opportunity to perform acts of heroism inasmuch as the duties of some strictly demand that they perform necessary work that would limit their participation in most heroic acts, such as pump operators, drivers of engines and members of engine companies engaged in stretching lines of hose.

7. The human factor of the reporting of the most heroic act would enter into it. What one person would consider a most heroic act another officer might consider just an ordinary performance of duty. Consequently, it would depend too often on the viewpoint of the one who makes the report.

8. Fire fighting is essentially a team work proposition and it is necessary that at all times the activities in fire fighting and rescue work be organized from that viewpoint solely. Consequently, no appearance of favoritism can be allowed to exist so that opportunities to gain money would not depend on who is sent on any particular part of the fire or rescue effort.

9. It might lead to individuals taking a chance far beyond reason of accomplishment and thereby cause loss of their own lives or the lives of others.

I certainly feel that while this idea is not without merit we should proceed most carefully in its adoption lest it defeat the purpose for which it is established.

Very truly yours,
FRANCIS X. COTTER, Fire Commissioner.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

The following letter from Superintendent Haley to the Members of the School Department was ordered spread upon the records:

To All Members of the School Department:

With the coming of the Christmas Season it is especially gratifying to extend cordial greetings and to convey renewed expressions of deep appreciation for your continuing contributions to the effectiveness of our school system. Your generous spirit of cooperation, manifest in all mutual undertakings, strengthens confidence in the ability of our school system to accomplish successfully whatever tasks may lie ahead.

The members of the School Committee join with me in wishing for you the choicest blessings of the Christmas Season and Peace and Happiness throughout the New Year. May God grant each and every one the wisdom and the courage to meet bravely and cheerfully each challenge of the New Year, and the vision and the energy to recognize and to use each opportunity.

As we face the New Year, united in the resolution to provide the richest possible educational experiences for our boys and girls, let us also reflect upon this inspiring and appropriate message of an unknown poet:

May every soul that touches mine—
Be it the slightest contact,
Get therefrom some good,
Some little grace, one kindly thought,
One aspiration yet unfelt,
One bit of courage for the darkening sky,
One gleam of faith,
To brave the thickening ills of life,
One glimpse of brighter skies beyond the gathering mist,
To make this life worthwhile,
And Heaven a surer heritage.

Sincerely yours,
DENNIS C. HALEY,
Superintendent
Boston Public Schools.

Dear Mr. Carr:

"The Craftsman," the Yearbook of the Boston Trade High School, published in June 1954, has been awarded first place in a national competition conducted by the Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University, New York City. Seventy-four Yearbooks from Maine to California were evaluated in the vocational high school field. This is the fourth consecutive year that the highest rank has been awarded to this publication.

The citation which describes the National Award contains many laudatory comments concerning the excellent quality of the instruction given to students in the Printing and English Departments of the Boston Trade High School.

The National Award is a distinction which reflects honor on the Public School Department of the City of Boston.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) E. M. McDonough,

OUTDOOR HOCKEY OPPORTUNITIES

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, before Miss Fitzgerald says something important I would like to get on the reeord something which I hope will have importanee later. I will be very brief. This is the subject of New England weather. This is in regard to the Physieal Edueation Department and the particular sport of hoekey.

This has been a normal winter with ice available in eertain ponds of the Metropolitan District starting the first Sunday in December. I, for instance, have found good hoekey playing on all of the last three Sundays, including yesterday.

I doubt if any Boston schoolboy, from the thirty or forty thousand of them, found any hoekey, exeept possibly a week ago when the eold spell was at its depth.

I want in later times to refer to that, with a view to seeing that more of our youngsters get the benefit of outdoor skating.

THANKS TO CHAIRMAN

Miss Fitzgerald: I wish, Mr. Carr, this being the last meeting of 1954, to thank you as Chairman for the admirable conduet of meetings whieh you have given us during 1954 and for your fair, kindly, and firm exeeution of affairs as Chairman.

Chairman: Thank you. I eertainly appreciate those remarks.

I would also like to submit a report of progress on the legislative bills whieh we have asked Mr. Frank O'Connor to follow through.

Dr. Dennis C. Haley
Superintendent of Publie Schools
15 Beacon Street
Boston, Massaehusetts

Dear Dr. Haley:

I am submitting for your eonsideration report concerning the progress of the architeetural plans and eonstruetion plans for proposed school buildings which are now in the process of being drafted.

William E. Russell District - Elementary School.

Architeet has filed with this department what he eonsiders to be complete drawings excepting heating, ventilating and eleetrical drawings whieh are being prepared by this department. The architeet's final drawings are being eheeked, partieularly as relates to strueture and foundations. Heating, ventilating and plumbing drawings are 90% complete and specifications for same are being written at the present time.

Borings and test pits have been taken at the site; and information eoneerning the nature and load bearing value of soil determined by borings are being eorrelated with information shown on arehitect's drawings.

Curtis Guild Addition

Working drawings, plan sections and details are being drafted and are well advanced, it being antieipated they will be eompleted within a three-week period. Both structural and plumbing plans are likewise very well advaneed, and specifieations for same are being written. Eleetrieal, heating and ventilating plans are keeping paee with architeetural plans.

Borings and test pits have been made at the site and information relative to soil value conditions is being eheeked with struetural foundation design.

Examination of the site has disclosed that the present rubble wall whieh borders the foundation wall of the proposed building has bulged so badly that it must be removed and be replaced by a reinforeed eonerete wall which will become part of the building.

James J. Chittiek Addition

Arehiteetural, structural, framing plans, ineluding details, ete., will be eompleted in a ten-day period, and speeifieations are about 75% eompleted. Plumbing plans are 90% eompleted, and heating, ventilating and electrieal plans are progressing in the same ratio as the arehitect's plans

Borings have been taken at the site. Information gained from them is being compared with engineer's foundation design.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) James H. Mooney.
Superintendent of Construetion.

COMMENDATION OF RADIO STATIONS

Mr. Musco: I recently have received from Mr. Heffernan, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent, a report regarding the fine work that Radio Station WMEX has been doing in order to publicize the services and inform the public of the fine work that is being done in our schools. I have this report and I would like to submit it.

Chairman: Do you want that spread on the record?

Mr. Musco: Yes, sir.

Chairman: No objections.

The following is the report of Mr. Heffernan:

This week the Tenth Annual Christmas Festival program of the Boston Public Schools will be broadcast over Radio Station WMEX. On this occasion it is most appropriate to express to the management and the entire staff the deep appreciation of the Boston School Committee for their generosity and cooperation in providing countless opportunities down through the years for our school personnel and pupils to present the aims and accomplishments of our schools to the public over the air.

Ever since the Boston School Department first employed the medium of radio, Station WMEX has made its facilities available for our use upon request, and the station personnel have shown the same sincere and effective interest in our programs as have our participating administrators, teachers, and pupils. Our Central Radio Workshop, in which pupils have prepared and rehearsed planned productions during recent years, has had free use of studios for rehearsals and has broadcast its programs from this station. Despite the enthusiastic and capable leadership of its director and assisting faculty members, this activity could not have been such a great success without the encouragement, assistance, and advice of the management and the staff of Radio Station WMEX.

The record of service of Radio Station WMEX to the Boston Public Schools has been outstanding and exemplary down through the years. It has been an invaluable factor—which we appreciate and commend most sincerely—in building better understanding and more effective support of our schools by the public for whom we strive conscientiously and untiringly to provide the best in education.

Miss Fitzgerald: On behalf of the members I would like to express to Station WBMS the thanks of the Committee for the generosity of the Station in making available to the School Committee its facilities for various programs throughout the school year.

Weekly broadcasts have been given over Station WBMS covering various areas and levels of the Boston public school system, which have been of great value to the teachers and pupils in our schools as well as to the listening public.

The Secretary was directed to send letters of thanks to both Radio Stations.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

AGNES E. REYNOLDS
Secretary

Jan. 3, 1955.

The meeting for organization of the School Committee of the City of Boston for the current municipal year was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 12:18 P. M.

Present: Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Mr. Lee, Mr. Musco, and Mr. Ward.

Mr. Lee: The meeting will now be in order.

A notice sent to us by our Secretary states that this is the meeting for the organization of the School Committee.

In any case, God has spared the lives of all of us. We are all here again.

Miss Reynolds, would you read the relevant parts of the law which establish us as five persons in charge of schools?

Secretary: Under the provisions of Chapter 376 of the Acts of 1951, an Act amending and clarifying certain sections of the Act providing three optional plans of city government, the membership of the School Committee for the year 1955 is:

William S. Carr, Mary K. Fitzgerald, Joseph Lee, Louis F. Musco, and Michael J. Ward.

Mr. Lee: Thank you, Miss Reynolds.

In giving historic place to our meeting today—which is a short one—I would like to reflect that this committee of citizens of ours in charge of the schools has now been a longer time a part of the United States than its combined years as a part of the British kingdom or in transition from one to the other.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN

Mr. Lee: We now proceed to the business of choosing a chairman for this Committee, which has had such long standing in Massachusetts history; and I will read to you the first section of our Rules and Regulations which applies to this meeting:

"Section 1. The annual meeting of the School Committee for organization shall be held on the first Monday in January of each year. The School Committee shall be called to order by the member present whose original election as a member of the school committee of the city of Boston is of the earliest date, who shall preside until the chairman is chosen."

If there are no objections I will now call for nominations for the office of Chairman of the School Committee.

Do I hear any nominations?

Mr. Carr: Mr. Chairman, a point of inquiry. Is that the procedure we follow—that we nominate, or do we just vote?

Secretary: Normally we just elect on a roll call; but if there are any nominations, they may be presented.

Mr. Lee: A candidate nominated might wish to decline. Some one might speak a word for or against one candidate or another.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Chairman, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to place in nomination the name of Mary K. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Lee: Will the Secretary kindly record that nomination. I myself would like to nominate a man of great good will and of very long service, Mr. Michael J. Ward.

Mr. Ward: Mr. Chairman, in answer to the Chairman I would like to say that I would decline any desire to serve as chairman of this Committee because I have had that great honor and that great privilege at another time.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to place in nomination the name of a man who has had the second longest service in this Committee to myself. I would nominate a man who has been an integral part of the city of Boston over a period of years. He served on this Committee with distinction many years ago, and as a young man of forty years of age he aspired to be mayor of this city. After an unsuccessful campaign for mayor, the nominee I am going to name was appointed by two different mayors to the Park Commission of the City of Boston. He is well qualified by training and by experience to be chairman of this board; and I take great pleasure in nominating Joseph Lee as chairman of the School Committee.

Mr. Lee: Are there any further nominations? Any further discussions? If there is no objection I will ask Miss Reynolds to call the roll—alphabetically, I believe, is the usual way—and each person will then give the name of the candidate he or she is voting for.

On roll call, the members respectively voted as follows:

Mr. Carr: Mary K. Fitzgerald.

Miss Fitzgerald: I wish to say thank you to my colleague, Mr. Carr, and to vote for myself as chairman.

Mr. Lee: Lee.

Mr. Musco: Mary K. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Ward: Joseph Lee.

Secretary: Miss Fitzgerald is duly elected Chairman. (Applause.)

Miss Fitzgerald assumed the Chair.

Miss Fitzgerald:

First of all, may I thank my colleagues, for indicating their confidence in me by honoring me as their Chairman. To my colleagues, to the Superintendent of Schools and the Administrative Staff, to the teachers and children and to all who have a part, major or minor, in the conduct of Boston's public schools, I pledge my services.

As Chairman, my duty is clearly to expedite School Committee meetings and see that the points of view of my fellow members are brought up in ample and free discussion at Committee meetings. Further, on any occasion where Committee representation is required it shall always be my endeavor to present the case for the schools fairly and accurately. My predecessor, Mr. William F. Carr, was such a chairman. I know there are members now serving on the Committee who could serve faithfully and well as presiding officer.

As members of the School Committee elected to serve during the years 1954 and 1955 we are all aware of the acute need for new school buildings and we have shown that awareness by voting the largest amount of money in Boston's history for the erection of new school buildings. There has been in recent weeks some criticism of the seemingly slow progress in the realization of the buildings. What the general public does not fully realize is that the School Committee itself does not have a full responsibility for the actual erection of new school buildings. Every move required by the School Committee to expedite new school buildings has been made.

The School Committee's actions as outlined under present law are confined in the matter of building schools to the allotment of monies obtained from bond issues or the tax rate in specific areas where new schools are needed. Once these steps have been taken, the School Committee's actual responsibility is ended.

However, through its one representative on the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, the School Committee is endeavoring to urge the Board of Commissioners of School Buldings to increase the speed of producing plans and later awarding contracts so that we will see during the course of the next year the actual breaking of ground for new school construction. The School Committee has asked for and has received a report of progress from the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings on current work regarding new school buildings. As Chairman, it is my intention, and I know I have the support of my members, to ask for continual periodic reports on progress of new school buildings and such reports will be printed in the School Committee's official minutes as part of the public record. Through informal conferences and by every possible means, this School Committee will remain in contact with the Department of School Buildings, a separate agency, under separate jurisdiction from the School Committee itself. This School Committee is sincere in its desire to give new school buildings to the children of Boston and to their children's children.

Another problem which faces us as School Committee members is the increasingly serious incidence of acts of juvenile lawlessness, among our young people. We as School Committee members are charged with educating better citizens. If we find among young people an increasing attitude of lawlessness we must examine what we need to do over and above what we are doing. We in the School Department are concerned with educating, not only the 2% of youngsters who are recognized by court records as delinquents, but also that far larger group of young people who are neither delinquents nor are they good school citizens, but rather they belong to a group which could go either way. It is with these boys and girls who crave good leadership and good example from their elders that we as School Committee members should be concerned.

How many boys and girls in this large group, who are not school offenders and who are not good citizens at school, are the victims of an attitude causing them to brand as "chicken" the good student, the obedient, considerate boy or girl, the student who is above cheating or fibbing at examinations? This attitude indicates a lack of moral courage which foretells a perilous future for the city, state and nation.

What we must inculcate in this, the majority of our school population, is a strong moral fibre and a sense of right and wrong. We must somehow bring home to these boys and girls that it is far more courageous to have moral courage, the courage of the spirit, the courage of one's convictions, and that moral courage brings with it a greater glory than bravery of the merely physical kind.

Several years ago with the support of the School Committee members I was able to introduce a program of Civic Education which in my view will produce boys and girls of strong character and citizens who will know how to guide the nation. May I indicate the objectives of this program of Civic Education:

Objective 1—An approach to balance and maturity in the individual boy or girl which is required for constructive participation in our democratic society.

Objective 2—Adequate understanding, wholehearted loyalty to the democratic way of life.

Objective 3—An understanding of the major features of the present world situation and the problems involved in attaining world peace.

Objective 4—An appreciation of our rights, privileges, protections and personal responsibility toward our form of government.

Objective 5—A keen interest in the affairs of human beings.

Objective 6—A determination to apply intelligence to our individual participation in political affairs.

Objective 7—A clear appreciation of the role of leadership and of the need for effective choice and training for political leadership.

Objective 8—The will to abide by laws and support their enforcement.

Objective 9—A grasp of what is needed to make effective the American scheme of free enterprise.

Objective 10—The earnest desire to develop and maintain understanding between differing racial and religious groups within our society.

During this year it will be my endeavor to obtain the help of my colleagues on the School Committee in making these objectives realities. We already have a trained nucleus of teachers who have been developing materials and methods to achieve these objectives in the classrooms. What we need now is to encourage more of these teachers to pass on their knowledge to their colleagues.

Again may I thank my fellow-members and look forward with them to a fruitful, if hardworking, year of achievement for the Boston public schools.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman, we look to you for great things this year—the more so after hearing your opening statement.

To give effect to what you have just said, I would earnestly hope that we might give an entire meeting to this problem of how our youngsters are acting, and to do so within the next week or ten days.

Chairman: In other words, you are suggesting a special meeting in between our regular business meetings,—is that true Mr. Lee, —so that we would have time to discuss such a question as this?

Mr. Lee: Yes.

Chairman: Then we should choose a date, Mr. Lee, at the close of this meeting which would be agreeable to all members?

Mr. Lee: That would be my hope.

Mr. Ward: Are you through, Mr. Lee?

Mr. Lee: No. Let me just finish this to make clear what I was saying.

As you know, last February 9th, I think it was, I raised the question of religious education in our schools, or at least the question of how much notice is given to things religious or is not given in our schools, and how much could be. And I said then that I would try to bring in a more carefully worked out recommendation on that subject.

Now in the meantime I have put considerable effort on that, and for the first time since I have been on this Committee I have something I would be prepared to read to the Committee rather than talking extemporaneously. I would like, as a matter of fact, to see a meeting on the question of spiritual matters in the schools come as a special meeting, and even come before the delinquency question, because spiritual values are a sort of underlying or overlaying part of the delinquency question.

I would hope the Committee might have a special meeting on matters of religion in our schools at perhaps its next session, and then a meeting on delinquency at a subsequent time. I think then the Committee would be getting on to real leadership and could plow through its budget with a sense of direction.

PROPOSED REPORT ON PROGRESS OF NEW SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION

Mr. Musco: Madam Chairman, before we go into the regular business, each one of us appears to have some particular pet project or views that one item of business may be more important than the other. Certainly all the items of the School Committee are important, and each one of us is vitally interested in it.

However, I recall just a year ago when we talked about school construction—and I believe you brought it out rather well in your opening remarks—we considered it important. To me it is a matter of great importance that our new school building program has bogged down. We received a Bond Issue in 1953. We approved the appropriations for certain schools in January, 1954 a year ago; and today, in January, 1955, there is no tangible evidence of any new buildings arising from the selected sites. I for one would like to prepare and present a running month-to-month report on the status of construction because I feel personally that there has been unreasonable delay in the Department of School Buildings. It may be outside the Department of School Buildings, but I certainly would like to find out what the problems are.

We have a representative down there for whose appointment we went through great lengths in order to obtain some type of representation, and I feel that we are not getting the proper return according to reports, that might come out of that Department.

We are going through a very unusual and probably the biggest building program in the history of the School Department; and I feel, even as a citizen and as an elected official, that it is going very, very slowly. I would like your co-operation and approval to submit at the next public meeting a report that will outline the start of the construction, the progress of it, the contemplated finishing date, a penalty clause for the architect or contractor who is handling the business, and also a performance bond so the schools will be finished when we want them.

I know previous Committees have talked about it and their intentions were good; but we have nothing with any teeth in it that will make these people move. Certainly we are interested in the school children's education, starting in September, 1955. We are interested in administration matters, and these things have taken up a lot of time. We are interested in the problems, too, that both yourself, Madam Chairman, and Mr. Lee and Mr. Ward and Mr. Carr would present.

However, I hope you will give some thought to this big problem as we advance into 1955 and the start of a new school year in September.

Thank you.

Chairman: Mr. Musco, thank you—and you will present that report that you are speaking of at the next meeting as a regular item of business?

Mr. Musco: I will do that.

Miss Fitzgerald: Is that agreeable to the other members?

Mr. Carr: Surely.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING

Chairman: Is there any further business to come before the Committee?

Mr. Lee: Set this next meeting, Madam Chairman.

Chairman: Is it agreeable to the members to meet on Monday next—Jan. 10, 1955—a special meeting on Civic Education topics?

Mr. Lee: I was hoping that we could start the New Year with this very important consideration of whether we are losing sight of spiritual things in American classrooms. It is a big subject and a tremendously important one and a very controversial one; and I am equally anxious with you to get to the subject of juvenile behavior, but I think it is more logical and perhaps more proper.

Chairman: Mr. Lee, I don't think that they conflict at all. I hope I have indicated in my remarks that I feel the spiritual side of this comes into Civic Education.

Mr. Lee: As I say, I was eager to have a whole meeting given over to the question of spiritual matters in our schools, and I had hoped that that meeting would precede the other meeting.

Mr. Carr: Meet at four o'clock then.

Chairman: Yes, we are adjourned until Monday, Jan. 10, 1955, at 4 o'clock.

The Committee adjourned.

The budget allowances for the year 1955 herewith submitted exceed those of 1954 by $686,752.79. Further appropriations, representing the so-called down payments on capital outlays, will be later submitted in a supplementary budget. These additional appropriations will cause the budget of 1955 to be approximately $1,100,000.00 more than the budget appropriations of last year. Appropriations for equipment of a capital nature, and for major plant rehabilitation of a capital nature, are not included in this year's budget, for the reason that these appropriations will be provided for through loans. Were these appropriations included in the 1955 budget, this year's appropriations would be substantially greater than those of 1954. It can thus be readily seen that the financial obligations and requirements of our city, growing ever greater each year despite significant and sizeable economies put into effect, are, and should be, of grave concern. In the absence of any substantial new revenues, or other favorable factors not now imminent, a budget increase must necessarily result in an increase in the new tax rate.

An analysis of the budget appropriations will reveal many reductions in operating costs. Unfortunately, those reductions are offset, in every case, by increased appropriations which must be made. For example, the half million dollar reduction in Fire Department costs is completely wiped out by a $600,000 increase in mandatory pension and annuity payments. Other substantial reductions are canceled out by increases in obligatory relief expenditures.

It is becoming startlingly apparent that the rising tide of municipal expense will drown out any hope of a lower tax rate unless additional income becomes available, or unless city services which are considered to be vitally necessary are sharply curtailed. Even if such curtailment were decided upon, little effective progress could be made in this direction for the reason that approximately fifty per cent of the total expenditures of the city is in the nature of fixed contractual obligations, or beyond the control of city officials to reduce or eliminate.

A study of the 1955 budget will disclose that allowances have been pruned to the point where further worth-while reductions are difficult to make without resorting to the extraordinary procedure mentioned above. If relief in the form of additional income is not soon forthcoming, this procedure could be the only means by which the tax rate of our city can be prevented from reaching a peak that will drive taxpayers out of the city and eventually drive our city government into a far more serious situation than now confronts it.

The financial facts relating to our city government are far from palatable, but no amount of overeager optimism should becloud them. Our city government is going through a most trying period, although it can be said that the future has many bright prospects. Our first concern, however, must be with the present. Only by a complete and general understanding of our current difficulties, and a complete and general realization of a situation which cries out for alleviation, may we lift our eyes to better days ahead. Our city government is organically sound, but unless we can compound, with promptness, sensible cures for the combination of ills which afflict our city, there will be no lightening of the heavy tax load which has such an oppressive effect on the fate of every business, and the future of every man, woman, and child in our city.

The form in which this year's budget is presented represents a radical departure from that of prior years. It constitutes the first step toward the achievement of a program or performance budget, which has become a goal of progressive governmental management throughout the country.

In my opinion, the manner in which the data supporting my budget recommendations has been assembled and presented provides a clear picture of the amount and character of work performed by the various budget units. I believe this new form will facilitate and simplify your consideration and review of departmental budget requirements for the current fiscal year. I recommend adoption of the accompanying appropriation and tax orders.

Respectfully,
JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, CHARLES J. FOX, SUBMITS BUDGET TO MAYOR.

GENERAL STATEMENT

The budget allowances recommended for city and county departments represent an increase of $686,752.79 over appropriations authorized in 1954. This increase has resulted mainly because of the necessity of meeting increased relief demands of approximately $1,000,000.00 in the Welfare and Veterans' Services Departments, as well as providing for additional noncontributory pensions totaling $600,000.00. If it had not been for these more or less mandatory items, this year's budget would have been a million dollars less than that of last year.

Every attempt has been made in the review of departmental budget estimates to maintain a hold-the-line policy in expenses. With the exception of the Apportionment Commission in the County Budget, no new services have been allowed, and no new positions have been provided. Wherever possible, the overlapping of departmental services has been eliminated, thus effecting one of the cardinal principles underlying the reorganization of departments in 1954. The services performed by departmental personnel have been thoroughly analyzed, as will appear from a review of Part II of this document, and it is believed that because of the work accomplished in this respect more effective controls can be established over the staffing of departments. As will appear in a subsequent section of this analysis, a reduction has been secured for the first time in many years in the appropriation for Personal Services.

CITY NEIGHBORHOOD AND REHABILITATION PROGRAM.

in the name of the Mayor and with his advice and consent, serves as committee coordinator.

Serving as direct liaison between the city housekeeping services, but working through the office of the coordinator, are the chairmen of the 15 District Committees, who comprise the Mayor's District Advisory Committee.

The City-Wide Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program, the Mayor's Advisory Committee, District Advisory Committee, District and Neighborhood Committees meet at least once a month year-round. Between December, 1953, when the last of the 15 District Committees was formed, and December, 1954, there were approximately 52 meetings of the Mayor's Advisory Committee, 122 of the District Committees, and more than 200 meetings of Neighborhood Committees.

Some of the District Committees are operating with the enthusiasm and efficiency of well-trained organizations, notably the South End, Charlestown, South Boston, Dorchester, Back Bay, Roxbury, Hyde Park, and Brighton-Allston Committees. The North End, West End, East Boston, West Roxbury, Roslindale, Jamaica Plain Committees, while already making accomplishments, have not as yet reached the efficiency of the others.

To assist the South Boston Committee in its operations the Health Department promptly conducted a house to house exterior survey of the 1,492 dwelling houses and workshops within the pilot area.

Immediately following the completion of the Health Department external survey, the Building Department, through the use of a staff of nine trained experts, made a cellar to attic inspection of all of the properties within the pilot area.

The Building Inspectors' report shows that all of the inhabitable houses were in conformity with the law insofar as plumbing and heating are concerned, but that 268 of them were defective in the matter of egress. Two of the houses were also found to have dangerous piazzas.

Upon the recommendation of the South Boston Committee, the city services have made the following improvements within the pilot area: replaced 70 antiquated gas lights with modern electrical street lamps; renewed 11 streets and sidewalks; and have made provisions to plant 270 Norway maple trees on the streets leading up to the historic Dorchester Heights Monument.

As a further means of checking blight in the South Boston district and with a view towards relieving traffic congestion within the area, the Public Works Department is planning during the coming spring to widen Dorchester street, which bisects the district, and improve with modern surface. It is also planning to build a series of safety islands in the center of Dorchester street equipped with modern illumination. At the same time the Traffic Commission will divert heavy truck traffic, which has been a detriment to residential properties along Dorchester street, to a highly industrialized area.

Outstanding among the District Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Committees is the South End Committee. Incidentally, all of the properties within five sections of the South End have already been studied by the Health Department inspectors and the reports turned over to the South End District Committee for their use in encouraging repairs and repainting.

Further impetus will be given to the South End Rehabilitation Program with the completion of the proposed redevelopment of the 15-acre New York Streets Area under the Urban Redevelopment Program and the proposed long-range redevelopment program in the South End Medical Care, Training and Research Center.

As a further means of increasing the efficiency of the District Committees, the Health Department as of this date, February 2, 1955, has assigned an environmental inspector to advise with each of the 15 District Committees. The survey is being conducted in all of the 11 fire districts of the city at the same time. In each district every weekday morning during the spring, summer, and fall months, a fire engine crew makes a systematic cellar to attic study of houses and buildings in search of fire hazards. During the first three months of the survey fires were reduced 25 per cent throughout the city.

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, CHARLES J. FOX, SUBMITS BUDGET ESTIMATE TO MAYOR.

FORM OF BUDGET

As indicated in the table of contents, the material relating to the 1955 budget is presented in this document in four parts or sections. Part I presents the appropriations recommended for the various city, county, and income departments. The departments have been arranged by functions, and the appropriations are set forth under the eight main expenditure groups. The departments listed in the city budget are those set forth in the reorganization ordinances adopted last year, which are indicated in the organization chart appearing at the end of this analysis.

COMPARISON WITH 1954

The following table indicates the differences between the appropriations recommended for 1955 and those approved by the City Council in 1954:

	1954 APPROPRIATIONS	1955 RECOMMENDATIONS	INCREASE
CITY BUDGET	$91,157,814 37	$94,796,631 00	$638,786 63
COUNTY BUDGET	6,521,147 81	6,569,114 00	47,966 16
TOTAL	$100,678,992 21	$101,365,745 00	$686,752 79
INCOME DEPARTMENTS	3,292,050 51	3,462,648 00	170,597 49
GRAND TOTAL	$103,971,042 72	$104,828,393 00	$857,350 28

The appropriations recommended for income departments will be met from the revenues collected by these departments, and hence will not affect this year's tax rate. In other words, the 1955 tax rate will be affected solely by the increase in the city and county budgets, which increase is indicated in the foregoing table as $686,752.79.

In comparing 1955 recommendations with actual appropriations of 1954, it should be pointed out that statutory allowances required in connection with contemplated loans have not been included in this year's recommendations. Under existing law, it is necessary for the city to secure the approval of the Emergency Finance Board for all proposed borrowings. The Board has under consideration three loans contemplated for 1955. In the event approval is given by the Board to these issues, it will be necessary to submit to the City Council, in connection with the loan orders, appropriations to be raised within the tax levy totaling $471,000.00.

PERFORMANCE BUDGET

Part II has been prepared in accordance with the "Program" or "Performance" concept of budget form. In its preparation, the structure and work programs of every budget unit have been examined and analyzed, and the information thus obtained has been presented in a form intended to show not only what the appropriations recommended will purchase, but also what they will produce in terms of service and work performance. The form used to present the pertinent facts relating to each budget unit is described in detail in the "General Note" appearing on Page 14.

This new type of presentation is based on as full and complete a disclosure of all facts as was possible to include in a document of reasonable size. Since this is our initial approach to the new budget concept, the costs of programs other than for "Personal Services" are based on some degree of proration of items, but it is believed that they furnish a reasonably true appraisal of the relationship between the dollar appropriations and the amount and character of work performed by the various units.

The differences between 1954 appropriations and 1955 recommendations, as they relate first to organization units and second to objects of expenditure, are shown in Part III.

CITY BUDGET

As regards the budget recommendations set forth in Part I for city departments, 7 reflect no change from 1954 appropriations, 24 are higher than in 1954, while 14 are lower than a year ago. The following table indicates departments reflecting changes in excess of $50,000.00 from the allowances for 1954:

HIGHER		LOWER
Welfare	$728,384 46	Fire	$581,421 75
Pensions and Annuities	600,000 00	Statutory Allowances' Loan	471,000 00
Hospital	594,518 00	Public Works	392,329 67
Veterans' Services	208,008 40	Police	161,850 00
Library	61,685 00	Boston Rent Board	108,500 00
Treasury	60,326 60	Parks and Recreation	59,051 00

The following comments explain changes from 1954 in objects of expenditure among city departments:

Permanent Employees. Despite provision for sliding-scale increases totaling $281,154.74, appropriations for permanent employees reflect a reduction of $576,371.25 from similar allowances in 1954 (see table on page 231). This reduction has been secured:

First, by allowing vacancies, except in key or necessary positions, to remain unfilled. According to records of the Auditing Department, 16,246 persons were receiving compensation in city departments on January 1, 1954. As of the first of the current year, this number was 15,931, representing a reduction of 315 employees in a year. Of these unfilled vacancies, 171 were in the Fire Department and 144 in all other departments.

Second, by anticipating the development of savings during the fiscal year as a result of deaths, resignations, retirements, unauthorized absences, and leaves of absence without pay. Reference to the "C — Personal Services" section presented for each budget unit will indicate that in a number of units deductions labeled "Anticipated Savings" have been made from the total which would be required if the full personnel quota of the unit was on duty throughout the year. The savings resulting from this type of reduction total $1,633,512.64 for all city departments. This is roughly 3 per cent of the appropriations recommended for permanent employees.

Temporary Employees. The increase of $52,973.85 reflected in this object may be attributed to an additional allowance in the Hospital Department for the employment of special nurses made necessary by difficulty in securing regular full-time nurses.

Contractual Services. The major portion of the increase of $352,491.90 reflected in this group may be attributed to the following:

Lighting Service	Increase in street lighting operating costs resulting from replacement of gas lamps with electric lights.	$75,000 00
Sewer Service	Substitution of contract cleaning of catch basins for former system of cleaning by department forces.	50,000 00
Sanatorium Division	Allowance for general painting program involving wards, tunnels, and outside trim of buildings.	40,000 00
Assessing	Employment of consultants in connection with the establishment of equitable property assessment methods and procedures.	25,000 00
Fire	Printing of new company assignment cards made necessary by department reorganization.	20,000 00
Police	Increased costs of printing the police list, as well as the processing of a larger number of parking violation notices resulting from stepped-up enforcement regulations in the downtown area.	18,000 00
Election	Printing of ballots and other expenses connected with the 1955 municipal primary and election.	16,000 00
Traffic	Erection of signs required in connection with new downtown and night parking regulations.	15,000 00
Treasury	National advertising in connection with redemption of traffic tunnel bonds.	10,000 00
Long Island Hospital	Expansion in visiting and consulting staff services.	10,000 00
Fire	Printing of new fire alarm boxes' location manual.	5,000 00
	Allowance for travel expenses of officers to other cities to observe noteworthy administrative procedures.	4,000 00

Supplies and Materials. Items contributing to the increase of $146,979.00 in this group are as follows:

Hospital	Increased allowance for medical, dental, and hospital supplies, made necessary by establishment of new services and changes in admitting procedure.	$70,000 00
Library	Increase in allowance for circulating materials such as books, films, and recordings.	65,000 00
Traffic	Allowance for parking meter clocks to replace those installed in the original meter installations.	7,500 00

Current Charges and Obligations. Increased disbursements by the Welfare and Veterans' Services Departments are responsible for the upward movement of $847,593.07 reflected in this group. For the first time in many years the case load in the General Relief category has moved upward. In 1954 approximately 3,400 cases of this type were being aided; whereas today the case load is in the vicinity of 3,800. On an average monthly budget of $60.00, this increase in case load requires an additional appropriation of roughly $280,000.00. The increase of $700,000.00 in Old Age Assistance is due to additional disbursements for medicines and dental and medical care. Up to two years ago recipients of this type of aid were reimbursed for expenses of this character. The change in the law providing that these charges must be paid directly by the Welfare Department has resulted in a substantial upward movement in the amounts disbursed. The increased costs for Veterans' Services may be attributed to an increase of roughly 200 in the case load and a 6½ per cent increase in recipients' budgets ordered by state authorities.

Equipment. The decrease of $293,217.60 reflected in this group is due to the fact that appropriations for equipment with an anticipated life of at least five years will be financed this year through loans.

Structures and Improvements. With legislative approval, appropriations for major plant repairs this year will be secured through bond issues.

Land and Improvements. The following allowances are responsible for the increase reflected in this group:

Sanitary Division	Purchase of land in West Roxbury for dumping purposes.	$20,000 00
Parks and Recreation Department	Planting and replacing of trees destroyed by hurricanes.	11,000 00
Sanatorium Division	Landscaping of grounds made necessary by hurricanes of 1954.	10,000 00

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, CHARLES J. FOX, SUBMITS BUDGET ESTIMATE TO MAYOR.

Special Appropriations. The major increase in this group has occurred in the item for noncontributory pensions and annuities. Since last year a number of employees have been retired under prevailing statutes because of disability.

County Budget

The following factors have contributed to the increase reflected in the budget recommendations relating to county departments:

Sliding-scale increases.	$31,693 88
Increased overtime payments at jail due to suspension of regular personnel.	5,000 00
Increased allowance for special assistants, experts, accountants, and investigators in the office of the District Attorney.	20,000 00
Increase in allowance for attorneys appointed to defend persons charged with first degree murder.	5,000 00
Increase in charges for boys committed to the Middlesex County Training School for truancy.	30,000 00

Savings secured in other groups within the county budget have reduced the net increase in county requirements to a purely nominal figure.

Income Departments

The increase reflected in the budget allowance for income departments may be attributed to the necessity of providing this year an additional allowance of approximately $180,000.00 for the settlement of damage claims resulting from major breaks in the water distribution system during 1954.

Pay Schedules

In Part IV the several pay schedules regulating compensation of city and county employees are shown. The relationship of these schedules to the various departments is indicated in the "General Note" appearing on Page 14.

1955 Tax Rate

In municipal finance terminology a budget is usually described as a balanced financial program in which the expenditures proposed are balanced by estimates of revenue and income. In communities conforming to this concept the budget, when submitted, serves to indicate more or less definitely the tax rate of the financial year involved. In fact, in many municipalities outside of Massachusetts the declaration of the rate occurs either at the time of the adoption of the budget or shortly after.

Because of existing laws and long established procedures, the annual budget submitted to the City Council does not present a complete financial program. The expenditures proposed within the tax levy are limited to city and county departments. Expenditures relating to schools, debt charges, retirement systems, and state and Metropolitan District assessments are not included, largely because these items are beyond the control of the Mayor and the City Council. Under the Massachusetts tax calendar a balanced financial program does not come into existence until the declaration of the tax rate, at which time the assessors bring together the expenditure requirements authorized or assessed by the various agencies, as well as the estimates of revenue to be received from various sources throughout the financial year. When the total liabilities and assets for the year have been determined by the assessors, they proceed to strike a balance by assessing the difference on property located within the city. In Boston this balance is usually established around the middle of June.

Since the budget herewith presented is not a complete financial program, it is not possible at this time to make any definite calculation of the tax rate for 1955. Insofar as this document is concerned, the increase here reflected for city and county departments would appear to presage a small increase in the current year's tax rate. An anticipated reduction in the Metropolitan Transit Authority deficit assessment might well serve, however, to offset the increase caused by the upward movement in city and county budgets. There are, however, other factors which will enter into the tax rate when finally declared which may serve to increase this year's rate over that of last year. In all probability, school budget requirements will be higher than last year, because of the continuation of the single salary schedule for members of the teaching force and the granting of salary increases to other classes of employees. Debt requirements will reflect a slight increase due to the fact that no Water Department surplus will be available for use as a credit against debt charges in 1955. Overlay deficit requirements will also be larger this year than last, and it now appears that the amounts to be received from distribution by the state of income and corporation taxes will be lower in 1955 than last year. In short, while a definite prediction as to this year's tax rate cannot be made at this time, it appears reasonably certain that the 1955 tax rate will be higher than that of 1954.

Conclusion

The foregoing statements serve to emphasize the necessity of establishing effective controls over financial practices and administrative procedures. Studies of departmental organization and methods should be made to determine what steps may be taken to improve efficiency of service and greater economy of operation. While, admittedly, new revenues are necessary to meet increased service demands, we cannot overlook the wisdom of securing maximum benefits from our present resources.

While on the subject of revenues, it would appear appropriate to recommend that departmental fee schedules should be thoroughly examined; and, wherever possible, revisions in existing charges should be submitted at an early date to the Council for approval. No valid objection could be raised against such a step when consideration is given to the increased maintenance and operation costs which have developed since existing fees were last established. While in no sense will action of this character produce revenues sufficient to meet the existing problem, it will tend to alleviate in some degree a serious situation.

Respectfully,

CHARLES J. FOX,
Director of Administrative Services.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with contractors, business houses, and commercial organizations for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from heads of the departments interested were as follows:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

BOSTON, January 24, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Bridge Service of the Public Works Department for immediate delivery of 20 tons of lead ballast for counterweights for the Malden Bridge, at Alford street, Charlestown, and in accordance with the following specifications:

"To be furnished in pig form; each piece measuring approximately, but not more than, 17 inches long, 6 inches wide, and 4 inches high, weighing approximately, but not more than, 110 pounds each; base of each piece to be rectangular without lugs, bosses or similar irregularities."

Written quotations were solicited from several lead refineries, fabricators, and reclaimed lead dealers. Three bids were received at prices as indicated below:

Louis Freeman, doing business as Boston Iron and Metal Company, $6,000, net.

National Lead of Massachusetts, $6,200, net.

Herman Nick Company, $6,400, net.

Inasmuch as this lead is needed immediately, bids were solicited from companies usually submitting prices on publicly advertised bids for lead. Since the lowest price submitted is the same as the spot price for lead in New York, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by a public advertisement.

It is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Louis Freeman, doing business as Boston Iron and Metal Company, for 20 tons of lead ballast, as per specifications, at $300 per ton. Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BOSTON, January 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Assessing Department has submitted requisitions to this office for forms to be used for 1955 tax bills and tax lists.

Moore Business Forms, Inc., who originally developed the forms used by the Assessing Department and who has supplied them to the Assessing Department for several years, has submitted an informal written quotation in accordance with the specifications set out on the requisitions.

Inasmuch as Moore Business Forms, Inc., has been the sole supplier for several years, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to this company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $16,799.58, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BOSTON, January 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Traffic Commission has submitted a requisition to this office for Luxor traffic signal lamps.

Luxor Lighting Products, Inc., the manufacturer of the above lamps, has submitted an informal written quotation. Inasmuch as Luxor lamps have proven far superior in lamp life to other lamps, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Luxor Lighting Products, Inc. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,515.04, less 1 per cent discount for payment within 10 days, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY.

BOSTON, February 7, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As you know, the Authority is preparing to sell the various multiple dwelling apartment houses constructed under Statute 1946, Chapter 372, as amended.

Prior to the sale, it will be necessary that the Authority obtain appraisals of the various structures in order that it may arrive at a satisfactory decision when they are about to be sold. By reason of the nature of the work which is to be done by the appraisers and the degree of skill and experience which is required, it is felt that the Authority should select men who have an extensive background in work of this nature and who are skilled in the work of appraising.

The Authority has selected Philip H. Theopold, of the firm of Minot, DeBlois & Maddison, and John A. Breen, realtor of Boston, as such appraisers.

Your approval is respectfully requested of an award of a contract to these men without public advertising. Mr. Breen has indicated that he will do the necessary work in connection with the P street and Columbia Road Project and the Farragut Road Project for a sum not in excess of $1,250. Mr. Theopold has indicated that his charge will be $200 a day, or $100 a half day, or $35 for an individual hour, if less than one-half day or a full day is consecutively spent.

It appearing that these contracts may be for sums in excess of $1,000 for each man, your approval is respectfully requested of the award of such contracts without public advertising.

Very truly yours,

JAMES J. MAHAR,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 4, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 351 of the Acts of 1929, I have decided, subject to the approval of your Honor, to request the Public Improvement Commission to take, for the purpose of supplementing the play space for the William Bacon School in the Dudley School District, Roxbury, the following parcel of land:

Beginning at a point at the southeasterly corner of Auburn street and Oakburn court; thence northwesterly, 98.74 feet to a turning point; thence southwesterly, 62.87 feet to a boundary line of land owned by the Boston School Committee; thence southeasterly along said boundary line, 98.47 feet to Auburn street; thence northeasterly, 68.20 feet to point of beginning, and containing 6,428 square feet. Be all measurements more or less.

The Superintendent of Public Schools has approved of the taking of this parcel of land, and I respectfully request your approval of said taking by eminent domain.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to engage the services of Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson, and Abbott, architects, 1 Court street, Boston, as architects for the proposed new branch library to be erected in South Boston.

The cost of the proposed construction is not to exceed $225,000, including the architects' fee. The architects will be paid a fee equal to the sum of 8.4 per cent of the full amount of the cost of said construction.

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no useful purpose would be served by advertising publicly for bids. Therefore, the Trustees of the Public Library have "Voted, That Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson, and Abbott, architects, 1 Court street, Boston, be, and hereby are, selected to design a branch library building to be erected on a parcel of land on the northerly side of East Broadway, known as City Plan No. 58, recorded with Volume 4, Plate 28, City Land Plans, in accordance with specifications to be set by the Library."

Your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to engage the services of Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson, and Abbott, architects, as indicated above.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by MILTON E. LORD,
Director.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 28, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Our custodian in the Charlestown Municipal Building informed us by telephone that there was a leak in No. 1 boiler.

I directed the F. J. Riley Company to make an examination and as a result they report that two sections were cracked and that there was leakage around several nipples under a hydrostatic test. Also it was found that the main return check valve, main return stop valve and blowoff valves were defective and should be replaced. It was found advisable to replace main return header.

Upon the receipt of the above report and in view of the emergency nature, I invited three reputable contractors to quote on the above work with the following results:

P. J. Riley Company, 293 Highland street, Roxbury, $2,957.

Powers & Mehagen, 506 Broadway, South Boston, $3,152.

J. P. O'Hearn, 9 Columbia place, Dorchester, $3,310.

This is an emergency that should be done at the earliest possible moment, for if anything should happen to the other boiler a very expensive freeze up might occur.

As time is of the utmost importance, I respectfully ask permission to award this work without the usual form of advertising to the low bidder, P. J. Riley Company, 293 Highland street, Roxbury, in the sum of two thousand nine hundred fifty-seven (2,957) dollars.

I believe the best interests of the city will be protected in this manner.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

BOSTON, January 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under an oral agreement with this department, the Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., have been furnishing hand towels to all offices in City Hall Annex and City Hall. The agreement calls for delivery of approximately 1,125 towels a week.

The towel service already rendered by the above company has proven satisfactory, and in my opinion nothing could be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this type of work.

In view of the above, I respectfully request permission to issue orders to the Federal National Linen Service Company, in an amount not to exceed $2,155.33.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

BOSTON, February 1, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

The estimated cost of the proposed facility is approximately $1,300,000, and the architects-engineers shall be paid a standard fee equal to the sum of 6 per cent of the full amount of the cost of said construction, which fee would include supervision.

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award the contract to M. A. Dyer Company, without public advertising.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 2,001.

On Tuesday, February 1, 1955, Detective John F. Toomey, Division 2, was assigned to investigate the robbery of a theater box office on Tremont street. Having obtained a description of the robber from the victim and acting on the assumption that the criminal would attempt a similar robbery because such a small sum of money had been realized, Detective Toomey continued his surveillance of the theater district after the expiration of his normal tour of duty, and through such diligence succeeded in apprehending a suspect in the very act of attempting the holdup of another theater. Following his identification by the victim of the first robbery, the prisoner admitted the crime, as well as another holdup.

The commissioner is pleased to commend Detective Toomey for his intelligent police work and diligent devotion to duty, and orders that he be commended and given two days' additional vacation.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,

Severally referred to the Committee on Confirmations.

VETO OF TWO ORDERS AMENDING COUNTY CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION PLAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 27, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I return herewith without my signature, and disapproved, two orders adopted by your Honorable Body on January 24, 1955. One order contemplates the amendment of the County Classification and Compensation Plan in the case of correction officers; the other order contemplates an amendment of the County Classification and Compensation Plan in the case of jail officers.

These orders are disapproved because any specific changes in the County plan of this nature necessarily have an effect on other positions in the County plan. It is, therefore, the purpose of the personnel officer of the City of Boston to make a complete study, this year, of the entire County Classification Plan which has been in existence since 1931. It has become apparent that this plan should be restudied and brought up to date.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

PARKING PLAN FOR DOWNTOWN RETAIL SHOPPING AREAS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Boston Traffic Commission relative to your order of January 10, 1955, concerning certain information designating areas in proximity to the retail stores in downtown Boston as retail shopping areas.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
January 24, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to the Council order of January 10, 1955, requesting that the Mayor's Committee on Traffic and the Boston Traffic Commission consider the feasibility of various proposals for downtown parking, I wish to report that the Citizens' Traffic Committee has not met recently, but our office has given consideration to the proposals and submits the following report:

1. "Designation of areas in proximity to the retail stores in downtown Boston 'Retail shopping areas.'"

Assuming that the principal area referred to is that which encompasses the large retail department stores, the following facts are applicable to the area bounded by Boylston street, Tremont street, School street, Milk street, Arch street, Chauncy street, Bedford street, and Washington street.

The total curb length in the area is 26,972 feet. Of this, 23,009 feet is restricted and only the balance of 3,963 feet is available for parking. This accommodates only 186 cars. There are 150 parking metered spaces and 36 without parking meters.

It is evident from the above facts that there is no opportunity to provide curb parking space for shoppers or anyone else within this area.

2. "That in these areas no parking fee be charged."

Because of the small number of spaces described above, the matter of providing parking without a fee is of no serious moment as applied to this large downtown shopping area.

3. "That there be installed in the place of the parking meters presently installed a device into which the parker must introduce the registration number of his automobile at the time he parks."

4. "That this device record on a tape the length of time a given automobile is parked."

We have no knowledge of any tested device for supervising parking which would permit the parker to "introduce the registration number of his automobile at the time he parks" or that would record on a tape the length of time a given automobile is parked.

5. "That where such devices are used, signs be posted, indicating that the area is for the use strictly of shoppers and that violators parking overtime will be automatically tagged."

Since it would be impossible to differentiate between shoppers and other parkers and since we have at present, in areas where parking is not prohibited, a two-hour restriction, there would apparently be no change in the parking rules governing these areas if the suggested device were to be used. The proposal would seem to indicate that the device itself would record, in some manner, the overtime parking of a car and that the violation could be associated with the registration number of the offending car and that this information could be used for the purpose of prosecuting the violator.

As previously commented, since we have no knowledge of the suggested device, it is difficult to establish whether such means of recording a parking violation could be used as legal basis for a prosecution.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

In summary it would seem that no firm opinion as to the functional feasibility of the proposed device could be arrived at without having seen the device operate.

At present this commission is operating approximately 8,100 parking meters. It is estimated that the annual cost of maintaining a parking meter, including physical maintenance, coin collection, police supervision, snow removal, and so forth, is approximately $65. Most of our meters are in or proximate to areas which could be designated as "retail shopping areas." It is evident that widespread use of the suggested device with no fee to be charged would place a serious financial burden on the city, since it may be assumed that the cost of maintaining each of the devices would approximate that of maintaining a parking meter.

The Chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Traffic is Mr. Thomas J. Carty, Retail Stores Delivery, 144 Second street, Cambridge. This committee operates independently of the Traffic Commission but I am calling this matter to their attention in the event that it was not done directly from your office.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

RESTORATION OF STREETCAR SERVICE ON WASHINGTON STREET, BETWEEN EGLESTON SQUARE AND FOREST HILLS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the General Manager of the Metropolitan Transit Authority relative to your order of January 24, 1955, concerning the restoring of streetcar service on Washington street, between Egleston square and Forest Hills, after 8 P.M. daily and Sundays.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Metropolitan Transit Authority,
January 28, 1955.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

In connection with the matter of service on Washington street, between Egleston square and Forest Hills, after 8 P.M. daily, the service was discontinued in 1951 because from 6.31 through the evening there were only 59 passengers inbound and 72 outbound; inbound, 6 passengers per trip; outbound, 7 passengers per trip.

The system mileage has had to be reduced to meet the decrease in passenger riding, and light lines of this character, of necessity, have been discontinued at many points on the system.

The number of passengers transported on the system in 1951 was 288,972,823, and in 1954 will be approximately 245,000,000. Under such conditions, it is not possible to operate the same amount of mileage, convenient as it might be, to keep within the financial problem, which has been at most a severe one.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
General Manager.

BETTER LIGHTING FACILITIES FOR BOSTON COMMON AND PUBLIC GARDEN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of January 17, 1955, concerning better lighting facilities for the Boston Common and Public Garden.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
January 31, 1955.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of January 17:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the Parks and Recreation Commissioner relative to providing better lighting facilities for the Boston Common and Public Garden."

The Public Works Department has jurisdiction over the lighting of all public streets and park areas located in the city. The order, therefore, was referred to me for attention.

You may be assured that an immediate survey of existing lighting conditions will be made in the Boston Common and Public Garden areas, and steps will be taken to provide adequate lighting facilities for such areas, if the results of the survey determine that they are inadequately lighted at this time.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

RETIREMENT OF TRAFFIC TUNNEL BONDS OF 1935.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

On August 1, 1935, the City of Boston issued under St. 1929, c. 297, as amended by St. 1932, c. 287, in connection with the construction of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel, bonds aggregating $500,000 and bearing interest at the rate of 2 ½ per cent per annum. These bonds were thirty-year bonds; but, fortunately, they contain an express provision for call, retirement, and cancellation by the city on August 1, 1955. There are now funds in the hands of the Board of Commissioners of Sinking Funds sufficient for the retirement and cancellation of these bonds on August 1, 1955. Transmitted herewith is an order calling these bonds for such retirement and cancellation. I recommend its immediate adoption.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Whereas, Under date of August 1, 1935, the City of Boston issued under St. 1929, c. 297, as amended by St. 1932, c. 287, Traffic Tunnel Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1929, Series B, in the aggregate principal amount of $500,000, bearing interest at the rate of 2 ½ per cent per annum payable semi-annually on February 1 and August 1 of each year, which bonds are due August 1, 1965, with an express provision for call, retirement, and cancellation by the city on any interest date after twenty years from the date of issue; and

Whereas, St. 1945, c. 361, s. 3, provides that, if Traffic Tunnel Retirement Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1945, are issued under said chapter 361, the city shall call, retire, and cancel, at the earliest date permitted, Traffic Tunnel Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1929, Series B, in accordance with their terms; and

Whereas, Traffic Tunnel Retirement Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1945, were issued under said chapter 361; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the aforesaid issue of 2 ½ per cent Traffic Tunnel Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1929, Series B, dated August 1, 1935, and due August 1, 1965, be, and hereby is, called for retirement and cancellation on August 1, 1955; and it is hereby further Ordered, That the Collector-Treasurer of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to give notice of said call during the month of June, 1955, by causing a notice of call to be printed once in each of three successive weeks in (1) two financial publications of national circula-

Ordered, That the aforesaid notice of call shall be in substantially the following form:

CITY OF BOSTON
IN THE
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

NOTICE OF CALL OF BONDS FOR RETIREMENT AND CANCELLATION.

To Holders of 2 ½ Per Cent Traffic Tunnel Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1929, Series B, Dated August 1, 1935, and Others Concerned:

Public notice is hereby given that all outstanding 2 ½ per cent Traffic Tunnel Bonds, City of Boston, Act of 1929, Series B, dated August 1, 1935, and due August 1, 1965, have been called for retirement and cancellation on August 1, 1955, on which date interest on such bonds will cease.

Payment of the face amount of each of said bonds, with any accumulated unpaid interest to August 1, 1955, will be made by the City of Boston on and after August 1, 1955, upon surrender of the bond (with, in the case of a coupon bond, the February 1, 1956, and subsequent coupons and the coupons for any accumulated unpaid interest) at the office of the Collector-Treasurer, City Hall, Boston, Massachusetts. Coupons maturing on or before August 1, 1955, may, at the option of the holder, be detached and collected in the usual manner.

Collector-Treasurer of the City of Boston.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

On December 1, 1935, the City of Boston issued under St. 1929, c. 297, as amended by St. 1932, c. 287, and by St. 1935, c. 455, in connection with the construction of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel, bonds aggregating $300,000 and bearing interest at the rate of 2¼ per cent per annum. These bonds were thirty-year bonds; but, fortunately, they contain an express provision for call, retirement and cancellation by the city on December 1, 1955. There are now funds in the hands of the Board of Commissioners of Sinking Funds sufficient for the retirement and cancellation of these bonds on December 1, 1955. Transmitted herewith is an order calling these bonds for such retirement and cancellation. I recommend its immediate adoption.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

APPROVAL OF CONSTABLE'S BOND.

The constable's bond of Max Ostrofsky, having been duly approved by the Collector-Treasurer, was received and approved.

APPOINTMENT OF JOHN W. CANTY.

Notice was received from the Health Department of the appointment of John W. Canty, 45 Magdala street, Dorchester, as Collector of Milk Samples.

Placed on file.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFIRMATIONS.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN, for the Committee on Confirmations, submitted the following:

Report on appointment by the Mayor (referred January 24) of George Courlang as constable with authority to serve civil process upon filing of bond for term ending April 30, 1955—recommending that appointment be confirmed.

The report was accepted, and the question came on confirmation. Committee, Councillors Foley and Piemonte. Whole number of ballots 8, yeas 8, and the appointment was confirmed.

PROPOSED RENT INCREASES IN CHAPTER 372 HOUSING UNITS.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Whereas, Chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946 was adopted by the Massachusetts General Court for the avowed purpose of providing housing for veterans of World War II at reasonable rates, and

Whereas, It would not be in keeping with the legislative intent to substantially increase the rentals now existing on units built under this act; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, go on record as opposed to any flat "across the board" increase in the rentals of the so-called "372 Housing" units.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Boston Housing Authority to refrain from increasing the rentals in those housing units built under Chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946 until the Committee on Housing of the Boston City Council has had an opportunity to meet with the said Boston Housing Authority to discuss this entire program.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to give the Boston City Council a ruling of law on whether or not the State Housing Authority must approve a vote of the Boston Housing Authority increasing the rentals of those public housing units controlled by Chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946.

Severally passed under suspension of the rules.

OPPOSITION TO "RIGHT TO WORK" LEGISLATION.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Whereas, Union security has been one of the basic principles of the organized workers of this city and state; and

Whereas, The union security provisions in collective bargaining contracts have contributed greatly to the excellent labor-management relations that constitute one of Massachusetts' economic assets; and

Whereas, There is pending before the 1954 Legislature a bill, House No. 860, that would outlaw all forms of union security, including the union shop maintenance of membership and preferential shop; and

Whereas, Such legislation masquerades under the beguiling title of "Right to Work"; and

Whereas, The enactment of House Bill No. 860 would undermine or destroy unions in Massachusetts and weaken the wages, hours and working conditions that they have secured for organized, as well as unorganized workers, in this state; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council go on record as unalterably opposed to this union-busting bill, House No. 860, and call upon the Great and General Court to reject this immoral, dangerous, unreasonable, and unsound legislation.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

OPPOSITION TO LEGISLATION NOT CONTAINING ACCEPTANCE BY CITY COUNCIL.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, go on record as unalterably opposed to the enactment of legislation by the Great and General Court of any measures pertaining to Boston which do not contain a provison for acceptance by the Boston City Council, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Speaker of the House, the President of the Senate, His Excellency the Governor, and the clerks of the House and Senate, respectively.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

SALE OF JOYCE KILMER PARK LAND.

Coun. HAILER and McLAUGHLIN offered the following:

Whereas, There is legislation now awaiting the signature of Governor Herter—Senate Bill No. 9—authorizing the sale of 9.53 acres of park land known as the Joyce Kilmer park in the Jamaica Plain and Roslindale section without requiring the approval of the Boston City Council; and

Whereas, The signing of this legislation into law would be a direct encroachment upon the home rule powers of the Boston City Council; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, herein assembled, requests his Excellency, Governor Herter, to have this legislation "recalled."

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

(Coun. AHEARN in the Chair.)

APPEARANCE OF LEGISLATIVE AGENT OF CITY AT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING TODAY.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Law Department be requested to arrange to have the Legislative Agent for the City of Boston present at the meeting of the Executive Committee of today's meeting of the City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

RETENTION OF LYCEUM HALL, DORCHESTER, AS HISTORICAL BUILDING.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Art Commission consider the wisdom of retaining Lyceum Hall in Dorchester as a historical building and as an integral part of the beautiful Meeting House Hill section of Dorchester; and that a brief résumé of the findings of the said Art Commission be forwarded to the City Council when prepared.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

HISTORICAL EMPHASIS TO "BOSTON STONE" IN NORTH END.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Art Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inquire as to whether due historical emphasis has been given the so-called "Boston Stone" located in historical Boston in the proximity of the Union Oyster House; and that a brief résumé of the findings of the said Art Commission be forwarded to the City Council when prepared.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

APPOINTMENT OF AD HOC COMMITTEE TO CONTINUE LIAISON WITH VARIOUS CIVIC GROUPS.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the President of the Boston City Council appoint a temporary ad hoc committee of three to five members to continue to explore means of establishing effective liaison between the City Council and various groups in Boston, including among others:

1. The Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce;
2. The Municipal Affairs Committee of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce;
3. The Boston Retail Trade Board;
4. The Boston Real Estate Board; and
5. The Boston Citizens' Council.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

FAIR LIVING WAGE TO EMPLOYEES.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, In certain very necessary areas of city employment, including the Hospital Department, wages of employees are set at levels so low that they barely suffice for the support of an individual let alone a married man with a family; and

Whereas, Depressed wages necessarily injure morale and cause men in such desperate circumstances to be tempted to courses of action not in the public good; and

Whereas, It is commonly accepted that the city would make the necessary adjustments were it in a financial position to do so; and

Whereas, It is a principle of moral law that an employee is entitled to a fair living wage, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council recognizes the grave responsibility incumbent upon political leaders amounting almost to a moral obligation to take such action as is necessary to correct this situation and to restore to the city its financial ability to cope with the many pressing demands of the times, including the assurance of a fair living wage to all its employees; and be it further

Resolved, That to avoid the seeking of a solution to this problem is to shirk duty and to desire the honor of political leadership without its corresponding serious and grave responsibilities.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

(President HURLEY in the Chair.)

CITY HALL AND ANNEX SITES AS CAGE-TYPE PARKING FACILITY.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, The present wealth of Boston which can be reached by municipal taxation for the support of necessary and desirable municipal activities is to an astonishing degree concentrated in the downtown area; and

Whereas, The survival of these commercial properties at their present level of value depends absolutely upon the availability of convenience and efficiency of transportation to and from the downtown area; and

Whereas, To meet present and future competition, the downtown area must offer to those who could go elsewhere to shop, transact their business, etc., convenient economical parking; and

Whereas, Space for parking in the downtown area can only be acquired by the destruction of extremely valuable property; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Planning Board consider the advisability of using the present site of City Hall and City Hall Annex as a location for an off-street cage-structure parking facility; and be it further

Resolved, That in connection with such a proposal, consideration be given to the possibility of relocating City Hall in a joint city-state office building on Beacon Hill or in a public buildings area on Beacon Hill in proximity to the State House, the new proposed state office building and/or the Suffolk County Court House.

The rules were not suspended (6 votes being required to suspend the rules), yeas 3, nays 2:

Yeas—Councillors Foley, McLaughlin, Piemonte—3.

Nays—Councillors Kerrigan, McCormack—2.

The order was assigned to the next meeting.

INFORMATION ON PATCH-PAVING CONTRACTS.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Council notes the timidity and continuing failure of the Public Works Commissioner to answer the substantial inquiries concerning patch-paving, filed in May, 1954, and now overdue more than half a year.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

STATUS OF REPORT OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE ON REORGANIZATION OF POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor advise this Honorable Body of the progress and present status of the report of the Citizens' Committee on the Reorganization of the Police Department of the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

APPEARANCE OF LEGISLATIVE AGENT OF CITY AT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING, FEBRUARY 7, 1955.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Law Department be requested to arrange to have the Legislative Agent for the City of Boston present at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the City Council to be held on Monday, February 7, 1955.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

BASKETBALL FACILITIES AT WILLIAM H. GARVEY PLAYGROUND.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Parks and Recreation Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of installing standard basketball facilities at the William H. Garvey Playground, Neponset avenue, Dorchester.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

Adjourned at 4.25 P.M., on motion of Councillor Piemonte, to meet on Monday, February 7, 1955, at 2 P.M.

Note: All debate of City Council eliminated from proceedings in accordance with Chapter 447, Acts of 1947.

(Stenographic copy of such debate on file in office of City Clerk.)

VOL. 47 SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1955. NO. 8

BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES THAT NO ACTION AFFECTING RENTAL INCREASES AS PROPOSED WILL BE TAKEN UNTIL AFTER ACTION BY CONFERENCE WITH CITY COUNCIL AND THOSE INTERESTED.

With reference to the current reports on rentals to be charged on Chapter 372 developments, the Boston Housing Authority issued the following statement:

After consideration of the whole financial picture of the operation of the homes and apartments built by the city for veterans under Chapter 372, the Authority voted, with Owen A. Gallagher dissenting, to increase the rentals of all remaining tenants by $19 a month subject to approval of the State Housing Board.

The State Housing Board informed the Authority that it had no jurisdiction in this matter.

In addition, the City Council has now requested the Authority to meet with it to discuss rents on these city-owned de-

MAYOR HYNES MUCH DISTURBED AT NEWS OF PROPOSED ABANDONMENT OF ROPE WALK AT NAVY YARD — ADDRESSES LETTER TO SECRETARY OF NAVY URGING THAT PROPOSAL, WITH ITS ATTENDANT HARDSHIPS TO WORKERS, BE ABANDONED — IN OPERATION SINCE 1834.

Following is a communication sent by his Honor the Mayor to the Secretary of the Navy:

HON. CHARLES S. THOMAS,
Secretary of the Navy,
Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR:

It is with great consternation and regret that we learn, here in Boston, that the Rope Walk at the Boston Navy Yard is proposed to be discontinued.

We realize here that a great many activities in which the United States government entered during the last world war are necessarily being curtailed. We believe, however, that the Rope Walk does not come within this category, for this activity has been in operation since 1834 and has been of inestimable benefit to our country during the War

M. DeMATTEO CONSTRUCTION COMPANY AGAIN AWARDED CONTRACT FOR DISPOSAL OF CERTAIN GARBAGE AND REFUSE FOR THIRD YEAR AT RATE OF $34,760 PER MONTH — CONTRACT ENTERED INTO IN 1953 STARTED AT $39,200 PER MONTH, WITH CONDITIONS EXTENDING TO MARCH 31, 1956, IF AGREED UPON BY PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER AND CONTRACTING CONCERN — ADVANTAGEOUS TO CITY — NEW FIGURE AT $34,760 PER MONTH.

Upon approval by Mayor John B. Hynes, the contract for disposal and removal of garbage and refuse under which the city has been operating with M. DeMatteo Company has been renewed and extended for the third successive year, with a saving of money by the city. The letter requesting a dispensing of new advertising for the work reads as follows:

CITY OF BOSTON,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, February 1, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Publicly advertised proposals for the disposal of certain garbage and refuse were opened in this office on February 10, 1953. The proposals were submitted for one-, two-, and three-year contract periods, and involved the furnishing of bids for alternate methods of disposal. The M. DeMatteo Construction Company was the low bidder under the Group A method, so called, for all the above-referenced contract periods.

On my recommendation, your Honor approved the award of a contract to said company, at a rate of $39,200 per month, for the one-year period from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, with the option on the part of the city of renewing the contract for the period from April 1, 1954, to March 31, 1955, and also from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, on the basis of the monthly bids submitted for the specified periods. The bids submitted by the DeMatteo Company for the two- and three-year periods were lower, per year, than those bid for the one-year contract, and it was advantageous, therefore, for the city to include in the original contract an option whereby, if the city so elected, it could extend the contract into the second year, and also into the third year, and take advantage of the lower monthly bid prices submitted by the contractor for such periods.

The original contract was prepared in such a manner that if the city exercised the renewal option, the monthly payments during the second year would be reduced so that the total payment for the two-year period would be equal to the amount bid by the contractor for said period, and similarly, the monthly payments for the three-year contract would be reduced so that the total payment at the end of the three-year period would be equal to the amount originally bid by the contractor on the three-year contract. Provision was also made in the original contract for the city to absorb 70 per cent of any increase in labor costs in the second and third years in any contracts involving such periods. The option provision was most advantageous to the city as it permitted us to take advantage of the lower monthly bids submitted by the contractor for the two- and three-year periods, but it did not obligate us to extend or renew the original one-year contract unless it was in the best interests of the city to so do.

MAYOR APPEALS TO SECRETARY OF NAVY IN REGARD TO CLOSING OF ROPE WALK AT NAVY YARD.

between the States, the Spanish-American War, World War I, World War II, and the Korean war.

As you perhaps know, the complement of workers at the Rope Walk are all highly skilled men, many of whom have worked at the Rope Walk for over 25 years. These men have great pride in the product of their labors and, in my opinion, should not be forced to leave the work which they know so well and do so well for some other type of employment. There is more than tradition to the general opposition of this community to the closing of the Rope Walk. There never has been a question of the quality of the product or the costs involved.

I bid you to reconsider any decision made to close the Rope Walk. It is almost as unthinkable to Bostonians as the dismantling of the U. S. Constitution would be. I hope the final decision on this matter will be to continue the Rope Walk as a worth-while and necessary part of the activities of the Boston Navy Yard.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor.

NOTED PRELATE OF GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH IN UNITED STATES IS GUEST OF MAYOR HYNES.

The Most Reverend Athenagoras, Bishop of Elia, Spiritual Leader of the Greek Orthodox Church for the New England States, who recently arrived at his new post in Boston from Los Angeles, paid a visit to the Honorable John B. Hynes, Mayor of Boston, at City Hall, Monday, February 14, at 3:15 P.M.

During his visit, the Bishop stated that Boston is not only a beautiful and progressive city, but that it is also the bulwark of American traditions and the center of American intellectuality, both in its secular and religious meaning.

He pledged himself and all his constituents to the service "that aims to help the people's determination to protect this, our country, from the threats of Communism and the evils of atheism, and preserve the American tradition intact."

In discussing the growth of the Orthodox Church in the past few years, His Grace mentioned the vast building program that has been initiated, singling out the new St. Sophia Cathedral of Los Angeles, considered to be one of the most beautiful religious edifices in the Americas, as well as a few of the new parish churches in this area, namely Lynn, Worcester and Fall River.

The Bishop conveyed to the Mayor the regards of His Eminence Archbishop Michael, the head of the Orthodox Church in America.

Accompanying the Bishop were the Rt. Rev. Kallistos Samaras, Chancellor of the New England Diocese, and Rev. George Gacopulos, Dean of the Board of Trustees of the Greek Cathedral of Boston.

velopments which are operated by the Authority as agent for the City of Boston.

In view of this, the subject of rentals at these developments is under reconsideration by the Authority, and at its meeting held recently it was decided to take no action affecting rentals until it had met with the City Council. Some time after that meeting a decision will be made on these rentals.

The Authority said that between 800 and 900 tenants remain in this program. The remaining 12,000 tenants in the federally and state-aided programs are in no way affected by these discussions, since rentals in those developments are based on income and the number of minors in those families.

FOR THE AUTHORITY,

FRANCIS X. LANE,
Administrator.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL CONTRACT AGAIN AWARDED TO M. DeMATTEO CONSTRUCTION COMPANY.

Under date of February 3, 1954, your Honor approved the exercising of the option by the City of Boston for the second year, and approved the entering into of a new contract with the DeMatteo Company for the period from April 1, 1954, to March 31, 1955, at a monthly price of $36,980. It is my unqualified opinion at this time that the city should also exercise the option and award a contract to the DeMatteo Company for the third year starting April 1, 1955, and terminating March 31, 1956.

Obviously, there would be no advantage to be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work, as no other contractor could possibly submit a bid lower than the monthly price for which the current contractor has agreed to perform this service. In addition, the DeMatteo Company has rendered very satisfactory service for the past two years on two successive contracts based on contract prices that were obtained as the result of publicly advertising for bids two years ago.

Therefore, I respectfully request authorization to dispense with advertising and to award a contract for the disposal of certain garbage and refuse to the M. DeMatteo Construction Company of 200 Hancock street, Quincy, for a period commencing April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956. The same terms and conditions contained in the current contract will be included in the new contract, except that the full compensation payable by the City of Boston under Group A, Item 1, shall be thirty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty dollars ($34,760) per month instead of thirty-six thousand nine hundred and eighty dollars ($36,980) per month; provided, however, that whenever during the period covered by the renewal contract the wage scale of mechanics and laborers employed by the contractor is—through no act of the contractor other than to comply with necessary and sustained demands of organized labor—above their average wage scale for the period from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, the monthly amounts of $34,760 to be subsequently paid the contractor by the city under such renewal contract shall be increased, but only to the point of absorbing seventy per cent (70%) of the increase in labor costs as determined from the weekly payrolls submitted by the contractor. Whenever during the period covered by the renewal contract such wage scale is below said average, the monthly amounts to be so subsequently paid shall be reduced by seventy per cent (70%) of the decrease in labor costs. The foregoing proviso shall apply to wages of mechanics and laborers only and shall not include wages of executive or supervisory personnel.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Very truly yours,

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 10, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your Honor's approval of my selection of Thomas F. McDonough, 25 Huntington avenue, Boston, Mass., as architect for the construction of an elementary school in the Rice-Franklin District, such school to be located on the site of the English High School, at a total estimated cost of construction of $1,770,000.

As there is a universally accepted standard rate for professional architectural services established by the American Institute of Architects I ask your approval of my procedure of dispensing with public advertising in the City Record as it is considered that nothing would be gained by public advertising.

All details of architectural fees, payments, etc., will be included in the formal contract.

The appropriation for this work was approved by the School Committee on February 7, 1955, and the work authorized.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

BOSTON, February 11, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

SUBJECT: Edward Southworth School Building.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I urgently request your Honor's authority to allow me to proceed to correct an extremely dangerous condition on an exterior masonry wall and piers supporting the gable end of building in the rear elevation. Movement of and fractures in the wall and the supporting piers of the gable, to the extent that the bond has been broken and piers are out of plumb, have caused me to take immediate action to stabilize the structure to prevent collapse.

The structural condition is so serious I have found it necessary to eliminate, temporarily, the entrance below fractured masonry as a means of egress from the building.

The D. Antonellis Company, 15 Sparhawk street, Brighton, engaged in general contract work on another part of the building, has been engaged to do the emergency stabilizing work necessary, and I ask your authority to enter into a contract with them, without advertising, to rebuild the affected parts of masonry and roof structure, on a labor and materials basis, at a cost not to exceed $5,800. Inspections will be made of the work daily and cost and time records kept by this department.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 1, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with a public solicitation of proposals in the City Record and to award a contract to H. D. Lockhart, 35 Hale street, Hyde Park, Mass., providing for the servicing of Long Island Hospital for the control of vermin.

The aforementioned firm has done this work for the past four years. The Lockhart Company services the hospital once each week at a cost of $100 a month.

During the past four years that the Lockhart Company has serviced Long Island Hospital, the hospital has been completely free from all types of vermin and rodents. It is my opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for performance of this work.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees of the Hospital Department.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

BOSTON, February 14, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record and to engage the services of Thomas Groom & Co., Inc., 105 State street, Boston, Mass., by contract in a total sum not to exceed $3,695.60, to bind in blank book bindings, whip or cross stitch for single sheets and for folded sheets, 20 pages to a folder, certain books and indexes, as requested during the period April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, in the quantities and at the prices set forth below:

100 1955 Record Books at $19.60 each.....	$1,960 00
10 1955 Registered Land Books at $20.15 each..	201 50
21 1954 Grantor Classified Index at $21 each.....	441 00
6 1954 Grantee Classified Index at $13.85 each...	83 10
40 volumes of Consolidated Index at $25.25 each...	1,010 00
Total.....	$3,695 60

This company has carried out this kind of service on behalf of the Registry of Deeds over a span of 35 to 40 years, and its work has been of the very highest quality. Since the proposed prices for the work are fair and compare favorably with the rates of others engaged in such work in this area, I am confident that this firm will continue to maintain its high standards. It is not felt that any advantage would be derived by publicly advertising for proposals for this work.

Respectfully yours,

LEO J. SULLIVAN,
Register of Deeds.

BOSTON, February 15, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request from your Honor written authority to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and, following the effective date of the 1955 budget, to enter into separate contracts with the Recordak Corporation, 99 Bedford street, Boston, Mass., for the furnishing of microfilm in rolls at a cost of $6.47 per roll to the Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, and with Photostat Corporation, 175 Dartmouth street, Boston, Mass., for the furnishing to this Registry of 160 rolls, 11¼ inches x 300 feet, Grade HH, photostat photographic paper, Byron Weston Linen Record Duplex, at $49.85 per roll, and 70 rolls, 11¼ inches x 350 feet, Grade R, photostat photographic paper at $20.85 per roll; both contracts being for the period commencing with April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956.

The approximate total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contracts is, in the case of Recordak Corporation, based on an estimated requirement of 400 rolls of microfilm at a cost of $2,588, plus up to $50 return shipping charges, making a total of $2,638; and, in the case of Photostat Corporation, on an anticipated need of 160 rolls, 11¼ inches x 300 feet, Grade HH, photostat photographic paper, Byron Weston Linen Record Duplex, and 70 rolls, 11¼ inches x 350 feet, Grade R, photostat photographic paper at a cost of $9,435.50.

The aforementioned firm, Recordak Corporation, has supplied the Registry with most of the same materials for the past several years, and their products have been consistently of the very highest quality. Furthermore, it has been found advantageous to use materials supplied by this firm because the microfilm machine used was purchased from the Recordak Corporation.

Service for the machines is an important part of the operation, and the Photostat Corporation from which the two photostat machines were purchased has agreed to service same and supply all parts necessary free of charge so long as the paper is purchased from said company.

Respectfully yours,

LEO J. SULLIVAN,
Register of Deeds.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

BOSTON, February 9, 1955.

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

Permission is requested to award to the Photostat Corporation, Rochester, New York, a contract for the purchase of photostat photographic paper, developer, and acid fixer in an amount not to exceed $5,000, without advertising for bids. Said paper, developer, and acid fixer are for use in the photostat machine in this department.

No other company can furnish said materials, so that there is nothing but expense to be gained by advertising.

I urge your favorable consideration.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN,
Register of Probate.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, February 7, 1955.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President HURLEY in the chair, and all the members present.

The Reverend Thomas More Nicastro, O.F.M., Christopher Columbus High School, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. THOMAS MORE NICASTRO.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Eternal God and understanding Father, we pause before this session to direct our thoughts Your way. We realize full well without Your assistance we could never successfully accomplish the purpose for which we are here assembled. In all our operations, then, may we be mindful of Your presence. May our intellect be keen, our will so firm as never to be influenced by friends or allurement of profits, but, in everything we attempt, may we always consider the people who have elected us to this office. May never thing we do never make them ashamed of their decisions in electing us; on the contrary, may it always justify the trust they have placed in us. What is more, dear God, give us the strength to continue our good work in spite of the constant criticism heaped upon us.

In all things may we ever keep before us our allegiance to God, and we will never forget our allegiance to our people.

This is our prayer, and please, God, answer it. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

APPOINTMENT BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointment:

Constable with authority to serve civil process upon filing of bond, for the term ending April 30, 1955: Paul H. McCarthy, 19 Savin Hill court, Dorchester.

Referred to the Committee on Confirmations.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY GROUP INSURANCE AND ACCIDENT AND HEALTH PLANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 31, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

Your order of January 24 calls for the appointment of a committee of three to investigate all phases of group insurance, accident and health plans, and the possibility of the adoption of a program of employer-employee contributory insurance.

As I understand the situation, our present authority is limited to appropriations for payments of premiums for group insurance. Accident, health, and other benefits must be the subject of further legislation.

The Director of Administrative Services has given this matter some thought and will make a report on the subject sometime after the budget has been passed. In view of this, and in view of the fact that one of the primary functions of the Administrative Services Board is to make studies of this nature, I would suggest that this matter remain with the Administrative Services Board for study and report.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. AHEARN in the chair.

INSPECTION OF GAS MAINS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 7, 1955

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the vice president of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, relative to your order of January 24, 1955, concerning the inspection of their gas mains throughout the city, for the purpose of detecting leaks.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Consolidated Gas Company,
February 3, 1955.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This reply is in regard to your communication of January 27, 1955, addressed to the president of our company, concerning the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of January 24:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested, for reasons of public safety, to ask the officials of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company to inspect their gas mains throughout the city, especially where land is settled, for the purpose of detecting leaks."

We are pleased to advise you that this company has for many years maintained a continuous system of inspection and safety control for the purpose of detecting leaks and this system is in accordance with the highest standards of gas distribution maintenance.

Respectfully yours,
A. W. JOHNSTON, Vice President.

Placed on file.

ORDINANCE RE CLEAR HEIGHT OF CLASSROOMS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 7, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of a communication from the Building Commissioner in which he calls attention to the need for a change in the provisions of the Boston Building Code relative to the clear height of classrooms in the schools.

The Building Commissioner is recommending that the code be changed.

I therefore submit herewith an ordinance which will accomplish the change recommended by the Building Commissioner, and I recommend the adoption of the ordinance by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Building Department, February 1, 1955.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council of the City of Boston.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, as amended by chapter 217 of the Acts of 1939, as Building Commissioner of the City of Boston I recommend the adoption of the accompanying ordinance which will strike from paragraph (a) of section 507 of the Boston Building Code the second sentence, providing, with respect to schools, that "the windows shall preferably be in the long side of a room and the width of a room shall not be more than twice the clear height" and will insert in place of such second sentence the following two sentences: "The windows shall preferably be on the long side of a room. The clear height of a room shall not be less than ten feet."

This change is recommended to bring the requirements for classroom lighting into conformity with accepted practice elsewhere in the Commonwealth and in practically the entire United States. The ten-foot clear ceiling height is basic in modern classroom construction. Modern architectural design with large areas of glass incorporated into exterior walls and in the roofs of one-story buildings provides natural light far beyond the requirements of law. Modern ventilating systems function in such a satisfactory manner that a classroom height in excess of ten feet confers no advantage, but does add materially to the cost.

Respectfully,
CHARLES A. CALLAHAN,
Building Commissioner.

City of Boston.
In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-five.
An Ordinance Relative to the Clear Height of Classrooms in Schools.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Paragraph (a) of section 507 of the Acts of 1938 is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentences: "The windows shall preferably be on the long side of a room. The clear height of a room shall be not less than ten feet."

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 26, 1955.

To the Honorable City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication received from George P. Donovan, Assistant Commissioner of Real Property, relative to the leasing of certain portions of the premises of the Municipal Building, 500 Columbia road, Dorchester, to the United States of America for local draft board purposes, and recommend adoption of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Real Property Department,
February 1, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Mr. Mayor:

Portions of the first floor of the Municipal Building, 500 Columbia road, Dorchester, are presently occupied by the local draft board pursuant to a lease which expired December 31, 1954. The General Services Administration of the United States of America has requested that it be permitted to lease this space for draft board purposes for a term of one year commencing January 1, 1955, and renewable for an additional year at an annual rental of $2,500.

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner in fee of premises at 500 Columbia road in the Dorchester district of the City of Boston, in the care, custody, control, and management of the Assistant Commissioner of Real Property of the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The United States of America desires to lease space in said building for office and related uses; now, therefore, it is hereby LEGISLATION PROVIDING FURTHER ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 7, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Among the measures filed with the Clerk of the Massachusetts House of Representatives on or before December 1, 1954, for consideration of the Legislature at its current session was a petition by me for legislation authorizing the City of Boston to borrow outside the debt limit an additional $10,000,000 for off-street parking facilities.

In 1946 the Legislature authorized a $5,000,000 City of Boston Parking Facilities Loan. With the proceeds of this loan, the city acquired five off-street parking sites and built the structure at Essex and Lincoln streets. Two other structures were built by persons holding 40-year leases from the city. This provided approximately 2,300 car spaces in downtown Boston, and left a balance of $500,000. A minimum of 5,200 more downtown car spaces are required in addition to the areas beneath the Central Artery and the garage under Boston Common. The land for these additional spaces will cost about $4,000,000. If the city must build the structures, the expense thereof will be an estimated $11,500,000 more. The $5,000,000 additional Parking Facilities Loan authorized in 1951 will cover the acquisition of the land, leaving $1,000,000 to be applied to construction. The legislation sought will provide the remaining $10,000,000 for construction.

Under the provisions of Joint Rule 7B of the Legislature, a measure such as the petition described above cannot be admitted for consideration unless approved by the Mayor and City Council. Submitted herewith is a resolve to meet this requirement. I respectfully urge its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Resolved, That the petition of John B. Hynes, Mayor of the City of Boston, for legislation providing further for the establishment of off-street parking facilities in the City of Boston, be, and the same hereby is, approved; provided that any such legislation enacted includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

LEGISLATION PROVIDING RESTORATION OF CERTAIN RETIRED VETERANS TO ACTIVE DUTY IN SERVICE OF CITY OF BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 7, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Among the measures filed with the clerk of the Massachusetts House of Representatives on or before December 1, 1954, for consideration of the Legislature at its current session was a petition by me for legislation enabling the restoration of certain retired veterans to active duty in the service of the City of Boston.

Between June 10, 1954, and September 8, 1954, many veterans who had been in the city's service for thirty years and were members of the Boston Retirement System retired to guard against a failure of the Legislature to amend chapter 627 of the Acts of 1954 to restore their right to retire under the veterans' noncontributory retirement statute, which had been taken away by said chapter 627. The purpose of the legislation sought is to permit the re-employment of these veterans within a limited time if circumstances warrant it.

Under the provisions of Joint Rule 7B of the Legislature, a measure such as the petition described above cannot be admitted for consideration unless approved by the Mayor and City Council. Submitted herewith is a resolve to meet this requirement. I respectfully urge its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Hynes, Mayor of the City of Boston, for legislation enabling the restoration of certain retired veterans to active duty in the service of the City of Boston, be, and the same hereby is, approved; provided that any such legislation enacted includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.
